IF A BUDDY MEET A BUDDY-

By JEANNE WILTSHIRE

Among recent visitors on the campus were five Phi Deltas: Lt. Don Kirsch, Capt. Dan Mahoney, Major George Mackin, and Lt. Bill Scharf, all from Oregon, and Lt. Jim Kirsch, Yale. The men were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bailey, 1136 East 19th street, Eugene.

Lt. Kirsch of the infantry was wounded in action and is stationed at the Barnes hospital in Vancouver, Washington, at present. He is reported to be progressing nicely and hopes soon to be completely recovered. While on the campus, Lt. Kirsch was captain of the basketball team, a member of Friars, and played baseball, as well as many other activities. He expects to be transferred to the McCaw General hospital in Walla Walla soon.

Capt. Mahoney of the army air corps, has been stationed in the Southwest Pacific until recently transferred to San Francisco. He has been awarded several decorations which he is too modest to reveal.

He was commander of his squadron and had 600 men under his command. His group has been commended highly by Gen. Doolittle several times.

When Major Mackin left England, his squadron presented him with a plaque, of which only four have ever been given. Another of these was presented to Col. Kermit Stevens, also a Phi Delt, formerly of Oregon. The graduate of '41 is now going to Santa Anna, California, and from there will be stationed somewhere in this country.

Cellars Wounded

Lt. Allen V. Cellars, DU, has been wounded in action according to word received by his parents. Lt. Cellars had been stationed in Belgium.

Robert Brooks, Soundman 3/c, is now stationed on the destroyer escort, Thaddeus Parker, in the South Pacific. Brooks previously had taken training at Farragut, then at the west coast sound school in San Diego. He has been in the navy for 13 months.

Marine: Golf is easy. All you do is smack the pill and walk. Coed: How interesting. Just like some automobile rides I've been on.
