Rushees Must Register At Dean's Office Today

The winter term rushing period will extend from today until Friday night, announced Lorraine Davidson, Panhellenic president, Tuesday. All girls who wish to rush and have not registered at the office of the dean of women in Gerlinger hall must do so immediately. Rushees may pick up their bids at the dean's office between 8 and 11 a.m. today, Thursday, and Friday.

Rushing dates will include luncheons and dinners at the sorority houses and campus clothes will be worn for all dates with the exception of the preference dinner Friday night when short silks will be in order. Preference cards must be filled out by all rushees, who want to pledge, Friday after the preference dinners. These cards will be available at the dean's office at that time and will be filed there. All information may be obtained at the office of the dean of women.

'Bud' Jermain Appointed To Journalism Staff

The appointment of Lt. Leonard "Bud" Jermain as graduate assistant in the school of journalism was announced recently by President Orlando J. Hollis.

Prominent on the campus as editor-in-chief of the Emerald, 1939-40, Jermain was graduated in 1940. He was a member of the Portland Oregonian reporting staff until December, 1941, when he entered the service.

After three years in the army, two of which were spent overseas with the 41st infantry division, Jermain is now on terminal leave granted after 14 months in a hospital.

Henrietta Doltz, associate professor of nursing education at at University of Oregon medical school, held conferences with girls registered in pre-nursing at Oregon State college during November.

1,534 Students Enroll Tuesday At Igloo

Registration figures released by the cashier at McArthur court Tuesday showed an enrollment of 1,534 students. Registration, however, will continue at Johnson hall and the final figure will be released as soon as it is completed.

The total fall enrollment was 1,899 students, which showed a 10 per cent increase over last year's 1,720. At the close of the first day's registration winter term, 1944, the enrollment was 1,227.

Capt. Bruce Percifield Receives DFC in France

Capt. Bruce H. Percifield, who attended the University in 1941, has been awarded the distinguished flying cross, in addition to the air medal he already holds, including one bronze and two silver oak leaf clusters.

Now a P-47 Thunderbolt flight leader with the 9th air force in France, Capt. Percifield withdrew in January, 1942, to join the AAF.
