

By Bob Chapman

Vandals are coming to town, in fact 28 rough and ready men from the Pallouse country are headed for an all-out battle to settle the question; Vandal kill Duck or Duck kill Vandal.

Although "Jennie" lost her tail feathers in a scrap with the Washington Husky last Saturday, she has recovered from the bruises sufficiently and expects to start against an unexperienced robber. Latest reports have it that Jennie brought one more returning Webfoot into her lineup Tuesday evening even though the fact was censored for 24 hours. Jake Leicht, Jennie's favorite boyfriend, is home and from the sidelines it looks as though her favorite boy friend can be counted upon to bring Oregon a victory Saturday.

Jennie wants the boys to bring out the old victory bell from the attic because she is expecting to celebrate her first victory under the banner of an Oregon grid eleven.

Jennie's team faces an understaffed Idaho squad in their opening home game of the season. Her opponents have added several navy ROTC men to their roster and from their performance against a victorious Cougar last week Jennie is expecting to see a fast Vandal ball club if the Rally squad leaves her alone so she can enjoy the game.

Jennie's team has been working out all week in anticipation of a good turnout and she just notified the Emerald sports staff the boys looked great in practice Wednesday.

Tex Oliver is unknown to Jennie at this date but she has hopes that Tex will become a personal friend of hers before the season ends. Oregon's football elevens have suffered two defeats at the hands of the Vandals in 29 years of competition and in their last game the Webfoots blanked the visitors 28-0, take it from Jennie, she knows.

Eugene Extension Classes Underway

Eugene extension classes began Monday, October 1, and will continue until December 1. The list of courses has been released by Dr. I. F. Cramer, director, general extension division, Oregon state system of higher education.

Courses are planned to serve all who show sufficient maturity and background to carry on the work profitably to themselves. Those not seeking college credit will be excused from all written work if they desire.

The following classes will meet on Mondays throughout the term: Lower division applied design; pottery; Miss Victoria Avakian, associate professor of design, class meets in pottery laboratory, architecture building, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Recent Germany meets in room 4, Oregon building, 7:15 to 9:15 p.m., with Col. Robert M. Lyon, associate professor of history, as instructor.

Twentieth century music, non-credit, Dr. Arnold Elston, instructor in Romance languages, lecture room, music building, 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Conversational Spanish (beginning); Mrs. Marion H. Wright, instructor in Romance languages, general extension division; 212 Friendly hall, 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Constructive accounting; Dowell Callis, instructor in business administration; room 101, Commerce building; 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Twentieth century literature; H. C. Franchere, assistant professor of English; 107 Oregon building; 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Regional geography; Miss Ruth E. Hopson, instructor, general extension division; geography seminar in Condon hall; 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Methods in woodworking; O. D. Mickelson, instructor in industrial arts, general extension division; Eugene high school shop (Lincoln and 18th avenue); 7:00 to 10:00 p.m.

Public school music; Miss Maude Garnett, associate professor of public school music; lecture room, music building; 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Body conditioning; non-credit; Miss Shirley P. Cox, graduate assistant in physical education; girls' gymnasium and pool, Gerlinger building (enter by middle or west door on north side of building); 8:00 to 9:30 p.m.

Public speaking for business and professional men and women; W. A. Dahlberg, associate professor of speech and dramatic arts; 107 Friendly hall, 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Tuesday classes began Oct. 2 and include the following courses: Oregon school law and state system of education; W. G. Beattie, emeritus professor of education, general extension division; room 4, Oregon building; 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Theory I; Dr. Arnold Elston; lecture room, music building; 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Conversational Spanish (fourth term); non-credit; Mrs. Wright; 212 Friendly hall; 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Advanced conversational Spanish; non-credit, Esiquio Narro, instructor in Spanish, general extension division; Tuesdays and Thursdays; room 19, Friendly hall; 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Typing (beginning); Mrs. Lois E. Newman, instructor in business administration; Tuesdays and Thursdays; 208 Commerce building; 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Wednesday classes began October 3 and include the following: Art representation I; Miss Hazel C. Fishwood, instructor in art, general extension division; room 101, art building; 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Thursday classes begin October 4 and include the following courses; Japan, land and people; Dr. Warren D. Smith, professor of geography and geography; Dr. Harold J. Noble, associate professor of history; Dr. A. R. Moore, research professor of general physiology; and Dr. W. S. Baldinger, associate professor of art. Class meets in 101 Condon hall; 7:30 to 9:00 p.m.

General journalism; Warren C. Price; room 107, Oregon building; 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Advanced conversational Spanish, non-credit; Mr. Narro; second meeting—same time and place as Tuesday.

Nature study; Miss Hopson;

Snowball Rally Friday

The first all-campus snowball rally of the year will be held at 7 p.m. Friday in front of the University library. The rally will start at the Gamma Phi and Tri-Delt houses and proceed around the campus to the "libe". Details of a contest to name a duck will be announced at the rally.

OREGON EMERALD STAFF

Reporters This Issue

- Shirley Peters
- Maryann Thielan
- Anna Jean Winters
- Dorothy Habel
- Gertrude Chernis
- Marjie Weeks
- Kay Becker
- Phyllis Perkins
- Lois Coleman
- Pat Keck
- Nancy Peterson
- Betty Bushman
- Ellen Stilwell
- JoAnn Matthes
- Mavis De La Mare

Advertising Staff

- Bobby Fullmer, day manager
- Sue Grether
- Jean MacDonald
- Earl Groghan

Layout Staff

- Dedo Misley, layout staff manager
- Don Persinger
- Velma Harms
- Kit Welhelm
- John Knighter
- Virginia Tappan
- Mary Jean Reeves
- Shirley Minea
- Joan Hirshbuhl

Office Staff

- Norma Figone, office manager
- Betty Lou Cochran
- Bonnie Chappel
- Dorothy Clausen

Copydesk

- Wilma Foster, copy editor
- Marian Villieis
- Joan Rae Williams
- Florence Merriam
- Shirley Anderson
- Colleen Mariott
- Alene Hinton
- Nancy Peterson
- Beverly Deichler
- Ted Bush
- Barbara Schmeer

Night Staff

- Aileen Koch, night editor
- Beth Basler
- Lorraine Kennedy
- Pat Jolliff
- Dorothy Thomson
- Marjean McElwain
- Mary Coursey
- Jessie Bindford
- Bertha Jean Ryan
- Barbara Berry

Sports Staff This Issue

- Editor: Bill Walkinshaw
- Assistants: Bob Chapman, Dave Goss
- Staff Writers: Larry Neer, Bill Reed, Jeanne Carpenter, Tom Riley

geography seminar room, Condon hall, 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Typing (beginning); Mrs. Newman and place as Tuesday.

Marriage and the family; Robert C. Myers, instructor in sociology; room 106, Oregon building; 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Registration may take place at the first or second meeting of classes or at the office in the extension building on the university campus during regular office hours.

TADCEN

City man to farmer: "Why are you running that steam roller over your field?" Farmer: "I'm going to raise mashed potatoes this year."

Spanish Instructor Comes To UO After Federal Work

One of the most sparkling personalities on the campus in the estimation of your reporter is Daniel Samuels, newest instructor in Romance Languages. Having discovered that this interview is the outcome of a journalism assignment, he voiced his delight with, "Well, well—this is most interesting!" His eyes twinkled as he told of his journalistic experiences in Puerto Rico.

During the war Mr. Samuels was with the military intelligence on "highly secretive" work involving the spotting of enemy agents and submarine activities.

"We were quite successful," he smiled proudly but modestly, "not because we were too clever, but because they were too dumb." He later worked with the Corps of Engineers in the war department in engineer research. This work involved the use of French, German, Italian, Spanish, and Portuguese. After "pitting our brains with the brains of the enemy," he quipped, "Now, I'm reconverting from war-time to peace-time pursuits."

With deepest sincerity he explained that he is here to inspire students to love Spanish—the people and the culture.

"I understood the continent of Spain. I'm interested in the mother country which shed its blood for the South American countries," he said.

Mr. Samuels won his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees at Columbia, and since then has been to Puerto Rico, South America, Spain, and France, where he lived for a time. In Puerto Rico he was an instructor at the University of Puerto Rico, and taught high school classes.

In coming here this fall, our multi-linguist took his first trip in a plane, and his first trip to Oregon. He found Oregon to be a wonderful place, with beautiful scenery. But "more than the scenery," he said, "it's the people. They have been very kind, going out of their way to make me comfortable."

Mr. Samuels said he found the students intelligent and eager to learn, very pleasant, cultured, and well bred.

In bidding your reporter goodbye with a cordial invitation to come back "just to visit," Mr. Samuels stated that he spoke from the heart when he said, "The University should be proud of the pupils, and the pupils should be proud of Oregon."

Ex-Duck Cordeiro Plays for St. Mary's

Spike Cordeiro, freshman on the Oregon campus last year, now is playing on the St. Mary eleven. His value on the gridiron was confirmed by his actions against California a few weeks ago when St. Mary's romped all over the sturdy Golden Bears to the tune of 20 to 13.

However, the game was more one-sided than the score shows because Cordeiro, Wedemeyer, and company literally ran wild, scoring three touchdowns marked on the scoreboard and two more that were called back because of penalties.

Charles A. Cordeiro, Jr., as he is not generally known, was a continual threat during the whole game. He was the thorn in the Bear's side as Phelan sent him out on flankers and forced the Bears to spread their defense all over the field.

The slightest mistake, and the Bears made plenty of them, and Spike was on his way, hurdling, dodging, and squirmying away from tackles. Mr. Five-by-Five was about as hard to hang on to as a fish in water.

Oregana Pix Schedule

Alpha Gamma Delta and Alpha Omicron Pi will have their pictures taken today for the Oregana.

Homecoming Set For Oregon Alms

Homecoming weekend, when alumni return to the campus to witness the traditional Oregon-Oregon State college football game, will be held the weekend of November 30, December 1 and 2, Ed Allen, ASUO president, announced.

Committees planning the event have not been organized, and a call for student petitions will be run next week in the Emerald.

The Homecoming weekend, which features Oregon's final game of the season, was curtailed during the war years when Oregon did not field a team, and this will be its first full-scale event since 1942.

'Penny for Brew' Offered as Slogan

(Editor's note: Formation of such groups as Tau Upsilon on the campus has inspired the author of this article to suggest another society with somewhat similar principles.)

"Bum a penny from every sucker you meet on the street and you will be a millionaire in fifty years," said the great Herman Schtunk.

The idea a few of the boys dreamed up is not to get a million dollars, but to get each student on the campus to drop pennies in the pot every time he enters the Side. Before he decides to avoid this eatery the students should know that the outcome of all this is altruistic, not capitalistic, and is closely allied with the worthy drives of Tau Upsilon whose aim it is to bring the Independents and Greeks closer together.

On the day of the Oregon-Oregon State game, the proceeds of the drive will be spent on a beer and chowder party for the entire student body. It is the hope of the originators that this gathering will bring the students closer together and foster a feeling of good fellowship.

Following is the motto of this philanthropic organization:

"Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
Donate a penny
For a bottle of brew."
Where could you get so much for so little?

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Westminster House will have a potluck dinner at 6 p.m. Thursday.

All unaffiliated girls interested in playing volleyball, meet in Gerlinger at 5 p.m. Thursday.

Attention, Lettermen: there will be NO meeting at the Side Thursday, October 4, at 4:00 p.m.

TADCEN

Smitty: "So Bill's fine now. What did they operate on him for?"

Jerry: "They removed a brass rail that had been pressing against his foot for years."