

Senior Women Shine As Coeds of Year

If for no other reason than because they have persisted for 186 credit hours, the commencing women of the class of '45 deserve their place in the sun. Among them, many have earned recognition for their activities, leadership, and scholarship. On a man-depleted campus, these women have efficiently taken over the editorship of publications, student government offices, and other duties—without apparent loss to the GPA.

First, and foremost, independent and aggressive Audrey Holliday was elected ASUO president following three intensive years of activity in student affairs. A member of Sigma Kappa, Miss Holliday earned a Phi Beta Kappa key despite her unusual activity record. In addition to membership in Mortar Board, Kwama, and the presidency of Phi Theta Upsilon, she has gained experience as an assistant in the social science department and plans to continue her studies.

Having served on the Student Union committee, War Board, and various other active groups, Lorraine Davidson topped off her college career with a dual presidency in her senior year. President of the Alpha Delta Pi house, as well as Pan-Hellenic, Miss Davidson is also a member of Phi Chi Theta, national women's business honorary.

President of her class in 1944-45, Yvonne Umphlette, was elected president of Alpha Gamma Delta in her senior year. Miss Umphlette's interest in business has led her to membership in Phi Chi Theta, Beta Gamma Sigma, and Gamma Alpha Chi. Tapped for Phi Theta Upsilon, "Bonnie" was also a student representative on the Co-op board.

With several four-points to her record, brown-eyed Adele Riggs was a member of Mortar Board and Phi Theta Upsilon. A major in business administration, Miss Riggs had her part in publications as associate editor of the 1943-44 Oregana. She was elected secretary-treasurer of the student body, and has served on the educational activities board.

Barbara Bentley's charm and vocal talent eliminated competition and won for her the title of "Miss Lane County" fall term. Majoring in music, she was elected president of Phi Beta and served as vice president of her house, Alpha Delta Pi, during 1944.

As chairman of both the War Board and Red Cross, Carol Wicke has received state-wide recognition. Hailing from Hawaii, this ADPi was a member of Mortar Board, Phi Theta Upsilon, and the Student Union committee.

Beginning in her freshman year, Anne Craven worked consistently on the Emerald through editorship in her senior year. Small and capable, Miss Craven was chairman of the War Board and president of Theta Sigma Phi, as well as co-chairman of the 1944 Junior Weekend.

Versatile and friendly Joan Dolph, Chi Omega, was president of YWCA and a member of Mortar Board in her senior year. Majoring in journalism, she was associate editor of the 1943-44 Oregana, secretary of Theta Sigma Phi, and a member of Gamma Alpha Chi.

Blond Phyllis Horstman, first vice president of the ASUO and winner of the Gerlinger cup, numbers membership in Mortar Board, Phi Theta Upsilon, and Kwama presidency. This Delta Gamma was chairman of the Junior Prom and Senior Ball, executive council representative, and AWS treasurer.

Alpha Phi President Jean Taylor has been prominent on the campus for four years as secretary of the sophomore and junior class and ASUO second vice president. "Tay's" other activities include membership in Theta Sigma Phi, Kwama, Phi Theta Upsilon, and executive secretary of the University building program committee.

President of the senior class, Martha Beard Bienvenue has won other distinctions on the campus as vice president of Mortar Board, and member of Phi Theta Upsilon. ADPi "Marty" was also an active worker on the War Board.

Editing the 1944-45 Oregana climaxed the campus activity career of Edith Newton. Besides membership in Mortar Board, Phi Theta Upsilon and Theta Sigma Phi, quiet "Edie" was treasurer of the senior class, co-chairman of Junior Weekend, and Oregana business manager in her junior year.

ISA President Alice Harter's activities includes the vice presidency of the senior class and membership in Ordes, symposium, Delta Sigma Rho, and Pi Lambda Theta. Blond Miss Harter also won first place in the state inter-collegiate extemporaneous speech finals.

Outstanding among college women is tanned Mary Riley, AWS president. Theta "Mick" was a member of Kwama, and Phi Theta Upsilon, and has worked on many student committees. She was also a member of WAA and Amphibians.

Returning to the campus last fall after winning the national Hour of Charm contest and named the "Undiscovered Voice of America," Marie Regndahl delighted her
