

ARGENTINITA

"Spain's No. 1 Dancer" and her troupe will appear in McArthur court Tuesday, December 5, under the auspices of the Eugene Civic Music Association.

Argentinita, Dancing Star Will Be Here December 12

Argentinita, whom Time magazine has tagged as "Spain's Number One Dancer," will lead her troupe of Spanish dancers and musicians in a performance Tuesday, December 5, at McArthur court.

With Pilar Lopez, Jose Greco, Manolo Vargas, guitarist Carlos Montoyo, and accompanying musicians, Argentinita will offer a program of dances not only of Spain, but of Latin America, which she has gathered during tours of remote provinces.

Her dances are costumed and set authentically to the period and style she is interpreting. She is not only a dancer but a leading actress as well, telling the stories of her dances in song and pantomime. Each fall and spring for several years she has appeared with her ensemble as guest artist with the Ballet Theater at the Metropolitan Opera house.

Among her dance-dramas are ballets which she has created during the recent seasons she has spent in New York. These include "Pictures of Goya," presented a year ago at the Metropolitan; "El Amor Brujo," a gypsy dance drama to the music of Manuel de Falla; and "El Cafe de Chinitas." Recently she staged the dances for "Carmen" at the national opera in Mexico City.

The leading exponent in America of the heel-tapping, castanet-clicking style of dancing, Argentinita will appear in Eugene on her sixth coast-to-coast tour of the United States, in a program open to members of the Eugene concert series, and to all ASUO card holders.

An expanded program of industrial nursing education through which graduate nurses may get the requirements of the Bachelor of Science degree is offered this fall by the School of Education, New York University.

He Was in a Jap 'Prison' Camp

Stopping in Eugene on his way to Fort Lewis, Cpl. Bill Minehart, army medical corps, a University freshman and Emerald reporter in 1942-43, visited the Emerald offices Friday, November 24.

when he received his orders with the ROTC in April, 1943. He was sent to Fort Lewis, and from there, went to camps in Kentucky, on Lake Erie, and then Texas. In Kentucky he had the doubtful honor of dining at the home of one of the political bosses of that state. While stationed in Texas, he lived, "with about a foot of barbed wire between myself and the outside world." His company was quartered on the grounds reserved for Japanese prisoners.

Six months of his "soldiering" were spent in the ASTP, and four months more in Fitzsimmons General hospital, Denver, Colorado, learning to be a laboratory technician.

and all that it implies. May we offer this "Prayer" and suggest that we buy all the bonds we can . . .

A PRAYER

Across the world the sound of shells has ceased . . .
And quiet shrouds the battle-rubbed West . . .
The enemy has laid away his arms, and Death and Pain are done in France.
But I go on . . . for I must fight and kill . . .
And work and sweat . . . and hide and run . . .
For here the enemy is very much alive . . .
His bullets still are made of lead . . .
Their angry whispers still foretell of sudden death
For me and others crouched in slime and mud . . .
The end for us is yet to come . . .
And so we pray to God to give us strength
To fight and win . . . without the waste of Time . . .
