Girls to Sell Stamps With Cokes Today

"Buy a stamp first," are the words students will hear today as they walk into the Side for a coke or coffee. The blue-sweated stamp girls stationed at the door of the Side have received the strictest orders to allow no one entrance unless that stamp, which means so much to over there, is purchased.

It has been reported by Chairman Martha Thorsland that surprise entertainment arranged by campus master-minds will take place at the Side sometime during the afternoon and again in the evening. No one knows the nature of this mysterious program but rumors have it that Evans Sax is planning to present several choice tidbits.

Stamps at Game

Tonight's game at McArthur court will also be a scene for sale of stamps. Girls operating a booth and posted at various entrances have been asked by President Hollis to refrain from personal solicitation. "However," said Phyl Perkins, stamp promotion chairman, "it is hoped that students will buy voluntarily and boost the too rapidly declining total of stamps sold at games and assemblies."

The University war board is striving to attain the goal set at the beginning of the term, the purchase of a field ambulance for use on some war front. Said Carol Wicke, war board chairman, "Our parents may be buying thousands of dollars worth of bonds, but that fact does not relieve our personal responsibility and that responsibility can be fulfilled only by sacrificing a part of our time or money each day. Some students may be tempted to purchase food at the Side today by utilizing someone else's war stamp. This kind of operation will only defeat the purpose of the whole plan. All of us must get behind this with everything we've got!"

Dime Dinners Net $158 Total

Last week's sale of war stamps brought the total collections for the dime dinners to $158.50. The Alpha Gamma Deltas were in first place for the night's contribution with $22.75.

Other house totals were: Alpha Chi Omega, $3.30; Alpha Delta Pi, $5.50; Alpha Omicron Pi, $3.60; Alpha Phi, $7.75; Alpha Xi Delta, $5.20; Chi Omega, $6.50; Delta Delta Delta, $4.70; Delta Gamma, $5.70; Gamma Phi Beta, $15.00; Kappa Alpha Theta, $7.50; Kappa Kappa Gamma, $8.25; Pi Beta Phi, $8.55; Sigma Kappa, $2.70; Alpha hall, $4.50; Gamma hall, $1.10; Mary Spiller hall, $2.00; Highland house, $8.65; Hilyard house, $2.60; Rebecca house, $2.30; Sigma hall, $3.20; Susan Campbell hall, $1.85; University house, $5.65; Zeta hall, $6.00; Hendricks hall, $13.65.

Author Will Speak At UO Assembly

Ernest Haycox, author of over 20 western novels including several best sellers, will speak at his alma mater during the regular 11 a.m. all-campus assembly Thursday morning at McArthur court.

The common man as represented by "Joe Doakes, Esq." will be the subject of Haycox' talk. The assembly will be held in honor of Washington's birthday.

"Ernie," as he is affectionately referred to by his former short-story instructor, W. F. G. Thacher, graduated from the University as a member of the class of '23. Among his more popular books are "Southern Pacific," and "Stagecoach," both of which have been made into movies.

While at the University Haycox was among those students who initiated and gave the original impetus to the student union project.

Russian to Tell Of Experiences

Alexander Kerensky, Russian statesman who unleashed the Russian revolution, became premier of the 1917 provisional government and then vacillated between extremism and reaction until he was ousted by the Bolsheviks in 1917, will be on the campus next week to give a series of lectures to students and faculty on "Russia and the International Situation."

Mr. Kerensky's oratorical powers made him a chief figure in Russia before the revolution. He was very active in political affairs and at one time held the position of minister of war and marine activities. Later he was accused of creating disorganization in the Russian army and escaped to England where he published "Prelude to Bolshevism," in 1919 and "The Crucifixion of Liberty" in 1934, relating his story of the Russian revolution.

He came to the United States in 1938 from Paris, where he published a newspaper called New Russia. Unique among Russian statesmen, Alexander Kerensky is known as an eloquent spokesman for the cause of Russian freedom and postwar cooperation.

Sailors Recognize Need for Educational Books

By MARGUERITE WITWER
"After six months at sea the first place we headed for when we anchored at San Francisco was a liquor store and the next place was a book shop," laughed Bill Davis, 18-year-old freshman in business administration. He had no intention of appearing facetious for he spoke on behalf of all merchant seamen who have spent long days of boredom on shipboard, rereading the meager stock of pulp love and mystery magazines.

Interviewed Tuesday in conjunction with the just-launched drive to collect funds to provide a cargo vessel with worthwhile reading

Attention!

PRIME MINISTER Churchill at a conference with President Roosevelt in Alexandria, Egypt, again renewed his vow that Britain will give full support in the war against Japan after Germany's defeat.

Ex-Editor On Campus

Lt. Leroy S. Mattingly, the first Emerald editor to receive the coveted "Pacemaker" rating, returned to the campus this week. Stationed with the signal corps in Camp Crowder, Missouri, Mattingly is in Eugene on an emergency furlough to visit his wife who is seriously ill in a local hospital.

The former editor received his bachelor of science degree in journalism in 1938. He is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity; Sigma Delta Chi, national news journalism honorary, Phi Beta Kappa, and Friars, senior men's honorary. The 1937 Emerald which he edited was chosen the best all-American college newspaper and he received the Sigma Delta Chi scholarship award that year. Mattingly was also active in baseball.

Ducks Wallop Idaho; Regain League Lead

The Idaho invasion threat turned out to be a hot and cold fizzle, at least for the first night, as the Ducks had little trouble in turning back the Vandals 56-45.

Putting their "tall fir" advantage to the best use over the height crippled Idaho squad, the Webfoots started to turn the first half into a runaway riot of baskets.

Movies to Feature "The City", "Poland"

"The City" dealing with the various types of cities, past, present, and future will be the main feature in tonight's free movie program at 7:30 p.m. in 207 Chapman hall.

Cover Girl Pix Deadline Today

Three faculty members qualified to determine the best in feminine pulchritude, especially from the camera-lens angle, have been chosen to judge the annual Emerald Cover Girl contest. Bud Jermain, graduate journalism instructor and former Oregonian photographer-columnist; J. W. Teter, manager of the University photography bureau, and L. S. Bee of the sociology department, are the judges announced by Annamæ Winship, Emerald business manager.

Each spring the title of "Most Photogenic Coed" is bestowed on the winner of the contest and a full-page photograph of the qualified Unievrstity woman appears on page one of the Emerald. Cameraability is the only qualification necessary for the candidacy and each living organization must submit the name and photograph of their representative before 5 p.m. today. All information is to be turned in to the Emerald business office in the journalism building.

Jim Bartelt hit the first field goal for the Ducks, a bare five seconds after the starting whistle. The Vandals momentarily tied the score and later, at the seven-minute mark, went ahead 8-7. Then the Warren-coached team put the humps in McArthur court through a workout as they staged their longest scoring spree of the season. They forged ahead on baskets by Hays, Wilkins, and Hamilton, 15-9. Pyne and Carbaugh tossed in a free throw and a basket to bring the Vandals within three points of the Ducks.

From that point at the eight and one-half minute mark, until two minutes before halftime, the Vandals were helpless as the Ducks poured through a scoring barrage of 18 counters.

Scoring Splurge Starts

Reedy Berg replaced Smith at forward, and touched off the scoring spark with a push shot from the side. Hamilton, high point man with 17, followed suit with a pair of baskets from the side. Then in
