

Tri-Delts Offer Scholarships

Junior and senior women interested in Delta Delta Delta scholarships should contact the dean of women's office immediately as applications must be submitted before June 1.

Applicants may or may not be members of Delta Delta Delta, but should be a junior or senior woman of fine character working toward a degree, useful in the war effort, and a valuable citizen in the post-war reconstruction period. They must be in need of financial assistance because of economic dislocations resulting from the war.

These scholarships are awarded each year on campuses where Delta Delta Delta houses are located. The amount to be awarded on the Oregon campus is $200 and as yet no applications have been made.

Academic Change Caused by Illness

Arrangements made for exchange, during the next academic year, of Dr. Celestine J. Sullivan, assistant professor of philosophy at the University, and Dr. Louis O. Kattsoff, associate professor of philosophy at the University of North Carolina, has been cancelled.

In announcing the change in the two institutions, Acting President Orlando J. Hollis stated that illness in the immediate family of Dr. Kattsoff necessitated the cancellation.

William Higgins Enlists In Navy Radar Training

William Higgins, 17, freshman in liberal arts, has enlisted in the navy as a seaman first class, radar technician, and upon completion of the academic year he will be sent to the radar training school at Chicago.

Upon successful completion of his primary school, he will be given advanced training in radar materiel. Should he successfully complete this course, he will have an education equal to a two-year engineering course in any major university, according to Chief W. E. Bell of the Eugene navy recruiting station. After 10 months of training he will be assigned to active duty ashore, afloat, or in the air, as a petty officer. If he continues training he will graduate as a petty officer first class.

ODE Staff Plans Dinner

(Continued from page one) present certificates of achievement for one year of Emerald work, and the coveted Emerald "O" pins for two years of staff activity. Miss Winship will distribute the same awards to those on the financial side of the paper. Introducing next year's staff will be Louise Montag, incoming editor, and Miss Winship, who was reappointed business manager.

To Award Plaque

George Turnbull, acting dean of the school of journalism and adviser to the Emerald, will present the Turnbull-Hall plaque for the outstanding senior woman in journalism, the Emerald editor excluded.

Absent from the traditional affair will be King Shubert Fendrick, who was crowned at a Shackrat party early this term. Fendrick is in navy training now at San Diego. Guests will include Horace Robinson, acting educational activities director, and members of the journalism faculty.

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFF

Scouting on foot in Tunisia, Pfc. Charles H. Evans was captured by 30 Italian infantrymen and marched to the rear. A bayonet at his back, Evans whirled, disarmed his guard, and escaped. Although wounded by rifle fire, he hid in a cactus patch till nightfall, slipped back to our forces with valuable information picked up as a prisoner. For this he wears the Purple Heart and the Silver Star. Celebrate Evans' escape with another War Bond.
