

Volleyball Finals Drop Hendricks

An upset occurred in Thursday evening's volleyball round when the formerly undefeated Hendricks team was downed by the winner of league 2, Betty Crabb's Susan Campbell eight. The final score was 28 to 19, and although the strong team from Hendricks played their usual fast game, with the precision setting up of Barbara Borrevik, Elaine Taylor, and Captain Nancy Steele, they could not down the superior defensive playing of Beverly Bennett, June Wiswell, and Betty Crabb. Susan Campbell maintained a lead throughout the entire game.

Doris Craig's Highland team and Rebec house were evenly matched in a tie with 17 points apiece at the end of the first half. Rebec's Grace Edwards, Dorothy Currier, and Captain Phyllis Byers played an unusually speedy game and were quick to recover the ball, but they were unable to down the combination of Doris Craig, Ruth Shieler, and Evelyn Woodworth of Highland. The game ended with Highland on the strong end of a 41 to 20 score. They will therefore play the Orides team Monday, November 20. Susan Campbell will play the winner of that meet Tuesday, to decide the victor of the tournament. Umpiring Thursday were Mary Alice Lawson, Jackie Bogan, Shirley Cox, and June Karns.

Ducks to Meet Navycats Tonight

Oregon Ducks tonight play host to the Willamette Navycat team from Salem in their third start of the 1944-45 season. Following the showing of the Oregon five in the first games of the season, Coach John Warren has prepared for these tilts by putting the members of the team through rigorous workouts for the purpose of preparing them more completely on the defense system to be used in this game and the following encounter at the capitol city tomorrow night.

Judging from the reports issued on the Navycat five, one thing to take into consideration is the fact that the navy team shoots from all angles and can be a racehorse five if so desired. At the first of the season, however, Coach Warren told his players that he had never yet had a basketball team outrun and that this year was going to be no exception.

The casaba action of the week will take place Friday on the floor of McArthur court, the game slated to start at eight o'clock. Only one game will be played on the local court. Saturday's games will give all of John Warren's boys a chance to see action as two games have been scheduled, one for each team of the two ball clubs.

The Webfoots have been through extensive workouts to secure their defensive ability. Only the short time between the games of last Friday and Saturday with the Seattle coast guard showed definite improvement in the defense of the Ducks. This week has been spent expressly on this one item. It is expected that the Ducks will be able to put up a formidable defense system against the Navycats in tonight's eight o'clock game.

Former UO Artist Now On Campus

Miss Lucia Wiley, a well known muralist and former U. of O. art student, is on the Oregon campus this week, doing research work for her next mural.

For her thesis in art, Miss Wiley did the big fresco on the four walls of the art school court, and since her graduation has done murals in any public buildings, including one in the post office of her home town, Tillamook, and one in Washington, D.C.

A large London gallery purchased the cartoon of one of her Washington murals, an unprecedented honor for an American woman, according to a statement by a member of the art department.
