who engages in incidental employment while going to school, as, for instance, waiting on tables or working for several hours a week in some business establishment, which employment is only incidental to the main effort of securing either education or training, may not be said to be following an employment which would bar him from the benefits authorized by the law.

"HELD: That a person who is gainfully employed in a full-time employment not related to his course of education or training may not receive the subsistence allowance authorized."

Determination of eligibility for education or training, and payments to veterans is provided under the same law as follows: "For undergraduate courses in collegiate institutions which use a standard unit of credit, recognized by accrediting associations, determinations will be based on the number of standard semester hours for which the trainee is registered for credit. Less than 12 but not less than 9 semester hours per semester, or the equivalent, will be counted as three-fourths time and will entitle the trainee to receive three-fourths of the full-time subsistence allowance.

Semester Hours

"Less than 9 but not less than 6 semester hours per semester, or the equivalent, will be counted as one-half time and will entitle the trainee to receive one-half of the full-time subsistence allowance. Less than 6 semester hours per semester, or the equivalent, will be counted as one-fourth time and, if three semester hours or more, will entitle the veteran to receive one-fourth of the full-time subsistence allowance. No subsistence allowance will be paid for less than three semester hours per semester, or the equivalent.

Due to an error, First Lieut. Victor F. Manson, AUS, assistant professor of military science and tactics, and Virgil D. Earl, dean of men, were misquoted as saying that "my trainee knowingly and

US Will Handle UO Student Jobs

Part-time and vacation employment of University students will be handled in the future by a representative of the U. S. employment service, Karl W. Onthank, head of personnel administration and Donald Mattson, manager of the Eugene office of USES, have announced. Mrs. Virginia Hathaway, Eugene, has been assigned to the University employment office to handle such student positions.

Mrs. Hathaway's employment on the campus will enable the employment secretary to devote full time to work with graduates and students leaving the campus for regular employment, and to assist scholarship winners and other worthy students in coming to the University.

The vacancy left by the death of Miss Janet Smith, Dean Onthank said, will be filled soon. In the meantime, the registration of seniors and others wishing full-time employment, and the regular work of the office is being taken care of by Mrs. Winnie Hooker, office secretary.

UO Will Hire Grads

Any senior women interested in working for the University following graduation are requested to see Miss Lucille Thompson, in the president's office, or C. L. Constance, assistant registrar. The work will be general secretarial office work.

No place like home... Have a Coke

...a swing session at our house

A good way to put Welcome on the mat at your house is to have ice-cold Coca-Cola in the refrigerator. Have a Coke just naturally means Be one of our gang or You're like one of the family. Whenever young folks meet for a song fest, chin fest or swing session, ice-cold Coca-Cola is their symbol of companionship.
