

Erb Memorial Plans Advanced

Coke bars, ballrooms, garbage disposal, and swimming pools were discussed by Dr. W. V. Norris, acting head of the physics department, who recently returned from an 11,000-mile inspection tour of student union buildings in 18 universities, at the Erb Memorial committee meeting Wednesday.

Emphasized was the fact that the purpose of the Erb building, scheduled for construction after the war, was to provide a complete and adequate center for student activity, that it was for the students, to be run by the students, and therefore must be built with student desires foremost in the mind of the architect.

The student union at Illinois was cited as the most beautiful building Dr. Norris had seen and he considered the one at Cornell university the most remarkable for its efficient student management. At many universities, he stated, the position of student union president ranks above that of student body president.

Those who will become Beta Gamma Sigmas, which requires grades almost on the same level with Phi Beta Kappa, are Regina J. Garmendia, Alysone Hales, William Jackson, Freda Koehler, Adele Riggs, and Hildegard Roseland.

Following the initiation ceremony, a banquet will be held at the Osburn hotel.

large groups with members of the committee on advising. At this meeting, they would be introduced to the general University requirements, possible fields of study, and a beginning of registration mechanics.

Later the students would meet in groups of less than 35 students with their special freshman adviser to complete their courses of study and learn how to use the class schedule. Regular registration would follow on Friday and Saturday, as previously arranged.

Toward the end of each term, students would meet in a group with their advisers to discuss and plan the following term's work. It has been suggested that the meetings take place during the regular assembly hour.

THANKSGIVING

It has long been the honored custom of our people to turn in the fruitful autumn of the year in pause and thanksgiving to Almighty God for his many blessings and mercies to us as a nation. That custom we can follow now even in the midst of the tragedy of a world shaken by war and immeasurable disaster, in the midst of sorrow and great peril, because even amidst the darkness that has gathered about us we can see the great blessings God has bestowed upon us, blessings that are better than mere peace of mind and prosperity of enterprise. And while we render thanks for these things let us pray Almighty God that in all humbleness of spirit we may look always to Him for guidance; that we may be kept constant in the spirit and purpose of service; that by His grace our minds may be directed and our hands strengthened; and that in His good time liberty and security and peace and the comradeship of a common justice may be vouchsafed to all nations of the earth.
