

Man Vs. Paint Turps Win

By MIRIAM SULLIVAN

There was a little man in a blue denim suit and a little man in a white denim suit, and they both had caps with visors. Professional looking painters they were—who also knew how to unpaint. Somebody had spilt some orange paint, and they were cleaning it up. They concentrated first on the Pioneer Mother whose dignity was a shambles. And then they tackled the sidewalk around her where some mysterious symbols appeared in paint. They would work for awhile with liquids and brushes and then they'd consult before going on. It was a tough battle—man vs. paint—but man with his brawn and his brain and his turpentine won. And again she sits, the Pioneer Mother, in her original beauty. With a tan like that, she doesn't need paint!

Journalists to Be Honored Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. William Tugman will hold open house at their home, 2141 Harris St., Sunday at 4 p. m. for all students interested in journalism. Tugman is editor of the Eugene Register-Guard.

All those planning to attend are required to sign up at the YWCA and must come if they sign up. Those not acquainted with Eugene can meet at the "Y" bungalow and go in a group. This affair is one of a series sponsored by the Town & Gown group of the YWCA with Elizabeth Decou as chairman.

Tugman New President

(Continued from page two)

fund will be made, contributions are now being accepted. Checks should be made payable to "The Eric W. Allen Memorial Fund" and

Vandals Face Expulsion

(Continued from page one)

University students painted green tracks on the campus sidewalks and walls of at least one building at Oregon State. Signs, such as "Ducks," "Go, Ducks," and "Beat 'em, Ducks," also were painted on the OSC campus. Only the fact that the Memorial Union building was "too well guarded" saved the structure desecration.

Last night the Beavers sought revenge by painting symbols of the "beaver" and slogans on the Pioneer Mother and campus walks and splashed paint around Chapman hall and John Straub dormitory.

GAME TICKETS

Tickets for today's football game at Corvallis will be available in the ticket office at McArthur court until 10 this morning.

"Student tickets will not be sold at Corvallis. Without tickets purchased here, students will have to pay the general admission price and will not be allowed to sit in their school section," reports A. B. Cornell, athletic manager.

New 'Y' Members Witness Service

In front of the art museum Thursday, October 11, approximately 200 new YWCA members witnessed the recognition service given in their honor.

The procession beginning from the back of the art museum library formed a circle in front of the museum where the cabinet members lit candles that were held by all new student members of the YWCA.

Following the candle lighting ceremony a dedication was read by Mary Corrigan, "Y" president, and a responsive reading was lead by Lois Greenwood, executive chairman. At the close of the service the new members repeated the purpose of the organization, while holding their candles high.

During the program the vesper choir made their second appearance of the year and sang Follow the Gleam and the Oregon Pledge song.

should be mailed to The Eric W. Allen Memorial Fund, School of Journalism, University of Oregon, Eugene.

The board of trustees will meet from time to time to consider suggestions for projects and to administer the fund.

President Purcell of the Oregon Newspaper Publishers association and President Spraker of the Oregon Press Conference are appointing a joint committee to conduct a campaign for contributions from the newspapers of the state and allied industries.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Notices to be posted in Campus Calendar should be in the Emerald office by 5 p.m. the day before publication.

Saturday

Student tickets for the OSC-Oregon game will be on sale in McArthur court until 10:00 a.m. They will not be sold in Corvallis. General admission tickets sold in Corvallis do not admit students to the rooters' section.

Westminster house hike will be at 4:00 p.m. Everyone should bring a paper bag lunch.

Students without transportation to Corvallis still have a chance to obtain transportation by meeting at the Side at 10:45. Six buses have been chartered.

Monday

Yeomen will hold a meeting Monday night at 7:30 in the men's lounge, in Gerlinger hall. All independent men students on the campus are invited.

Volleyball team entry blanks are due Monday, October 15.

Any Day

Wesley Foundation invites all students to its new location at 1347 Onyx street.

Petitions for Co-ed Capers must be turned in to Signe Eklund at the Tri-Delt house by October 18.

OREGON EMERALD

Night Staff

June Goetze
Laura Olson
Virginia Harris
Louise Montag
George (in Memoriam)

Reporters This Issue

June Goetze
Maryann Thielen
Bud Bradley
Anna Jean Winters
Rex Gunn
Bill Anderson
Jeanette Grant
Chuck de Ganahl
Dorothy Habel
Jack Craig
Beverly James
Jack Reeves
LaVerne Gunderson

Copy Desk

Chuck de Ganahl,
city desk editor
Pat Ebert
Virginia Harris
Bill Whitelock
Rex Gunn
Jack Reeves
Leonard Turnbull
LaVerne Gunderson
Audrey Wishart
Shirley Sisley

STAFF

Layout Staff

Dedo Misley, layout manager
Bob Brown
Yvonne Adams
Kit Wilhelm
The "Doc"
Margaret Gammill

Day Manager

Barbara Borrevik and
Marilyn Stratton

Office Staff

Beryl Howard
Joan Ramby
Yvonne Adams

Ad Staff

Sue Mercer
Jean Merrifield
Aldine McNott
Norma McKeegan
Beth Coleman
Barbara Blinco

Celebration

(Continued from page one)

Annamae Winsup: "Get a good start on my thesis."

Rex Gunn: "Have to work 'till midnite . . . but after that . . . look me up?"

Kay Becker: "I'd like to ride through Corvallis in a jalopy singing 'I'd Rather Be An Oregon Web-foot'."

Phi Beta Scholarship Concert To Present Famous Baritone

The first concert of the year to be sponsored by Phi Beta, women's national music and speech fraternity will present Joseph James, famous Negro baritone. It will be held Tuesday evening, October 16th, in the music auditorium.

The concert will be for the benefit of Phi Beta scholarship fund which is presented each year to an outstanding woman music student. The University chapter has been active since its establishment on the campus in 1929 and has helped many girls in their education. Not only does the chapter give scholarships to talented girls; it also established the Phi Beta music library for the music school in 1942.

By taking charge of season-ticket sales for the University Artists series, the honorary earned $500 to donate for the founding of this library under the supervision of Dean Kratt and Dr. Elston. The alumnae and patroness group contribute annually to the library fund and rare music manuscripts are purchased by Dr. Elston. Each year a program of selected music from the Phi Beta library is presented under the direction of Dr. Elston.

Concert Program

The first group of the program will be from Elizabethan love songs: "Sweet Nymph, Come to Thy Lover," by Thomas Morley; "Sorrow, Sorrow Stay," "Weep You No More, Sad Fountains," and "Come Again," all by John Dowland. The second group contains pieces by Franz Schubert: "Andenken" (I Think of Thee); "Wohin" (Whither); "Wehmuth" (Melancholia) and "Dem Undendlichen" (To the Infinite God).

Negro spirituals programmed include: "My God Is So High," and "Jesus, Lay Yo' Head in de Winda," both by Hall Johnson; "Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child," by H. T. Burleigh; and "Oh! What a Beautiful City" by Edward Boatner.

In the fourth group will be songs by Modest P. Moussorgsky including three from "Where No Sun Shines": "In My Attic," "Resignation," and "By the Water"; and "Ah! Not With God's Thunder."

In the last section will be heard "Loveliest of Trees," John Duke; "Adam Lay Y-Bounden," Joan Lloyd; "Dark Hills," and "Miniver Cheevy," both by Wintter Watts.

Accompanist for Mr. James will be Alberta Mayo, who is Mrs. James in private life.

Joseph James has been singing since he was twelve years old. He has rated excellent recommendations from the music faculty at Stanford, Mills college, and University of California and also from John H. Stehn, acting dean of the school of music at the University of Oregon.

Tickets for the event can be obtained from any member of the active chapter of Phi Beta. Prices are 60c for balcony student tickets and $1.20 for main floor tickets.

WHAT'S IN A SCORE?

U WILL BE THE WINNER
EVEN IF YOU LOSE!

Bowl for Fun -:- Bowl for Health
Meet Your Friends at the

U-BOWL

29 W 11th

Phone 4716

The Copper Kettle

FOR ORIGINALITY

in

ANTIQUES

1425 E 20th

Phone 2368-J

Come in and try our
OYSTERS ON THE HALF SHELL

George's Grotto

764 WILLAMETTE