

President's Reception Opens Year's Social Calendar

Craig Edits '45 Pigger's Handbook

Jack Craig, senior in journalism, will edit the 1945-46 student directory, known to students as the Pigger's Guide, Horace W. Robinson, acting educational activities director, announced Friday. It is expected to be off the press by November 1. Soliciting of advertising is being handled by Gamma Alpha Chi, women's advertising honorary.

Included in this guide are the names of all registered students, their home and University addresses, telephone numbers, majors and classes. It also lists the faculty members, with home addresses, office and home telephone numbers.

"Pigging," is the traditional Oregon argot for that popular pastime of dating the girl friend. It has been in evidence since about 17 spring terms ago when a freshman stated foolishly that he was going to see his pigs when he really meant that he was going to see his girl friend who lived on the edge of town. Since then the "Pigger's Guide" has been traditional.

Pill Palace Assumes Double Duty Aspect

Although the third floor and the basement of the infirmary are being used for student housing this week, regular hospital and dispensary privileges probably will be available next week. Dispensary hours are 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

There is no shortage of nurses at the health service as two have been added to the staff. They are Mrs. Agnes Dickerson, night shift, and Mrs. Weybright, on the relief shift. Dr. Fred N. Miller, director of the health service, emphasizes the fact that janitors have been hard to obtain.

Honors Privileges Go To Seventy-Four Ducks

Junior certificate with honor privileges were awarded to 74 students during the summer, according to information furnished by the registrar's office.

Those receiving honors from the college of liberal arts are: Madge Anderson, Roberta Baxter, Barbara Bealer, Charis Bradt, Gloria Cartozian, Lorraine Cheney, Carole Clairbourne, Lillian Cooper, Leola Deffenbacher, Elizabeth Edwards, Phyllis Evans, Ruby Florey, Betty Frey, Edith Goldstein, Betty Ingebritson, Sarah Jeffcott, Elizabeth Johnson, Ninon King, Mary Landry, Mary Lavin, Harry Lee, Kay Leslie, Elizabeth Lombard, Lois McConkey, Gene McPherson, Della Martin, Morrie Mink, Evelyn Rude, Marjorie Silvis, June Spor, Betty Vogelpohl, Marilyn Whitman and Janette Williams.

Art Majors

Seven architecture and allied art majors were awarded certificates. They are: Mirza Baumhover, Natalie Cartier, Martha Hoch, Robert Hiatt, Beverly Hop-

EDITOR—Jack Craig, senior in journalism, has been given the job of compiling the 1945-46 student directory, better known as the "Pigger's Guide." After November 1 students will be able to turn to the "Pigger's" for telephone numbers, home addresses, class standings and majors.

Today's World

Republicans WERE DEFEATED in an effort to bring Elliott Roosevelt to Capitol Hill for questioning about financial affairs. . . .

ANGERED BY WHAT could be termed "threats of political retaliation" by the CIO, Senator Tidings (D-Md.) stormed out of a forum between Maryland congressmen and union members.

GENERAL McARTHUR ordered the summary arrest of Lt. Gen. Meiji Doihara, a marauder in Manchuria, who only recently assumed the most important military field command left.

GASOLINE SHORTAGES developed in the nation's cities where CIO oil workers were off refinery jobs, and the government moved actively to attempt a settlement of spreading oil strikes.

kins, Joene Johnson and Norma Woodford.

Bonnie Butler, Beverly Davis, Jean Girts, Eula Ledbury, Mary Minor, Nell Carpenter Moshofsky, Frances Rakow, Lois Roeder, Joyce Utz and Patricia Waite, earned honors in business administration. Education majors Margaret Murphy, Carol O'Brien and Jean Watson were awarded their junior certificates with honor privileges.

The same right was received by journalism majors Gloria Fick, Wilma Foster, Flora Farrow, Mary Howard, Carolyn Jacobs, Jean Lawrence, Luella Prescott, Betty French Robertson, Marilyn Sage, Dagmar Shanks, Margery Skordahl, Martha Thorsland, Marguerite Wittwer and Yvonne Zeek.

From the school of law are Douglas Moore and Esther Quier. Music majors Maxine Cady, Nancy Carlisle and Johnette King. Patricia Metcalf and Marilyn Olson also received their junior certificates with honors privileges.

Emerald Meetings Tuesday

Students, new and old, who are interested in working on the Emerald, will have an opportunity to learn the functions of the publication and to sign for work thereon when the first Emerald meeting of the year is held Tuesday night. Louise Montag, editor, has requested that all interested students attend the meeting, scheduled for 105 Journalism at 7:30, in order to register in their preferred field of Emerald work. Those choosing advertising positions will also be signed up at this meeting.

Positions Open

Miss Montag will explain the various positions open on the Emerald, citing especially reporting, feature writing, copy desk duties, and work on the night staff. The latter includes setting headlines, reading proof, and helping in the mechanics of putting out the paper. This work is done after closing hours, and permission must be obtained from home before a student is allowed to stay out of his house after closing hours.

Explain Work

Winifred Romtvedt, acting managing editor until the return of Marguerite Wittwer, will speak at the meeting, and will later be in her office to inaugurate students into Emerald routine. Following the meeting, Jeanne Simmonds, news editor, will assign beats to those interested in reporting.

Business Manager Annamae Winship will explain the functions of the advertising department, and will take the names of those interested in this department.

Why Are You Here?

An open forum is scheduled for Sunday evening at Westminster house on Kincaid street. The main topic will be "Why Are You Here?" and participants will have opportunity to air grievances and promote their ideals. The forum starts at 6:30 p.m. and faculty members and students are invited.

Gerlinger Scene of First All-Campus Affair Tonight

In the midst of typical Oregon weather, an enthusiastic welcome will be accorded old and new University students when the Ducks meet tonight in Alumni hall in Gerlinger. The reception, which will afford the first social opportunity for President and Mrs. Harry K. Newburn to meet the student body, will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

CARROT-TOPPED Bob Moran, popular campus emcee, will be on hand to keep the student talent show rolling tonight at 8:30 o'clock in Gerlinger hall. The show will be preceded by a reception for Oregon's new president, and first lady, Dr. and Mrs. Harry K. Newburn.

Also in the receiving line will be Dean of Men Virgil D. Earl, Dean of Women Golda Wickham and Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel administration. The reception has been organized by Mrs. Wickham, with the assistance of Ann Burgess, Kwama president. Members of Kwama, sophomore women's honorary, will act as guides and will help serve refreshments. Punch will be served in the lobby as the guests leave the affair. Mrs. K. W. Onthank and Mrs. Virgil D. Earl, assisted by Mrs. Grace Glang, assistant dean of women, will pour.

Moran To Emcee

Vitamin-plussed Bob Moran, returning sophomore and veteran showman, will emcee the entertainment which will run simultaneously with the reception. Maxine Cady, Oregon's nimble-fingered virtuoso, will play several numbers, and will also act as accompanist for the musical numbers. The Phi Beta Phi sorority will present a skit, as will Beverly Carroll and Elaine Konesky. Honey-voiced Floyd Stapp, sophomore vocalist, is also scheduled to appear. Directed by Horace Robinson, head of educational activities, the program will continue from 8:30 to 10 p.m.

Enter East Door

Guests have been requested to enter Gerlinger hall through the east door and to go through the reception line before proceeding through the office to the women's gymnasium for the following program. Exit will be made through the north stairs to the punch table in the lobby.

All students on or near the campus are invited to attend both social functions. And a special note for the girls—short silks and heels (no hats), are in order for the evening.

Registering Continues

Prospective UO students who have not completed registering will be able to do so this morning from 8 to 12, when materials will be available in McArthur court.

Announce Libe Hours, Display

Beginning Monday, September 24, the University library will resume its normal hours. From Monday to Thursday, the library will remain open from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.; on Friday from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.; on Saturday from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. and on Sunday from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Bernice Rise, circulation librarian and head of the browsing room, announced that the browsing room will be open to students starting Monday, from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. This room contains a number

WAA Sports Program Reviewed At Freshman Orientation Meeting

All freshman and newcomers to the campus were urged to turn out for volleyball and intermural sports last night by WAA President Gay Edwards, at the first orientation meeting of the women's athletic association. Miss Edwards emphasized the sports angle in activities for all girls as she contended one gets to know people in other houses and living organizations and this is an important factor of campus life and education.

Miss Catherine Jones, new adviser to WAA, welcomed new women to the campus and explained WAA functions and activities. Cabinet members were introduced as following: Gay Edwards, president; Virginia Scholl, vice pres- tary; Betty Ingebritsen, treas-ident; Wanda Lue Payne, secretary; Beverly Bennet, sergeant-at-arms; Jeanne Simmonds, custodian; Pearl Peterson, Orchesis; Beverly Bennet, Amphibians. Gay Edwards is head of all sports, assisted by Thelma Chaney, volleyball; Betty Crabb, hockey; Barbara Wells, badminton; Della Cable, basketball.

Calendar Outlined

WAA Vice President Virginia Scholl discussed the plans for the following year, briefly outlining the calendar. "We're hoping for a big year, and have new plans in store for all women on the campus," Miss Scholl stated. Also mentioned were the hopes and plans now underway for a co-educational Ski Club.

A program, consisting of entertainment from Amphibians, women's swimming honorary, and Orchesis, the dance honorary, was presented. The theme of the Amphibians' swimming program was centered around the idea of "Now you are an initiate (or pledge) into Amphibians." Orchesis gave a short dance called "Country Gentlemen," and illustrated techniques and falls.

House managers or athletic chairmen are to be chosen next week to prepare for volleyball games between the living organizations. Girls attending four practices and all games will be automatically eligible for membership into WAA. Dues will be two dollars a year.

Volleyball and swimming were open to anyone interested after the meeting.