Beavers Meet U of W Today

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Oct. 18.—A rejuvenated Oregon State football team, fresh from a stunning 19 to 6 upset victory over Oregon here last Saturday, will travel to Portland Saturday to play the first of a two-game series with the University of Washington. The game is scheduled for 2 p.m. on Multnomah field and will mark Oregon State's only Portland appearance this season.

Stephens Fly Victim

Bob Stevens, Ione Beaver letterman who led his club to victory over Oregon and outplayed Jake Leicht, the Ducks' star back, may not be able to see action against the Huskies. He is in the college infirmary with the flu and may not be recovered sufficiently to play Saturday. His loss would be a severe blow to Orange chances for a win over the strong Washington eleven. Stevens scored two of the Beavers' three touchdowns against the Webfoots and ran up 81 yards of scrimmage.

Another loss of the Beavers over last weekend was Bob Albert, promising freshman fullback from Seaside, who received his call to the service. He had showed considerable promise and was slated to see a great deal of action the remainder of the season.

Hollingberg May Play

With the exception of the usual bruises and minor injuries, the Orangemen came through the tough Webfoot battle in good shape and, if Stevens recovers from the flu quickly, should be at full strength Saturday. Buster Hollingbery, who sprained his foot severely in the opening game against Camp Beale, is working out with the squad this week and should add strength to the center position against Washington.

Rivalry between the Beavers and Huskies extends back to 1897 when Oregon State won the opening game of the series by a 16-0 count. Of 30 games played, Washington has won 17, Oregon State, 10, and three contests ended in ties. In eight meetings between the two schools in the 10 years before the war each club won four. The last game between the rivals in 1942 at Seattle ended in a 13 to 0 victory for Washington.

Aquatic Drill Starts Soon

Prospective aquatic stars will meet for the first conditioning workout Monday at 5 p.m. in the University men's pool for an hour, Coach John Warren announced today.

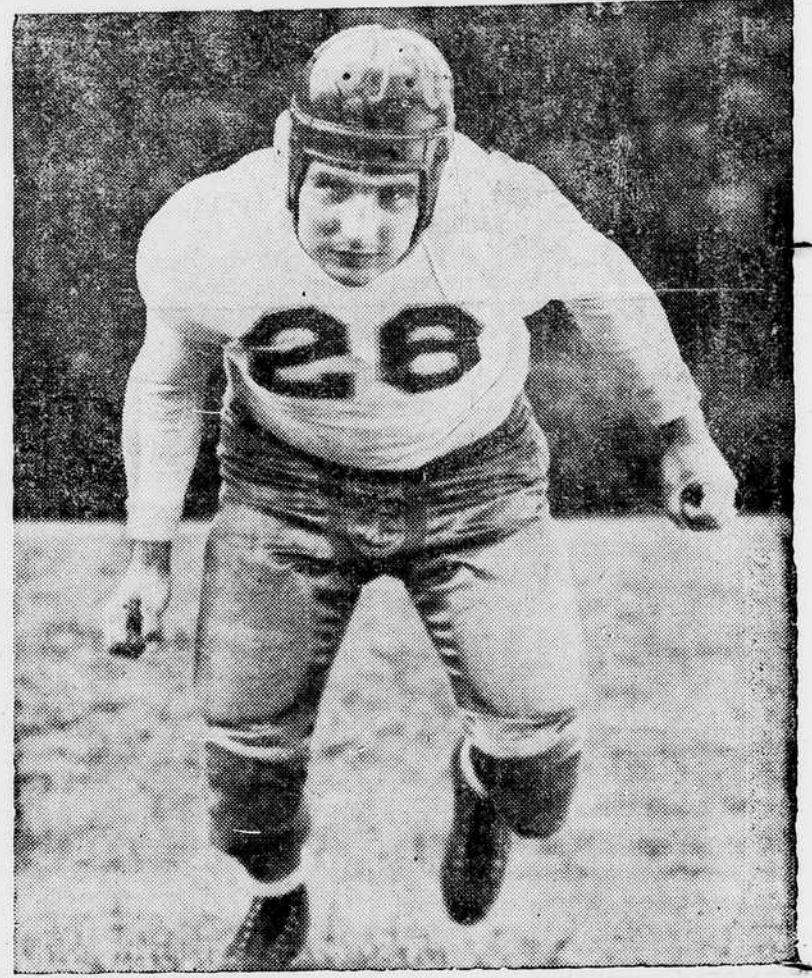

There is an acute shortage of material and all swimmers are urged to turn out. Only 18 men showed up at the first meeting Thursday night and all events remain in the wide-open status. Monday afternoon's practice session will stress endurance tests.

Testing Bureau

(Please turn to page twenty-one)
 eau are Dr. Tyler, Dr. Robert Leeper, associate professor of psychology and Dr. Daniel Adler, and Dr. Herbert McMurtry, assistant professors of psychology.

Hours at testing bureau are as follows: 9 to 12 a.m. and 1 to 5 p.m. week days and 9 to 12 a.m. Saturdays.

Students may apply at office of bureau or phone extension 372. Offices 106 and 107 physical education building for students and veterans alike.

GLEN CUSIC, hard-charging guard on the University of Oregon forward wall. Cusic has been showing up well lately and should see plenty of service this afternoon at Hayward Field.

THE

Dope Bucket

By TOM RILEY

There's no fooling around this week on predictions, it's gotta be this or that.

The Oregon eleven is ready for anything after last week's game. Rain, shine, mud, or Washington State, Oregon by 6.

OSC feels confident this Saturday, but it's not in the books for the Orangemen to play last week's brand of ball against the powerful Huskies. Washington by 13.

Trojan Horse Favored

Prognostications should pick up a couple points on the USC vs. COP game. USC by seven touchdowns.

The west's really big game this week is UCLA vs. St. Mary's Pre Flight, Friday night, October 19.

UCLA has a fast but light squad and is favored over PreFlight. But the PreFlight has, acquired Frankie (All-American) Alberts, which may complicate matters for UCLA. PreFlight has certain restrictions that govern the use of professional players. It's tough all the way. Rossi against Alberts. PreFlight by 7.

Rambling Wreck

If Notre Dame can do it, so can Navy? Navy better by 21 points than Georgia Tech.

After last week's victory, Ohio State will celebrate with Boiler-makers from Purdue. Ohio State by 13.

Notre Dame has a great team this year. Pittsburgh has a team. Poor Pitt!

We have had Wake Forrest on the short end so many times, we'll give them the nod over North Carolina State this week.

Alabama vs. Tennessee on Alabama's home ground. This should decide the south's number one team. Alabama has the edge here.

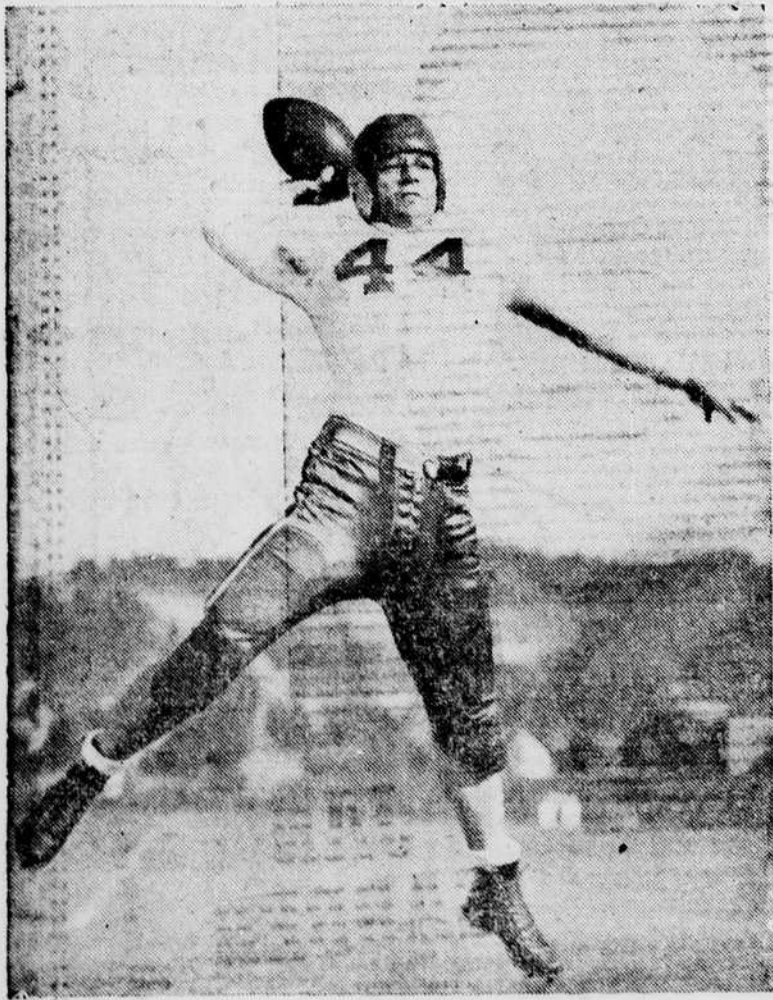

These are the games I like: Army over Melville TBC; San Diego Navy over Compton J. C.; Minnesota over Northwestern. You can quote me on these.

Ducks Battle

Varsity vets on the Cougar team include Gene Argar, who will charge into opposing Ducks from the right guard or right-tackle slot. Darrel Borg, veteran end of 1942, is also ready to resume peace-time life with a not too peaceful specialty in his second game.

A crowd of 8,000 is expected for the 22nd renewal in 45 years of the tested rivalry. Cougars hold a 10-7 advantage in games won and lost during the series. Sorboetored footballers also hold the weight advantage. The WSC team averages 200 pounds compared to the Oregon 196 total. Washington's Bob Bulleri is heavyweight of the day, boosting scales to 260. Harry Reiton, of the Ducks, tips scales at 242.

JAKE LEICHT will be at the left halfback position for the Oregon Webfoots Saturday afternoon on Hayward field where the Oregons meet highly-favored Washington State college in a Pacific coast conference football game. The 168-pound triple-threat is an All-American candidate and Oregon's chief scoring threat.
