

Marines Recruit UO Women this Week

University women who enlist in the marine women reserves this week will be allowed to complete spring term before being placed on active duty lists, according to an announcement from marine headquarters. Marine recruiters, Staff Sgt. Tia Lange and Sgt. Flora Scarello will be in the men's lounge in Gerlinger every afternoon this week from 2 to 3:30 to interview prospective applicants and answer questions concerning service with the marines. Enlistees must be between the ages of 20 to 36 and transportation to Portland for the physical examination and swearing-in ceremonies will be provided by the marine corps.

Men on the campus nearing the age of 18 will be interviewed by the two recruiters at the same time. The motion picture, "So Proudly We Serve," and technical motion pictures taken during the battles for the Mariannas islands and Tarawa will be shown Friday at 2 and 3 p.m. in 207 Chapman hall.

"We think that everyone on the campus would be interested in seeing these films regardless of whether they are planning to enlist or not," the recruiters said, adding that their motto for this campaign is, "Wear the green of a woman marine."

The average college girl isn't much interested in what her man is saying unless he's talking to another girl.

Lt. Bob Sabin Wounded; Receives Purple Heart

Second Lt. Bob Sabin has been awarded the purple heart for wounds received in February while he was serving in Italy with the 10th mountain division of the 5th army, according to word received here by Charlotte Calder, his fiancée. Lt. Sabin is back in action now, having recovered from the flesh wounds.

Lt. Sabin was on the campus with the junior ROTC, and returned last year with the advanced ROTC. He received his commission last October at Ft. Benning, Ga., and went overseas the first of this year.

Pre-Med Aptitude Test Scheduled

An aptitude test, required for pre-medical students who will apply for entrance to medical schools during 1945 or the spring of 1946, will be given Friday, April 13, at 2 p.m. in 105 McClure hall. Applications should be sent to Dr. H. B. Yocom, head of the biology department. This test, a requisite for admission to a medical school, was adopted by the Association of American Medical Colleges, sponsors of the test.

Given annually to ascertain the student's potential ability in medical schools and to measure his general information and scientific background, this test enables the committee to draw accurate conclusions from a given set of data.

Música Maestro... Have a Coke

(MAKE WITH THE MUSIC)

...or the cue to making friends in Cuba

At fiesta time the gay little isle of Cuba is a mighty cosmopolitan corner of the globe—where the familiar American greeting Have a Coke is just as happily understood as their own native Salud. From Hanover to Havana, the pause that refreshes with friendly Coca-Cola has become a symbol of the good-neighbor spirit.
