

Memorial Fund For Dean Allen Voted by ONPA

A perpetual memorial fund honoring the memory of the late Eric W. Allen, dean of the University school of journalism, was voted at a meeting of the Oregon Newspapers Publishing association in June.

The fund, to be known as the Eric W. Allen Memorial Fund, and created by voluntary contributions, will be used for the benefit of journalism in the state of Oregon and the U O school of journalism. The fund will be used for projects suggested by members of ONPA, Oregon Press conference, members of the working press in Oregon, or students of the journalism school.

Research Project

The suggestions may include projects of research in the field of newspaper practice; state, national or world conditions affecting the press or its working members; scholarships, fellowships or lectureships in the professional field of journalism; or the needs for buildings, equipment or libraries pertaining to the journalism school.

Acting Dean George Turnbull is on the committee preparing the fund plan, of which William M. Tugman, managing editor of the Eugene Register-Guard, is chairman.

At Oregon 32 Years

Dean Allen, who died March 9, 1944, was associated with the University of Oregon for 32 years. Coming to the campus in 1912 as a professor of journalism, he became dean of the newly-founded school of journalism in 1916. He was a graduate from the University of Wisconsin and in 1923 and 1930 was president of the American Association of Schools and Departments of Journalism.

UO Sports

(Continued from page one)

By action of the state board of higher education, the fee has been increased to $5 a term.

Registration cards will admit students to all athletic contests at home, including a football game at Portland. Students will be given reduced rates for conference play-offs and games at Corvallis. They also will admit students to all concerts and special programs sponsored by the University. In addition, the incidental fee helps finance publications, dramatics and forensics.

Although part-time students will not have to pay the fee, graduate students will pay an extra $1.50 a term. Total registration fees for regular students who are residents of Oregon will be $37.50

DR. HARRY K. NEWBURN ...
... at the helm

New president of the University, Dr. Newburn takes up his job at a time when the world faces the dawn of a new atom-conscious era—an era whose effects on this campus can now only bring speculation.

a term.

Under the new set-up, the University of Oregon sports program will be assured $9 a year from every regular student. According to J. O. Lindstrom, University business manager, the new system of financing athletics will put Oregon on the same basis as other Pacific coast schools in Washington and California which have had compulsory athletic fees for some time.

Formerly athletic cards were sold at registration on a voluntary basis. Mr. Lindstrom points out that if the old system of selling cards were to be used this year, the cards would cost each student $10.80 because of the tax.

New Rules

(Continued from page one)

girl to defray the expense of room and board and the Panhellenic fee. The fee must be sent with the applications.

First event of the formal rush week is the annual "open house," Sunday afternoon, September 9 from 2 to 6 p. m. when all sororities will open their doors to all rushees. Preferential dating will be held on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with a preference night dinner planned for Thursday. Bids will be given out Friday morning, September 14, and all girls accepting these bids will immediately move into the houses of their choice.

A short afternoon dress or suit with hat should be worn for Sunday open house. Campus clothes (sweaters and skirts) are in order at all afternoon dates. No hats are worn. Short silks are worn for evening dates, and formal dress is worn for the Friday night pledge banquet.

Frosh to Meet

(Continued from page two)

Program Revised

Since the Freshman Week program has been completely revised, the program listed in this booklet differs from previous statements in the catalog and welcome book. New students should be sure to bring their new instructions to the campus as they are official.

The committee which planned Freshman Week is: Dean P. A. Killgallon, chairman; W. C. Balaire; Dr. L. S. Bee, C. L. Constance; Dean V. D. Earl; Mr. W. S. Hayden; Dr. A. H. Kunz, E. G. Moll; L. K. Shumaker.

Future Policy of Oregon In Hands of Dr. Newburn

Oregon's new president, Dr. Harry K. Newburn, was introduced to summer school faculty and students July 2. Formerly dean of the college of liberal arts at the State University of Iowa, he takes over the job left vacant by the death of Dr. Donald M. Erb in December, 1943, filled in the interim by Orlando John Hollis, now dean of the law school.

As the summer issue of the Oregon Daily Emerald goes to press, Dr. Newburn is attending a meeting of the executive council of the National Education association at Chautauqua, New York. He is expected to return to Eugene August 20.

Faculty Problems

In his first week here Dr. Newburn emphasized the importance of solving faculty personnel problems, and already many additions have been made to the staff.

Among long-range plans for the University, President Newburn is putting stress on the building of a broad scope graduate school, believing that this is an increasingly important part of an institution, that the strength of the institution is in its graduate school.

Liked Oregon

Dr. Newburn and his family were favorably impressed with Oregon and Eugene. On the trip down the Columbia gorge the children got their first sight of mountains and were quite excited. Jacqueline, who is 16, will enter University high school in the fall, and Robert Lee, 14, will go to Roosevelt junior high school. The baby, Michael, is seven months old.

Although the Newburn furniture and clothing were slow in arriving from Iowa City because of unforeseen trucking complications, the Newburn family now is comfortably situated in the president's home at 2315 McMorran drive.

New Courses Planned

Four new courses and a student institute of Pacific affairs are being added to the curriculum in the Pacific Basin Studies program. Dr. Harold J. Noble, associate professor of history, will direct the program.

Welcome to Co-eds

For the first time you'll find a dress shop right on the campus . . . And we feature just the clothes you like for both classes and dates.

The

Westgate Shoppe

Next Door to the Side

Welcome to Oregon

We would like to extend a special welcome to all of you who will be coming to the University of Oregon for the first time this year. We will be glad to see all of our friends of last year.

For years OREGON DUCKS have been sending their clothes to us for experienced cleaning that fits a college budget.

After you are settled in your new home, call us and we will call for your "tired togs," and make them look like new.

FAST SERVICE
REASONABLE PRICES

EUGENE CLEANERS

245 East Broadway

Phone 75

We Will Be Glad to See
You Back,
DUCKS!

Robinson's
550 E. 13th Ave.

1945-46. Eff. 3.00 Laundry fee