

Spring Term Auction Sale Planned by AWS

At the AWS council meeting at the Side Tuesday night, the first project for this term, a tea Thursday in Alumni hall with a forum on wartime marriages led by Dr. Paul Popenoe, was discussed. Kwamas, Phi Thetas, and council members served.

This year's AWS council consists of Signe Eklund, president, Anita Young, vice-president; Beverly Carroll, secretary; Barbara Pearson, treasurer; Margaret Metcalf, sergeant-at-arms, and Barbara Johns, reporter. Others who will complete the council are Acting Dean Golda Parker Wickham; Martha Thorsland, Kwama president; Marty Beard Bienvenue, Mortar Board president; Miki McCandless, Panhellenic president; Barbara Lucas, heads of houses president; Charlotte Calder, Orides president; Mary Corrigan, YWCA president, and Jean Taylor, ASUO second vice-president.

Pre-picnic Cleanup Scheduled

In preparation for Junior Weekend, an all-campus clean-up will be held Thursday, May 3, and a prize will be awarded to the living organization judged to have done the neatest job of outdoor janitorial work. A schedule of sections of the campus assigned to various groups will be printed in the Emerald next week.

Food, fun, and excitement are promised those who attend the all-campus picnic Junior Weekend, Ann Van Valzah, chairman of the event, announced today. The traditional picnic is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. Saturday, May 5, immediately following the Mardi Gras float parade which will disband at the old campus. Tickets will be sold by representatives in each living organization.

As in past years, the coronation of Queen Joann I will be held at this time. Another important part of Junior Weekend traditions will be the tapping of new members for Mortar Board, senior women's honorary; Askelpiads, medical fraternity; and Friars, senior men's honorary. In addition, Order of the "O" members will dunk feminine offenders of Junior Weekend traditions. Any girl seen talking with a man is eligible for this water treatment. Another tradition to be observed by all students is that "no white shoes are to be worn on the day of the picnic." Only seniors may sit on the senior bench.

Working with Miss Van Valzah on the arrangements are Jerrille Lovejoy and Sarajane Kendricks.

Auction Sale

One of the highlights being planned for spring term is an auction sale. The AWS netted $30 last year and hopes to do even better this year. Who knows, maybe that watch or diamond ring you lost is at the campus lost and found box, waiting to be auctioned off at some future date. At the moment, AWS is hunting for a pair of sure-fire auctioneers.

The "big sister" counsel plan for freshman girls will be started soon and seven or eight girls from each living organization will be asked to keep in contact with incoming freshmen, help them get started at Oregon, and aid them in every possible way. A picnic on the old campus grounds is being planned for all counsellors, and possibly several AWS assemblies will be held.

The AWS office on the second floor of McArthur court is going to be redecorated and equipped with new office facilities. Office hours will be posted in the near future and Oregon coeds are invited to come up and join in the fun and talk over their problems.

A campaign to review old traditions in an effort to "keep the campus clean" and to keep students off the grass is going to be issued some time this term. AWS is really serious about the whole thing.

Two scholarships of $75 each will be awarded this year as usual and more will be given if possible. A plan for coordination in issuing scholarships is being debated. The purpose of the proposed project is to make for equal distribution of scholarships offered by the different societies on the campus. Barbara Johns, AWS reporter.

The banquet will be held at 6 p.m. at Frank Wills cafe and all staff members are asked to notify the editor either Monday or Tuesday afternoon if they will attend the affair.

Judges will view the parade and award a loving cup to the best float; honorable mention will be given to the second and third place winners. Order of the "O" members will police the parade route to keep the cars, trucks, and horses in line.

Hammering Echoes

The sound of hammering echoing from basements on the campus indicates that many of the organizations are already hard at work on their float frames. Themes turned into Miss Evans are: Alpha Chi Omega, King Neptune; Alpha Delta Pi, Mardi Gras Mask; Alpha Gamma Delta, Old Orleans; Alpha Omicron Pi, Chinese New Year; Alpha Xi Delta, The Lady in the Moon; Chi Omega, May Fete; Delta Delta Delta, Candy; Delta Gamma and Omega hall, Oregon Duck.

Gamma Phi Beta, Pierrot and Pierrotte; Hilyard and Rebec houses, Neptune Gets a Date; Kappa Alpha Theta, Queen's float; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Cinderella and Her Coach; Orides, Fruit Bowl; Pi Beta Phi, King of Mirth; Sigma Kappa, Spirit of Mardi Gras; Susan Campbell, Wedding of the Painted Doll; University and Highland houses, Pirate Ship; and Zeta hall, The Tea Party from Alice in Wonderland.

For instance, a law student may work full time in a law office, or an architecture student may work in a professional office in his field.

Trainee Checks
Trainees who have no dependents usually receive $50 monthly and if they have dependents they receive $75 a month. In cases of total disability the check is much higher. A trainee may take a full course of instruction, normally about 16 hours, and receive his full subsistence or he may take 12 hours but not less than 9 hours for three-fourths of the full subsistence, 9 but not less than 6 hours for one-half of the subsistence allowance, 6 but not less than 3 hours for one-fourth of the allowance. No subsistence allowance will be paid for less than three semester hours per semester.

First Lieut. Victor F. Manson, assistant professor of military science and tactics, and Virgil D. Earl, dean of men, warn that any trainee knowingly and willfully working full time in occupations not related to their studies and at the same time drawing government checks are subject to prosecution for defrauding the government.

Julie, Liliom's wife, was sweetly and beautifully played by Phyllis Kiste. It is she who tells her daughter that Liliom was good and kind, and that he never did beat her. She lights a candle to her love which never goes out. The daughter is portrayed by Nina Ferniman.

Acting Lauded
Good dramatizations are many in this University theater production. Light-hearted comedy is introduced by Jean McClanathan, as the countrified Marie, and Richard Dahlstrom, her blushing soul mate, as Wolf.

Henry Korn, from the Very Little theater of Eugene, made of Ficsur, a dirty, cringing old thief, and unforgettable character. Barbara Bentley was a swaggering, wordly Mrs. Muskat. Joy Willard, as Mother Hollunder, was great age itself, even to her hands. Stuart Mercereau, a policeman, Lee Petrsek, a poorly dressed man, and George Spelvin, the carpenter, portrayed their roles with vivid earnestness.

Included in the excellent supporting cast are Lyle Gilbertson, Sam Benvenesti, Dwight Newman, A. R. Moore, Kenneth Griffith, Dale Frederick, Virginia Woods, Yoland Pouteau, Sherley Morrison, Col-
