

Church Night Observance

By BUD BRADLEY

September 28 has been designated "Church Night" by the University, from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. All Eugene churches will hold open houses for University students.

"Church Night" is a tradition at Oregon, and is strictly a semi-formal affair planned for fun and gaiety. This year's elaborate entertainment program promises to be one of the best ever given. Listed below are the locations of the various churches and the programs planned.

* * *

EPISCOPAL, the Parish of St. Mary the Virgin
166 East 13th st.

Dancing, card games, and table tennis in the Great Hall of the parish house, and for those interested a tour of the church, will be held to point out the various observances of the Anglican tradition. The reception is an informal one, and refreshments will be served. The rector, the Rev. Ernest Hartlam, is in charge of the program, and is being assisted by the members of the Canterbury club.

* * *

PRESBYTERIAN
Westminster house, East 1th and Kincaid sts.

A musical program will be featured at Westminster house along with a dancing party, and if the weather is favorable, refreshments will be served at the out-of-doors fireplace. Charlotte Calder Sabin is in charge of the program.

* * *

CONGREGATIONAL
First Congregational Church, 90 East 13th st.

An informal receiving line with background music has been planned by the college group. The party is strictly a come and go affair. The Rev. Mr. Wesley Goodson Nicholson is in charge of the program. Refreshments will be served.

* * *

METHODIST
Wesley House, at its new location on 1347 Onyx St.

"Stop! Look! Listen!" is the theme of the program at Wesley house. A tour of the house is scheduled so as to show students the accommodations of the building. A dancing party is planned and refreshments will be served. Mrs. Mary Beth Hurlockie is in charge of the program.

* * *

BAPTIST
First Baptist Church, 868 High St.

An open house reception will start promptly at 8 p.m. in the church parlors. The theme of the program is "Extra-Curricular Activities". Several prominent people will speak, and several readings will be given. The program is being sponsored by the senior group of Business and University students of the Baptist Young Peoples' Union. Refreshments will be served.

* * *

CATHOLIC
17th and Charnelton

A social gathering sponsored by the Knights of Columbus and the Catholic Daughters society will be held in the parish hall for University students at 8. A dance will be held.

* * *

CHRISTIAN CHURCH
1166 Oak St.

An informal reception will be held in the church annex at 7:30 p.m. for University students.

All churches invite all students regardless of denomination.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Executive council will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon in room 1, Johnson hall.

Statistics prove that four out of five women haters are women.

REPORTERS THIS ISSUE

Pat Ebert
Dolores Frazier
Joan Beckman
Maryann Thielan
Mary de Temple
Audrey Wishart
Betty Bennett
Nancy Peterson
Betty Gene Simmons
Betty Stewart
Dorothy Conrad
Marilyn Sage
Ralph Riggs
Bud Bradley
Jo Schulberg
Gertrude Chernis
Dorothy Ward
Phyllis Perkins
Dorothy Habel
LaVerne Gunderson

COPY DESK

Maryan Howard, city editor
Chuck de Ganahl
Joan Williams
Pat Webber
Virginia Jones
Colleen Mariott
Harriet Harper
Shirley Sisley
Mary Ruth Springer

THURSDAY STAFF

Advertising Staff

Bobbe Fullmer, day manager
Dorothy Ward
Earl Croghan
Maurice Williams

Layout Staff

Dedo Misley, layout manager
Barbara Williams

Mary Joy Han
Kit Wilhelm
Jo Anne Hirschbuhl
Velma Harms
Earl Croghan
Marilyn Anderson
Maurice Persinger
Phyllis Litzenberger
Joyce Gordon

Office Staff

Norma Fiogone, office manager
Beryl Howard

DAFFYNITIONS

Sulphur—To bear pain.
Holstein—Two half steins.
Quote—Two pints.
Bargain—The type of dog that never bites.
Armistice—A precious stone.
Begonia—An Elizabethan term meaning to scam.
Oil—English title of nobility.
Tangerine—A loose leaf orange.
Whiskey—What, in the morning after, you wish you'd drunk water the night before instead of.
Fizz—Type of hat worn by Asiatics.
Bar—Large hairy animal.
Swizzle—Type of chair.
Absinthe—Cutting class.
Gin—Phys ed.
Drunk—The main part of a tree.
Bacteria—The back of a cafeteria.
Blizzard—The inside of a fowl.
Cat—A quadruped, the legs, as usual, being at four corners.
Dust—Mud with the juice squeezed out.
Lipstick—The thing which makes the only line the modern girl draws.
Ox—To make a request. Plural is oxygen.
Period—A dot at the end of a sentence. Period costumes are dresses all covered with dots.
Parasite—One who goes through a revolving door on your push.
Modern Girl—A vision in the evening and a sight in the morning.
—Ski-u-Mah.

Westminster House Holds Potluck Tonight

Thursday night at 6 at Westminster house, "the home away from home," a potluck dinner will be held out on the terrace over the outdoor barbecue pit. If the weather doesn't permit this, it will be held in the living room in front of the fire place.

Everyone is urged to attend, and bring one article of food and join the fun. Church membership isn't necessary to enjoy the homelike atmosphere of Westminster house.

A potluck dinner will be held every Thursday night.

Work Plentiful At Alum Office

One of the hardest working branches of the University is the Alumni office, since its purpose is to keep a record of all graduates and ex-students of the University of Oregon. This record includes all U of O men who are in the service and a list of decorations given to them. The Alumni office also takes care of all homecomings and banquets given in honor of graduates.

In addition to all this work, the office publishes "Old Oregon," the alumni magazine. George Luoma is the editor and has a staff of students as his assistants.

Federation, Too

Another branch of this office is the Oregon Federation. Every summer one woman, usually a student, tours Oregon cities in search of prospective students.

The Alumni office staff is as follows: Miss Doris Hack, acting secretary; Mrs. Gene Gary, Records clerk; Mrs. Setser, assistant records clerk; Roberta Quigly, secretary; Ruby Orrick, stenographic worker for "Old Oregon," Ralph Stephens, runs the addressograph machine.

Ex-Marine, Swiss Wife Enrolled in University

By DOROTHY CONRAD

Fascinating is the word for attractive Hildegard Buckett, now attending the University with her husband, Mark.

Speaking with a Viennese accent, Hildegard greeted this reporter with a cordial, "Hello, do come in," and ushered yours truly into the Buckett's apartment on 14th street. Upon being told she and her husband Mark, marine veteran of the Pacific, were to be featured in the Emerald, she smiled and said, "No, I don't mind at all."

Hildegard claims Switzerland as her birthplace and has traveled extensively. The possessor of a golden tan, long brown hair which she wears in braids on the top of her head, and a handsome husband, Mrs. Buckett is majoring in psychology and German and plans to write psychological novels.

Coming to Mexico in 1934, Hildegard moved to Napa, California with her parents in 1936. She completed high school in three years and then attended Napa Junior College. At this time Hildegard won a literary contest in the San Francisco bay region with a story entitled "Straightening of the Cross."

It was in November, 1944, at Napa Junior College that Hildegard met Mark. And it was at this point that Mark began to monopolize her time. The newly-weds then told of their marriage August 5, in Napa, the honeymoon in Canada and their return to the Oregon campus. (Hildegard was a UO summer student). After completing their education at Oregon, the couple plan to take graduate work at Chicago according to Mr. Buckett who is a political science major.

Commenting on the color of his bride's eyes, Mark smiled and said, "It all depends on her humour." Hildegard was quite certain, however, that her husband's eyes were brown and that he was Canadian.

She: Where's your chivalry?
He: Oh, I turned it in for a Buick.

Hurry Ducks!

Help your folks know what is going on on the Oregon campus. Let them know what you are doing.

Send them the Emerald and you won't have to write so many letters!

Send in the subscription blank below now, so your folks won't miss a single issue.

EMERALD BUSINESS OFFICE, 105 JOURNALISM

COMPLETE CAMPUS COVERAGE

$3.00 a school year

$1.25 a term

Oregon Daily Emerald
University of Oregon
Eugene, Oregon

Enclosed find $..... for my subscription to
The EMERALD.

Name

Street

City State