

Trucks to Collect
Waste Fats, Cans
—See col. 1

Phi Beta Kappas
To Choose, Monday
—See col. 5

Assembly Will Feature UO Talent Rehearsals Begin on New Play Bond Contest Starts Monday

'Victory Clicks With War Loan 6' Chosen As 'Bonds Away' Slogan

"Victory Clicks with War Loan Six" is the title chosen for this year's "Bonds Away Girl" drive, Bob Moran and Ed Allen, co-chairmen of the project, announced Wednesday. Since no name was attached to the entry, it is requested that the author contact Carol Wicke, 1309. The $5 prize will be withheld until the winner is found.

'Dona Barbara', Mexican Movie, To Show Twice

"The only man who could stand up to Dona Barbara," Santos Luzzardo, is portrayed by Julian Soler, youngest in a family of outstanding Mexican actors, in the Spanish-dialogue movie, "Dona Barbara," to be shown in the Mayflower theater this evening. The Mexican prize-winning film, named "most outstanding for 1943," is the first to be presented in Eugene this term. It is sponsored by the University chapter of Sigma Delta Pi, national Spanish honorary, by the Spanish club of Eugene high school, and the theater management.

Dr. L. O. Wright, Spanish department head, Wednesday asked all persons who can to attend the second showing of the film, set for 9 p.m. Tickets predicting a full house for the first performance at 7 have already been sold, he announced.

University students had sold nearly 500 tickets to the movie in Eugene and on the campus, as reported Wednesday evening. This will be the largest crowd to attend any Mexican production so far shown here.

A mystery thriller "El Medico de las Locas," also Mexican-produced, is expected in December, Dr. Wright announced.

Law School Elects Skerry, Luoma

Harry Skerry, third year law student, was elected president of the student body of the law school Wednesday. The new vice-president is George Luoma, graduate. The office of secretary-treasurer was hotly contested before the vote was taken. Katherine Crombie, first year law student, was unanimously elected, however.

Social events for the coming year, including the law school weekend, scheduled for spring term, were planned.

Scrap Pick-up Today

Today is salvage pick-up day. If houses do not have their cans and waste fats on their front porches now, they should place the boxes there immediately. Trucks will collect the salvage material sometime during the day.

Victory Center Show Includes UO Band, Rally Squad; Moran, MC

Previewing the show they will stage before Portland's victory center audiences November 25, the rally squad will present at 11 a.m. today, a pep assembly featuring campus vocalists, musicians, the University band, and Bob Hamilton, captain of the University of Oregon basketball squad introducing 1944-45 hoopsters to the student body.

Evans Cantrell, tenor, is scheduled to sing "Time Waits for No One." The UO band will play "Bohio" and "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes."

Other vocalists signed for the program are Miss Lane County Barbara Bentley singing "Siboney," and Shirley Priestly in the manner of Betty Hutton doing "And the Rocking Horse Ran Away." Sue Welch, Jean Bauer and Betty Hanks are to sing in trio, and Doris Trask and Charlotte Wicke will dance a Hawaiian hula. Other numbers are "Lady of Spain" played by Pat Gentry on the accordion and a Boogie Woogie medley by Fran Olsson, pianist.

Master of ceremonies and rally squad member Bob Moran has announced that a new yell will also be introduced for the first time.

The assembly's entertainers will reproduce their show at the Portland victory center November 25 when all sales at the center for that day will be credited to the University of Oregon.

Second Guild Production To Star Dorothea Thomas

In a role played by Ethel Barrymore on Broadway, Dorothea Thomas, senior in liberal arts, will portray the English school mistress, Miss Moffatt, in the coming University Theater production, "The Corn Is Green." Otilie T. Seybolt, of the drama division, is directing the production.

Those who followed University Theater shows last year will remember Miss Thomas as the sarcastic and cynical novelist in "Dark Victory."

Today's World

THIRD ARMY forces have battled over the crest of the Pouilly ridge overlooking the city of Metz.

ALONG 200 miles of the Holland front British troops have broken through outer German defenses before the Maas river.

GEN. CHARLES DE GAULLE and Foreign Minister Didault will leave shortly for Moscow in response to Premier Stalin's invitation to confer on vital matters.

IN A TWO-MILE advance up the west coast of Leyte Yank forces have pushed to within 19 miles of Ormoc, the last enemy stronghold on the island.

MOSCOW ANNOUNCES that the final stage of the battle for Budapest is underway as fighting increases in the southern suburbs.

Mrs. Schwering Seriously Ill

Hazel P. Schwering, dean of women, is seriously ill at the Sacred Heart hospital. The doctors report that she has critical complications, and her condition is unpredictable.

She was admitted to the hospital early this term.

Dr. Schwering was driving to the hospital to visit her when he suffered a heart attack and died Tuesday. They were married July 1, 1929.

Interdorm Council To Meet Tonight at 7

Final organization of the interdorm council is on the agenda for the meeting tonight at 7 at Gamma hall of John Straub.

Representatives from each dormitory group will be needed for the election of a permanent chairman and to begin the plans for an interdorm formal to be held winter term, and an interdormitory bulletin. Genevieve Turnipseed will meet with the council.

FROM TIN CANS TO SYRETT

William Dunlop, University special student and veteran of the South Pacific, demonstrates the use of the syrett—a hypodermic needle made from two tin cans). Syretts are filled with morphine which kills pain for 14 hours, and are a part of the kits issued to men fighting in the Pacific.

Phi Beta Kappa To Select Senior 6

Phi Beta Kappa, national scholarship honorary, will choose six new members Monday, November 20.

The honor is determined by high grades and the following requirements: Applicants must attend the University now, with the possibilities of graduation in June; must have earned 135 hours at the beginning of fall term with no incomplete courses; must have completed five terms at the UO; must have at least a grade point of 3.5 for the last five terms; not have earned more than one-third of their hours in any one department or school; and at least 50 per cent of their credit hours must be in the liberal arts school.

Overseas Mail Prompt, Former Student Says

In a letter to George Turnbull, acting dean of the school of journalism, Lt. James W. Frost, journalism graduate, closes with this bit of information on the state of communications: "Incidentally, your Christmas card of 1943 finally reached me early in September."