

Duck Tracks

By WALLY ADAMS

It always seems to take something like the history making game tonight to make you want to delve into the dusty record books and dig out a few facts and figures on the past years' standings.

Much to our despair we find that Oregon State has won 66 and Oregon 62 games in their competition over the years. Those figures date back to the 1903 season, when the rivalry between the Ducks and Beavers broke out on the maple courts.

Here's the year by year record of games won by each school:

Ore. OSC	Ore. OSC	Ore. OSC	Ore. OSC
1903 ... 0 1	1918 ... 0 4	1928 ... 1 1	1938 ... 3 1
1904 ... 0 2	1919 ... 4 0	1929 ... 2 0	1939 ... 3 1
1906 ... 0 2	1920 ... 2 0	1930 ... 3 1	1940 ... 1 3
1908 ... 0 2	1921 ... 4 0	1931 ... 2 2	1941 ... 3 1
1909 ... 0 2	1922 ... 0 4	1932 ... 2 2	1942 ... 1 3
1911 ... 0 2	1923 ... 2 2	1933 ... 0 4	1943 ... 2 2
1913 ... 2 2	1924 ... 2 2	1934 ... 3 1	1944 ... 4 0
1915 ... 2 4	1925 ... 2 3	1935 ... 1 3	— —
1916 ... 2 2	1926 ... 2 0	1936 ... 1 3	Totals 62 66
1917 ... 0 4	1927 ... 2 0	1937 ... 4 0

Those figures don't take too well with a Webfoot fan, especially when you add the games played this year to the total. Oregon has won 1 to make 63 wins for the Ducks, while OSC has taken 2 to give them a five-game margin with 68 wins.

However, since the modern Northern division was founded in 1923, Oregon has gone to town at the Beavers' expense, with 46 wins over our cousins from Corvallis, against 35 losses.

The Ducks and Beavers have each won the championship five times. Oregon in 1925, '26, '27, '38, and '39, and Oregon State in 1925, '33, '35, '40, and '42. Note that the 1925 season ended in a tie, the only other time the two teams have come into the finish wire together, besides this year.

For the total league play, Oregon has won 171 games and lost 141. Oregon State has won 154 and lost 145.

Then, just for fun, we looked to see how the other teams stood in the games won and lost column. Washington has won 224 and lost 100, including this year's games, as the Huskies have completed their schedule. Washington State has won 151 and lost 160, while Idaho has 93 wins and 217 defeats. Here's how that looks in a box score, including this season's games to date:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Washington .....	224	100	.691
OREGON .....	181	147	.552
Oregon State .....	164	155	.514
Washington State .....	160	166	.490
Idaho .....	96	228	.296

Barrett Exhibit Worth Visiting, Dean Declares

By MAYRE BROWNLEE

Lethargic students have offered hundreds of excuses for missing, up until now, one of the best exhibits they've had a chance to see this year. Dean E. F. Lawrence of the school of architecture and allied arts described it as magnificent, and various members of the school's faculty have urged that more students than have seen it, or would be inclined to see it, take a little time off and go over to the Oliver L. Barrett memorial exhibit in the little art gallery of the school.

Even those students who are unfamiliar with the technicalities of sculpture, will appreciate and enjoy this exhibit. Much is said about overcoming the apathy which seems to have the U. of O. campus in its clutches, but as far as attendance at this exhibit is concerned, observers say that nothing has been done about it. The show has been held over for ten days and will continue until March 10.

OREGON DAILY EMERALD

Night Staff:
Sherry Peters
Mary Bruce Crane

The honor system is where the professors have the honor and the students have the system.

Pre-game Dope . . .

OREGON vs. OREGON STATE
McArthur Court, Eugene, March 3, 8 p.m.

PROBABLE STARTING LINEUPS

OREGON	Height	Position	Height	OREGON STATE
Wilkins .....	6' 2"	Forward	6' 6"	Henningsen
Smith .....	6' 2"	Forward	5' 10"	Labhart
Hays .....	6' 7"	Center	6' 8"	Rocha
Hamilton .....	6' 2"	Guard	6'	McGrath
Bartelt .....	5' 10"	Guard	5' 8'	West

Intramurals Go Into Final Playoff Contests

The men's gym has been the scene of some hot action this week as the intramural league goes into the playoffs. The five teams included in the playoffs are: Minks (winners of the regular league play), Esquires, Sherry Ross, Campbell coop, and Monahans.

Tuesday's action saw the Esquires run away from the Sherry Ross crew 30-16, in a rough-and-tumble affair which proved to be the worst shellacking for the dorm club to date.

The second game between the Minks and the Monahans was a close contest throughout, with the Minks coming to life in the final minutes of the game to rack up a four-point winning margin 28-24.

In the second round, played Wednesday, Sherry Ross knocked over the Minks 26-24. It was a close game all the way with the lead changing hands several times. The dorm men came through in the last quarter, however, to roll up a lead which the Minks couldn't quite overcome.

Campbell coop pulled the surprise of the day by upsetting the highly-touted Esquires 26-25. The coopers held a good lead until the final minutes of the game, when the Esquires opened up with a desperate drive that fell short by a slight one-point margin.

The third round played Thursday resulted in another defeat for the Sherry Ross team at the hands of the Monahans.

The Minks beat Campbell coop in a fast second game by a score of 43-30.

and McGrath, which was successful in their last two games against the Ducks.

For Oregon, the lineup remains unchanged with Wilkins, Smith, Hays, Bartelt, and Hamilton the likely starters.

Bleacher Ranks Filled For Civil War Game

Graduate Manager Anse Cornell announced today that all tickets for the Oregon-Oregon State game tonight have been sold, except for 500 general admission tickets to be placed on sale at 7 p.m. in the booth at McArthur court. "First come, first served" will be the way the tickets are handled, so come early if you hope to get into the game.

Any persons holding tickets in the "will call," please turn them back as soon as possible if you are not going to need them. All tickets are needed in order to seat as many as possible.

The Number's 1780

First Washington, then "over-seas," and now North Bend—the news of Oregon's beautiful women has spread all over.

This time, five ecstatic Alpha Gams were on the receiving end; the end of a telephone connected to five HANDSOME naval lieutenants who blew into Eugene this evening.

Having heard about that special "something" possessed by Oregon girls in general and Alpha Gams in particular, they called the house and asked for volunteers for dates. Needless to say, they got 'em!

Former Burma Teacher To Relate Adventures

Miss Frances Ryder, a former teacher in the American Mission school in Burma and now a student at the University, will speak to the Town and Campus group of the First Christian church March 4 at 6 p.m. in the YMCA lounge. Her topic will be "On the Road to Mandalay." She will illustrate her talk with Burmese clothing, collected during her stay in the country. Miss Ryder left Burma immediately before the Japanese occupation of the country.

Oregon, OSC Tilt Set

(Continued from page one)

To date the Ducks have played 39 games, losing only 12, but Warren has warned the squad the long string of victories doesn't mean anything, unless the Ducks win tonight's game.

OSC Coach A. T. "Slats" Gill is almost certain to start the five of Rocha, Labhart, Henningsen, West,

T'es le bienvenu, vieux frère... Have a Coke

(GREETINGS, OLD MAN)

...a way to show friendship to a French sailor

Even foreigners visiting our shores for the first time respond to the friendliness in the phrase Have a Coke. There's the good old home-town American spirit behind it... the same as when you serve Coke at home. Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes, — has become a bond of sympathy between kindly-minded folks.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF EUGENE

WAA Names Initiate List

Participation in basketball, swimming and badminton, intramurals, officiating, Amphibians swimming honorary, and Orchestral dance honorary invited 85 women to join the women's athletic association. Initiation was held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 6, in the AWS room of Gerlinger. Afterwards officers were installed and an all-member dessert was held in Alumni hall.

Mrs. Golda Wickham, acting dean of women, spoke on the topic "What Do You Hope to Get Out of Life?" Basketball, swimming and badminton intramural awards, and the activity plaque were presented by Mary Alice Lawson, outgoing president.

Mary Elizabeth Davis, outgoing vice-president, was in charge of the installation; and Barbara Wells was in charge of refreshments. On the committee for the initiation were; Janice Thompson and Connie Walters, cashiers; Wanda L. Payne and Pat Howe, ushers; and Dagmar Shanks and Grace Edwards, decorations.

Vision of a modern girl: Her lips are kissproof, her skin is waterproof, and her breath — $6 proof.

• Lost

GOLD and brown Schaeffer Ever-sharp. Pat Warring, ext. 270. Reward.

GREEN striped fountain pen. Dick Tretheway. Phone 1056-J.

PEARL and silver bracelet lost between Hendricks and Gamma halls. Gloria Saltgaver, Gamma hall.

HEILIG

"Nevada"

Bob Mitchum - Ann Jeffries

— and —

"Edie Was a Lady"

with Anne Miller - Joe Besser

REX

"The Seventh

Cross"

— and —

"Hoosier Holiday"

McDONALD

"Trail of the Lonesome Pine"

"Bowery Champs"

MAYFLOWER

"LAKE PLACID SERENADE"

VERA HRUBA
RALSTON

© 1945 The C-C Co.