'LILIOM' OPENS TONIGHT

OREGON Soil EMERALD

VOLUME XLVI

NUMBER 111 UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, FRIDAY, APRIL 27, 1945

HELEN LUVAAS . directs Vesper choir

JERINE NEWHOUSE . . leading Vesper soloist

BETTY JEAN TAYLOR

. . . accompanist

Courtesy Register Guard

"Chin-Up" Pics Due At Chi O House By 5

All "Chin-up Boy" contestant pictures must be turned in to Marjory Skordahl at the Chi Omega house by 5 tonight, complete with the name and rank of the serviceman pictured, the name of the house he represents, and the name of the donor.

Pictures for the contest may be 8 by 10 inches instead of 5 by 7 inches as previously announced, and contestants need not be in uniare preferred.

Names of the contestants will be announced Saturday, and the pictures will be placed in the window at the Co-op on Monday.

UO Choiristers to Sing Spring Vesper Concert

Appearing tonight at 8 in concert, the University vesper choir, led by Helen Luvaas, will give a varied program of sacred and secular music, early English, folk, and modern tunes. Soloists are Thelma Wick, Jerine Newhouse, and Enid Smith and accompanist, Betty Jane Taylor. In contrast to the choir numbers, the string quartet will day from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., will choir, who will give the same concert Sunday at Reed college.

and "Blessing, Glory, Wisdom and Eleventh avenue east, next fall. Thanks," Bach.

"Sumer is Icumen In," John of Fornsette (13th century); "Now ranged by Luvaas.

Quarter No. 7, Haydn, by the quartet - Marilyn Olson, Robert Joyce Whittle; "Adoramus Te," Mozart; "I Wonder as I wander," Appalachian folk tune by Jerine Have the Blossoms Bloom," Nor- chapter was organized in 1920. wegian folk tune; "My God and I," Latvian folk tune; "Onward, Ye Peoples!" Sibelius.

ist; "The Sleep That Flits on Ba- Barbara Reichling, Ruth McLean, bies' Eyes," Carpenter; "Fairy Pipers," Brewer, by Enid Smith, sic," Spross.

Tennis Ball to Roll Tonight;

to 11:30 on the courts behind Commerce.

By PHYL PERKINS

referring to tonight's dance which will take place from 8:30

dents; for its originality in theme structed to appear in jeans and

Tickets, on sale at the Co-op to- New Delta Zeta day from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., will finance a trip to Portland for the chair who will give the same con-

Pledging for Delta Zeta sorority, Tonight's program is as follows: which has been inactive on this "Oregon Pledge Song," John campus since 1933, has been in Stark Evans; "Tenebrae Factae progress this week and the names Sunt," Palestrina; "Bess the Lord, of 13 pledges were announced Wed-O My Soul," Ippolitof-Ivanof; "Like nesday. The Omega chapter will a Shepherd God Doth Guide Us" open in the Sigma Nu house, 763

On the campus to assist in organizing the sorority is Mrs. Edward V. Hornung, Detroit, Michi-Is the Month of Maying," Morley, gan, the national representative. by the girls quarter - Elizabeth With the assistance of the Chi chap-Howes, Lois Roeder, Norene Sauve, ter at OSC, some pledging took Dorothy Currier; "My Lovely place Monday at Corvallis, and sev-Celia," Monroe-Luvaas; "Kathryn's eral members were here Wednesday Wedding Day," German tune ar- night for a rush party at Gerlinger hall.

Delta Zeta sorority, which belongs to the national Panhellenic Gilmore, Marion Saltness, and society, was founded at Miami university, October 24, 1902. There are 56 active chapters and 86 alumnae groups, with a membership of Newhouse, soloist; "God Would 1500, in the United States. Omega Pledges are: Patricia Graham, Maxine Mills, Alene Hinton, Leona Mueller, Charlotte Hieber, Nancy "The Nightingale," Tschaikov- Hecker, Donna Mullarky, Marie sky-Luvaas by Thelma Wick, solo- Rogndahl, Pat Smith, Iris Duva, and Shirley McDowell.

The local alumnae chapter has soloist; "Let All My Life Be Mu- been recently reorganized with Mrs. S. Hunter Early as president.

Guild Theater Stars Vogler as Idealist Liliom By JEAN LAWRENCE

The third time is two times too many for Louis Vogler, sophomore in music, title role actor in "Liliom" opening tonight on Guild hall stage. The play will be in production tonight, Saturday night, and May 1 and 3.

"This time, suppose I interview you," he said with fiendish glee recalling interviews on Dion Anthony, "The Great God Brown," last year, and that epitome of man, Mr. Antrobus, in "The Skin of Our Teeth," given this fall. Mr. Vogler suggested that, since the conversation tended in that direction anyway, we discuss "Liliom," and he

"I think Liliom got his personality through being an idealistic person who went wrong because of environment," he explained. "He was happy as a barker for the carrousel until he fell in love with Julie. Then two forces came into conflict, his love of independence and his love for Julie. I think his love for Julie was the stronger because he attempts robbery only for Julie and the coming child. His pride in his own kin, in what he has created, is above everything else," he added, giving as his example the last scene of the play when "Liliom," returning from heaven, steals a heavenly star for his daughter.

Religious Groups Plot Busy Week

Westminster and Wesley houses are both open tonight for student fun. At Wesley a radio quiz will begin at 9:30. Saturday at 4 p.m. the Westminster group will hike to the O. D. Sprecker home on College Crest. Participants should take along their own sandwiches. Following the hike, Westminster will hold a Saturday night "open house."

Latest bulletins on proceedings at the San Francisco conference will be posted on a special bulletin board at Westminster house beginning Friday.

News items, pictures, radio news condensations, and editorial comments will be posted in addition to lists of source material that are Stars Form Dance Ceiling available. Radio facilities will also be available to all students who care to make use of them.

"A Tennis Ball that will hold a campus," is the motto chanted by members of the rally squad and social chairmen when Small Price

"Keep away from Hendrick's park and the graveyard if you want "It is expected that this first tennis court hop of the year to avoid poison oak," warn nurses at the infirmary. Colds and poison oak are keeping them busy. Patients confined at the infirmary Alice English, and Milton Sparks.

LOUIS VOGLER . . . stars in 'Liliom'

Services Today For Professor From Bavaria

Private funeral services for Dr. Friedrich Georg Gottlob Schmidt, professor emeritus of Germanic languages and literature, will be held at 4 o'clock today at the Veatch-Hollingsworth chapel, with Rev. Frank S. Bystall in charge.

Dr. Schmidt died Tuesday evening at his home after a long illness. He retired from active duty at the University in 1939 after 42 years as head of the Germanic language or Romance language departments. No relatives are known to survive.

Born in Untermagerbein, Bavaria, Germany, in 1868, Dr. Schmidt was graduated from the University of Erlangen, Bavaria, before coming to the United States. He received his doctor's degree from Johns Hopkins university at Baltimore, Md., in 1896.

The language scholar was head of the modern language department from 1897 to 1905, when he was made head of the department of Germanic languages and literature. He is credited with developing the German department into one of the most comprehensive and thorough in this section of the country.

Travelling extensively, he made one trip to the Orient, and visited Europe often. Immediately after his retirement he went to Germany, and after the outbreak of the European war he made his escape through Italy.

The School of Law challenges the School of Business Administration to the traditional game of softball. See story on page 3.

Seniors, Attention

Seniors must order their commencent annot its at the Co-op before May 1, 1945.

and setting should be a strong at- cottons. Tickets at 35 cents per person are on sale today by mem- now are: Marie Murray, Allen of dancing under the stars," said bers of the rally squad and social Hanks, Claire Webster, Josephine chairmen and by special salesmen Case, Helen Steele, Bonita Hesse, in the Side.

Junior Weekend Traditions ...

While most of the campus still remains doubtful as to weather conditions tonight, members of the dance committee seem to be working with calm conviction that threatening clouds will roll by and skies will be perfectly clear by 8:30. A last minute survey of committee developments brought the following statements.

will be widely attended by all stu-

traction, plus the added novelty

Marilyn Rakow, chairman.

"The sky's the limit!" said Ferdy Fernandez when promising something new and revolutionary in decorations. "We'll have the latest in records and the best in P. A. systems," plugged Evans Sax. "Lights," said Hank Kinsell, "won't Eickenmeyer is planning the best nic, Saturday, May 5. technique in clean-up.

atmosphere, students have been in- erald; the first list will appear | Freshman boys will not be re-

By ANITA YOUNG Junior Weekend traditions will be strictly enforced starting Monday, April 30, Bob Hamilton, chairman of traditions, announced today. As in years past, all male violators will be punished by the Order of the "O" club, whose members swing a mean paddle. Femiform, although those in uniform be necessary because my almanac nine offenders will be unceremonsays full moon tonight." Even Ike jously dunked at the campus pic-

> Names of the offenders will be In harmony with the informal published each day in the Em-name is listed is to report to the year because of the difficulty in steps of Fenton hall at 12:45 that obtaining them. Class pants or same day. Failure to show up will slacks, however, will be strictly result in the fine being doubled.

Order of 'O' Will Dunk, Paddle Violators

Violations

Violations are as follows: stepping on the Oregon seal near Villard, sitting on the Senior Bench, smoking on the old campus, stepping on the grass of the old campus, failure to say "hello" to everyone you meet on "Hello Walk," hall, and failure of freshman girls to wear green hair ribbons.

Tuesday morning. Any boy whose quired to wear rooters lids this checked by the Order of the "O." Boys are to wear the following: freshmen, tin pants or cruise blues; sophomores, blue jeans; juniors, clean cords; and seniors, cords.

During the campus picnic on Saturday, girls may not talk to men. Culprits will be punished by the "water treatment" in the bird which runs from Villard to Fenton bath by Fenton hall. Another tradition which applies to all students will be that no white shoes are to be worn on the day of the picnic.