

Sports

Duck Tracks

By JIM BEYER

Once again the cry goes up that the Huskies are here. This time the team from Seattle is really out for blood. It seems our Country Cousins at Corvallis were very impolite to their visitors and handed them a double-barreled charge right when it would hurt them most. The U. of W. hoopmen hope to set themselves back on top of the conference standings by beating the Ducks in this series here at Eugene.

OSC did us a very nice favor by dumping the Huskies in both of the games played earlier in the week at Corvallis. This staggering blow to the Washington team knocked them out of first place and gave our Oregon team the top spot in the standings.

Crucial Games

This series with Hec Edmundson's boys will be a very tough one. Hec is noted throughout the basketball world for his fire-wagon outfits that he turns out each year. These teams are also known for the clever ballhandling and shooting ability that they display in their games. Edmundson's oft-repeated philosophy is: "I would rather lose with second raters who are trying than win with top caliber men who are loafing." And it's easy to see that his idea produces results.

In this series Oregon will be out to keep on top of the rush for first place. By winning both games it will have passed the halfway mark with a good record and also strengthened its bid for the conference championship. Oregon can and will win this series with some good support from the students who sit in the cheering sections. We would also like to see a few more rally squad members in front of the men's cheering section. You can't have good cheers without some direction.

Race in Store

In facing the U. of W. team the Ducks take on a team that loves to run also. In seeing this series we will be able to find out who has the best running team and which one of these two teams can stand the racehorse type of basketball the longest. Tonight will also give everyone a chance to see if Dick Wilkins can maintain his league standing. We are expecting the Lemon and Green to have a big night and show us some superb ball playing. See you all at the game.

Stamp Sales Total Unexpected Sum

War stamp sales at last night's basketball game totaled $22.55, surpassing the expectations of both Carol Wicke, war board chairman, and Phyllis Perkins, chairman of stamp promotions.

"Tonight we expect to sell twice as many stamps, since so many students came unprepared for the drive Friday," Miss Perkins said.

The war board is sponsoring the selling of 10 and 25 cent stamps this term at athletic contests and other University functions. Freshman girls from each house on the campus are doing the selling among the spectators at home basketball games.

The following girls were sales-

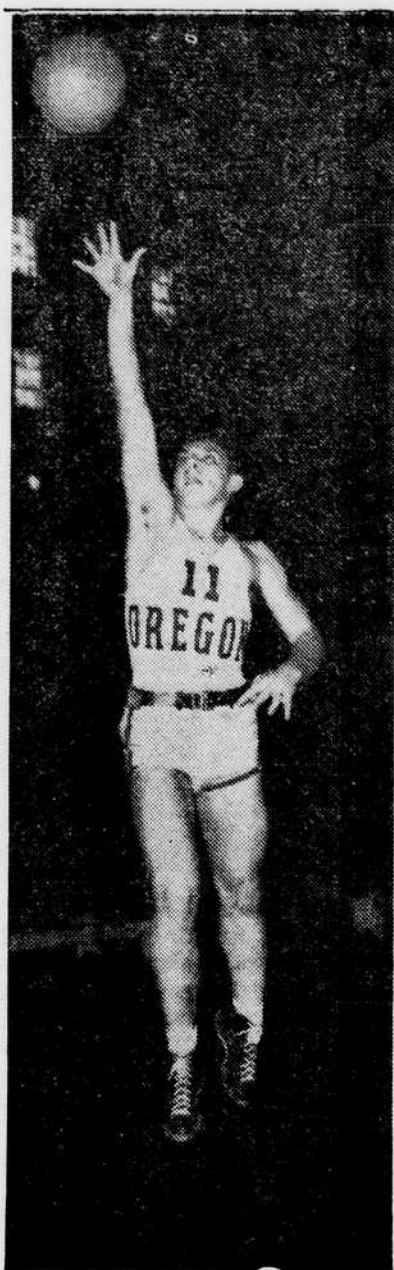

Northern Division Basketball Standings

	W	L	Pct.
OREGON	6	2	.750
Washington	4	3	.571
Oregon State	4	3	.571
Washington State	3	4	.429
Idaho	0	5	.000

Last Night's Results

OREGON, 59; Washington, 36.
Washington State, 56; Idaho, 41.

men at Friday's game: Virginia Georgeson, Joy Howard, Beverly Howard, Barbara Hawkins, Marilyn Moore, Kathryn Schneider, Barbara Spangler, Donna Chapman, Natalie Brown, Estelle Shimshak, Dorothy Conrad, Joan Elliott, Liz Powers, Nila Desinger, Georgia Liskey, Dedo Misley, Lois Herrington, and Betty Ditto. Others will be appointed by Miss Perkins later.

JIM BARTELT

6-foot, 2-inch freshman guard from Ashland. He will be in the starting lineup against Washington tonight.

Benefit Game For Polio Fund Monday

McArthur court will be the scene of a special polio benefit game between Rubenstein's Oregonians and the Albany Plywood five Monday, January 29, at 8 p.m. All of the gate receipts taken from this game will be turned over to the Lane county polio benefit fund, which subsequently will be divided and used partially for polio patients from this county and the remaining sent to the National Polio institute.

Rubenstein's Oregonians, managed by Bob Caviness who formerly played for the University of Oregon, promises to furnish some lively competition for the Albany team which defeated Rubenstein's last week in a fast-moving game played at Albany.

Gene Cecchini, fast-moving player for Rubenstein's, will bear watching during the course of the game for his fast floor work has been the spark of the Rubenstein quintet. Other members of the squad who show promise are fast-moving and hard-driving Bob Caviness and the ex-Oregon Stater, Nello Venelli who has been playing a good game all season.

H. S. "HEC" EDMUNDSON
University of Washington coach, who watched his team go down to their third straight defeat last night.

Phi Thetas Still Active

Phi Theta Upsilon members, junior women's honorary, are devoting many hours of their time ushering at all basketball games. Of the profits made by the group through various money-making activities, $25 will be contributed to the library browsing room for books and magazines, and a large part of the organization's funds will be given toward scholarships for worthy students, said Signe Ek-lund, Phi Theta president, Thursday.

Another service rendered to the school by this honorary is acting as monitors in the library browsing room every Monday, Tuesday, and Saturday.

Wilkins, Hays Lead

(Continued from page one)

hold on first place to a full game's lead over Washington and Oregon State. Dick Wilkins also boosted himself back to the top spot in individual scoring. He has 97 counters to the 90 Red Rocha of Oregon State has garnered.

The game tonight will end Oregon's home games until February 10, when they play OSC.

Score:	FG	FT	PF	TP
Oregon
Wilkins, f	6	3	3	15
Smith, f	5	0	4	10
Hayes, c	7	0	1	14
Bartelt, g	1	3	4	5
Hamilton, g	4	1	2	9
Berg, f	0	0	1	0
Kotnik, g	2	0	2	4
Hoffine, g	0	0	0	0
Elder, c	0	1	3	1
Stamper, g	0	1	0	1
	25	9	20	59
Washington
Carnovale, f	2	3	2	7
Creveling, f	1	2	2	4
Brooks, c	3	1	2	7
King, g	0	1	2	1
Jorgenson, g	4	3	1	11
Flowers, f	0	2	1	2
Anderson, f	0	2	0	2
Bittman, c	0	1	1	1
Mann, g	0	1	1	1
Mosich, g	0	0	1	0
	10	16	13	36

Tennessee Polytechnic institute is the first southern college selected by the veterans administration for the establishment of a rehabilitation center, President Blake Van Leer revealed recently. He was advised of Tech's selection by John M. Slaton, regional veterans administration manager.

YMCA Official To Give Lecture

The YMCA of Eugene, in cooperation with the University and the city and county public schools, recently announced that Ray Bingham, YMCA national council representative and a national authority in the field of audio-visual education, will demonstrate the latest information and equipment in this field at the Eugene hotel, February 5.

The program will begin with a luncheon session at 12:15, noon. Mr. Bingham is scheduled to present a review of the history and recent developments in audio-visual education, and conduct a demonstration of equipment using educational, recreational, religious, and other materials.

Mr. Bingham's demonstrations will be followed by group discussion including exchange of experiences, problems and new program possibilities including information on securing equipment, priorities, costs, care and use of equipment.

All persons interested in audio-visual education programs are cordially invited to attend this event which is free and open to the public.

Highland Leads Grades, University House Second

Because the grades of several of its members were left off the grade list turned in to the registrar's office at the end of fall term, the GPA of Highland house, women's cooperative living organization, was 2.95, rather than 2.76.

Although no change will be made in the term record in the registrar's office, Highland actually ranked first in campus grades. University house, with a 2.81 average, ranked first in the original computation, and now places second.

Quartet Picks

(Continued from page one)

with fiendish glee and pinned the nightmare pledge pin upon the full quota of contestants in one day.

Shubert Fendrick, who was reported to be burning with ambition for this highest honor accorded to Oregon males but failed to receive it, was last seen at 5:37 last night in the halls of the chemistry department. Laboratory assistants claim that a small phial of potassium cyanide is missing.

A gunnery sergeant is a large, forceful person of a few words—but often.

Bakery Specials

DESSERT NEED BE NO PROBLEM

when you know about our

CAKES

and

PASTRIES

Elliott's Bakery

1298 Patterson

Phone 95

NEW HOURS

Sunday Dinner served 12-7
Tuesday through Saturday, 8-8
Lunch, 12-2 Dinner, 5:30-8:00
Closed Mondays

The Anchorage

ON THE MILLRACE

997 Franklin

Phone 30