

Duck Dinner For Hunters

By JACK REEVES

Now hear ye neophytes whose plans include the coming duck and pheasant hunting season, opening Saturday, October 13. Gather round, clean and oil your shotguns, for the Sigma Kappas guarantee a duck dinner, if you bring the ducks—pheasants will do.

Hunter Must Bring 4 Birds

When one of the fellows referred to his pre-season hunting expedition yesterday, Marguerite "Beaver" Wittwer spoke up, promised to have all the game he shot roasted in the Sigma Kappa kitchen.

When asked if any of the local campus hunters, (duck hunters of course), would be eligible as well, she immediately went in a huddle with the telephone and rapidly dialed the Sigma Kappa house for verification. After a long interlude she clapped down the receiver, turned around flushed with victory, said "Yes, anyone can come." With those words still hanging in the air, we raced down the hall to our typewriter, and sat down to let the rest of the campus in on our little scoop.

Piggers Are Foiled

Now here's the pay-off. In order to become eligible for a fowl (or fowl) dinner with the Sigma Kappas doing the roasting honors, you must produce at least four birds three hours before the evening meal. The fowl must show evidence of shotgun wounds or they will not be considered. In other words a would-be "pigger" cannot go into one of the local food markets and procure four or five unpicked pheasants or ducks, and thusly deal himself into the Sigma Kappa heart.

This is a challenge, Webfooted hunters! (still referring to ducks) so go home and get your gun, Johnny.

Some pulp mills are using a new debarker said to result in an estimated 20 per cent saving of wood. Bark is removed from logs by the force of a jet of water at 650 pounds pressure, without disturbing the wood itself.

To obtain best results, wet shoes should be stuffed with paper and coated lightly with oil and allowed to dry slowly at low heat, away from much light.

OSC SUGGESTS CASUAL CLOTHES FOR CORVALLIS GAME

Following the Oregon-Oregon State football game, there will be a no-date sport dance at the Memorial Union ballroom in Corvallis, it was announced in the Oct. 9 Barometer. This dance will be held from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. on October 13 to add a finishing touch to the OSC annual Dads' day. A Salem band is scheduled to play for the dance. University of Oregon students will be admitted for the regular general admission prices.

Sport clothes will be in order for both the game in the afternoon and the dance in the evening, stated Signe Eklund, president of AWS. Oregon State women will wear low-heeled shoes and campus clothes to the game since the Duck visitors will wear casual clothes. This courtesy, Miss Eklund said, will be extended the visiting Beavers at the Oregon-Oregon State game in Eugene.

WAA Fun Night For Members Only

The Women's Athletic association promises a fun night for all association members tonight, October 12, from 7 to 9:30 at Gerlinger. All those who have paid their $1.00 dues are invited, Gay Edwards said.

Freshmen are not included in the plans, but they may be eligible to attend the next all-member meeting by playing on a team for their house or living organization during the term and becoming a member at the end of the term, the bulletin further stated.

There will be various sorts of entertainment for everyone, volleyball, shwimming, folk-dancing, some quiet games, and songs will be sung around a fire for those who feel like just sitting.

The charge for the entire evening will be only ten cents, including refreshments.

moral nature so that he will feel again the responsibility he should feel for the action of the group to which he belongs," he asserted.

Because of the harmony here, Dr. Souers stated, he has come to feel more at home here in three weeks than he felt after years in other places. Before coming to the University of Oregon, he was head of the department of English at Tulane university. He received his doctor of philosophy degree from Harvard in 1928. At one time he also taught at the University of Iowa, as did Dr. Harry Newburn, who introduced him.

Rose Zena Latta, junior in music, opened the assembly with the singing of "Laughing Song" by Strauss, accompanied by Pat Metcalf at the piano.

This is the first time in WAA history that an all-member party has been held.
