

- 1. Q. What kind of bonds can be bought?
 - A. Any kind. The Co-op will sell only series "E"; all others will be purchased at the First National or U.S. National banks. Corporations may not buy series "E"; therefore they must purchase their bonds through the banks.
- 2. Q. Where can bonds be purchased?
- A. At the Co-op and both banks.
- 3. Q. What happens after bonds are bought?
- A. If a personal bond, the purchaser may take it with him, or pick it up later. If bought for another party, the bond will be sent to the owner. The banks and the Co-op will retain the slips of paper that tell which living organization is to receive the credit for the purchase of the bonds. In this way the amount of votes for each "Bond's Away Girl" will be kept.
- 4. Q. How will out-of-town subscriptions be credited to the University?
- A. The person or corporation should send a check, money order. or draft to the banks, plus a statement crediting the bond to the University and /or to a living organization.
- 5. Q. How will students know the amount of sales daily?
- A. By reading the Emerald and by watching the thermometer in the Co-op.
- 6. Q. Will bonds be sold downtown at booths to townspeople?
- A. Yes. Any house interested in putting up a booth, contact Bob Moran at 660.

Ducks Beat Navy, 55-35

The University of Oregon Ducks held down the offensive powers of the Willamette University Navycats while going on a scoring spree themselves to emerge the winner in a loosely played ball game, 55 to 35. The Ducks led throughout the game, posting a lead after the first 15 seconds of play and went on to lead at the halfway mark 25 to 19.

Del Smith came through with the first Oregon basket, putting the Webfoots in front. The nearest the Navycat five came to posting a lead was when they tied the score at two points, but from then on it was all Oregon. Three straight baskets by the locals gave them an 8 and 2 margin, three minutes later and the score stood evenly matched until midway through the first half, when the Ducks increased their lead.

The Willamette five opened the second period with a basket, but again the Oregon offensive started to roll as they plied the hemp with four straight two-pointers. Scoring on the average of two bas- Correspondent Talks kets to one for their opponents, John Warren's team steadily increased their margin over the invaders. At this point the Lemon and Green quint clamped down to hold the opposition scoreless for four minutes while at the same time scoring nine points themselves to pull ahead by a 53 to 31 count. In the remaining minute and a half, Cummings, substitute Navycat, garnered the rest of his team's points as he broke loose under the hoop for two baskets. Top scoring honors for the night fell to Tate of the losers as he captured 13 points to top Ken Hays of the locals who gathered 12 counters. Lineups:

Skit Tryouts Set Tryouts to determine the cast of the freshman skit to be presented at Coed Capers will be held Monday at 4 p.m. in 107 Friendly, announced Barbara Johns, chairman.

Schwering Family Omits Flowers

The family of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Schwering requests that flowers be omitted for the funeral, the date of which pends word from relatives in the east. This is in accordance with the custom of the University of Oregon Mothers organization, of which Dean Schwering was a member.

Those who might send flowers are invited to contribute that amount to the Greenwood memorial fund of the University of Oregon Mothers. This fund pro-Huestis, Route 2, Eugene.

Dig Deep and Dunk the Enemy 'Clicks', 'Six' Rhyme; Freshman Wins Prize

> Mickey Metcalf, freshman in journalism, submitted the prize-winning title, "Victory Clicks with War Loan Six," for the campus war bond drive, Bob Moran and Ed Allen, co-chairmen of the project, have announced. For this slogan, Miss Metcalf will receive an award of $5 offered by the war board for the best slogan entered.

> The war bond drive officially opens Monday, November 20, with a snowball rally. Groups will start at 7 p.m. from the Gamma Phi Beta, Sigma Kappa, and Delta Delta Delta houses,

Executive Council Endorses Late Per

- What the executive council did Friday afternoon:
- 1. Set up a coordinating committee with NCC.
- 2. Passed the ASUO budget.
- 3. Passed a resolution endorsing 1 o'clock permission.
- 4. Named delegates to the Conference of College Leaders.

Speaking to the ASUO executive council Friday, Bob Neal, president of the Northwest Christian college student body, cited the need for a coordinating and NCC.

He said that a need for promotion of better understanding and cooperation between the two schools was apparent. Many NCC Class History students take courses at the University, he said, and they wish to become better acquainted with the PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has campus and to participate more in urged that congress enact a peace- UO activities. It was also brought up that a coordinating committee the senior class will meet Monday could publicize events at NCC at 4 p.m. in room 105 of the liwhich would be of interest to Uni- brary. The project for next term breached the main Budapest de- versity students and that an interfense line; while in the north, So- change of speakers could be arviet air force units began to track ranged when prominent speakers committee is urgently requested to down the German fleet hiding in are scheduled for either of the attend.

a committee, which includes Au- son Torrey, and Paul Lum. IN THE LEYTE struggle Yank drey Holliday, ASUO president; forces are making slow progress Lois Clause, head of the student did not return to the campus this religious council; and Anne Craven, Emerald editor. The two additional cancy on the committee. Any senbeen announced.

The ASUO budget for 1944-45 was unanimously passed. It pro- tees appointed last term are also vides for the following expendi- urged to attend if possible. They tures: telephone and telegraph, are Phyllis Horstman, Marie Rogn-$25; equipment and supplies, $75; dahl, Audrey Holliday, and Alva postage, $15; war board, $150; stu- Granquist. dent union, $25; war bond drive, $125; rally squad, $150; student social science committee still lack handbook, $200; irregular services chairmen. Seniors who want to fill (typing, secretary), $160; travel, $200; educational activities carrying charge to cover expense of running the funds through that office, ant positions in this class project. $35; scholarships, $150; awards, $100; miscellaneous, $55. Total budgeted expenditures is $1465. The executive council unaniing 1 o'clock permission for Saturday night. The matter will be decided at the student affairs meeting Monday. Four Oregon students will attend the convention of Oregon Federation of College Leaders to be held December 1 and 2 at Willamette university. Miss Holliday, Carol Wicke, chairman of the campus war board; Phyllis Evans, junior representative to the council, and Leon Williams, sophomore representative to the council, have been selected to attend. Miss Holliday announced that Oregon State had cancelled the exchange assembly originally to be The return encounter with the Newspaper Alliance said she I had to cool my heels on a slow held during the sixth war loan Phi; Janet Tugman, house libra-Willamette squad will be staged in had been asked to leave Singapore freighter, just to give up my seat drive. A future exchange assem-and rally up to the steps of Johnson hall, where a program will be presented. Bob Moran, master of ceremonies, announced that a swing trio, the Chi Omega quintet, and other numbers will be part of the entertainment. The candidates for "Bonds Away Girl" will be called from the audience and introduced.

Pictures of all candidates for "Bonds Away Girl" will be placed in the Co-op window on Monday morning, reported Evelyn Stephens, chairman of the plan. A thermometer, to record all bond sales, will also appear there. In this way, students will be able to see the program between the University latest totals of the amount of bonds sold on the campus.

Group to Meet

The class history committee of will be discussed.

Every standing member of the Members are Barbara Younger,

Neal was appointed chairman of Alice Pepion, Joyce Clark, Ann Ty-

Pat Farrell, a former member, term, consequently there is one vamembers from NCC have not yet ior interested should attend the meeting.

Chairmen of the other commit-

The personnel committee and the these posts also should be present. At the meeting members will be assigned and appointed to import-

Holland hurled the Germans back across the Maas river on a sixmile front.

* * *

time conscription bill.

IN HUNGARY Russian forces the Baltic, according to a mid- two campuses. night bulletin from Moscow.

against fiercely resisting Japs.

ARGENTINE CITIZENS of both sexes between the ages of 12 to 50 vides scholarships for worthy Uni- will be subject to military trainversity students, and domations ing according to an announcement may be sent to Mrs. Geraldine yesterday by War Minister Col. Juan D. Peron.

- Oregon
- Navycats Smith, 6 F 13, Tate Bartelt, 10 F 3, Gilpin Subs: Oregon-Wilkins, Kotnik Zeller 6, Stofft 5, Zauft, Sander- ering China, she claimed. wh, Kjelstad, Lieble, Cummings 4, Jensen, Bennett.

Salem tonight as the Ducks tackle because her dispatches indicated to him!" was her disgusted com- bly may be held sometime winter the Navycats on their home floor. she did not believe Singapore was ment.

Writer Goes By Freight As Kurusu Rides Airplane

By ANNE CRAVEN

One of the problems which faced reporters previous to Pearl Total receipts will amount to Harbor was the lack of understanding that all world events $1493.20. were closely related to other sections of the world, Vanya Oakes, a former foreign correspondent in the Far East, told mously passed a resolution approvmembers of the senior editing class Wednesday morning.

States were interested in news of French Indo-China in the summer invulnerable. She recalled repeated of 1940. Later events proved that attempts to warn the American the Japanese invasion in Indo-China was only a prelude to the Philippines.

Miss Oakes charged the press Folgham, 2 G Ward killed stories against the interests Hamilton, 9 G Mayfield of 'big business. She also recalled with dislike the policy of making 10, Elder, Lee, Stamper 2, Huff 2, news when there wasn't any, a Hoffine. Willamette - Odegard 1, policy prevalent while she was cov-

> The correspondent for United Press and the Northwest American Pearl Harbor. "When I think that

As an example, she said that few persons in the United people of the importance of the French Indo-China situation and the possibility of the capture of Singapore; most of the stories

> Miss Oakes has the doubtful distinction of having given up her seat on a plane from Manila to the states to Kurusu, a member of the Japanese delegation which went to Washington to smooth out U. S .-Japanese relations at the time of

Mu Phi Epsilon Slates Concert

In keeping with the Thanksgiving season, American music will be featured at the recorded concert in the browsing room of the library Sunday, November 19, at 4 p.m.

George Hopkins, professor in the school of music, will give the concert, which is sponsored by Mu Phi Epsilon, music honorary. The cheduled program is as follows: "The Incredible Flutist," by Piston; the third syphony of Harris; "El Salon Mexico," by Copeland; and "An American in Paris," by George Gershwin.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Pierre Van Rysselberghe, Mu Phi Epsilon patroness; Elizabeth Chaefers, Mu rian; and Clarice Krieg, library staff.

term.