A near-sighted person sees distinctly for a short distance only or only those things which are close at hand, but a far-sighted person can see things at a distance although he has difficult seeing things close at hand. The medical term for near-sightedness is myopic while hypermetropic means far-sighted.

THE Dope Bucket

By TOM RILEY

Two upsets last Saturday marred the nation's football standings and also figured in bringing the percentage of the "Dope Bucket" to a .900 average on guesses, by Tom.

Webfoots by Hair to Bruins

Although Oregon was dogged at Los Angeles, the Uclans had their hands full in staging a 12-0 victory over the Oregon eleven. Oregon, "the every other week team," can put a thorn in the Rose Bowl if they upset the highly rated Huskies next week at Portland.

The Huskies know what importance a victory over Oregon means, but they should be a little more optimistic after UCLA tried and tried and tried again and again to score in the first half. The second half was so foggy we're not sure just what happened, but the rumor says UCLA scored twice.

Trojans Never Rolled

USC arrived in Seattle cold, and never warmed up. Even after the final score Saturday 13-7 in favor of the Huskies, the Trojans didn't seem too unhappy knowing they were going back "south," and not traveling north again this year. USC, when last seen was singing "California, here I come."

Washington State dropped Idaho 21-0, then boarded the train for home saying, "heck, we don't play them again till next season."

The California 19-6 victory over Nevada, had the referees busy at half time with pick and shovels digging up players that were buried in the first half. Reports say the field will be ready again Saturday, providing the blood stained field is well watered.

The coast conference standing is now, let's see, who is in the lead? Oh, yes, the coast conference is now in a mess!

Back east, Purdue was upset by Northwestern 20-6, otherwise it was the same old thing. Army, Navy, Notre Dame won again.

Way Down South

Alabama, the University of Alabama's choice for the Rose Bowl, were up to their old tricks again and beat Georgia 28-14, then said, "see you next year at Georgia," unquote.

I have a sure thing on the Oregon-Washington tilt next week given me by a student of this school, so don't fail to read it.

I could say Fleet City beat Fort Warren 20-9, and that the 4th Air Force tied the 1st Air Force 6-6. Incidentally, Leicht played for the 2nd Air Force before entering Oregon.

Spanish Group Plans 'Fiesta'

Officers to head the "Club Espanol" will be elected by members of the new campus Spanish organization at the club's second "fiesta," slated Thursday in Gerlinger hall. As announced by Betty Brown, nominating committee chairman, three names will be suggested for each of the four club offices, and nominations may be made from the floor. Students chosen to head the group will probably serve until winter term, when election of officers for the second quarter will be called.

Entertainment planned for the Thursday meeting by Joann Swinehart, program chairman, will include a demonstration of the "Jarabe Tapatio", Mexican "hat dance" to be given by Cassie Delia and Donna Faye Hyde, who learned the dance in Mexico. Several Spanish poems and songs will be presented by Georgiana Thompson, Jean Wyckoff, Dorothy Davies and Mary Kaatherine Wilhelm. Refreshments for the meeting are in charge of Ruth Clark.

Posters announcing future club meetings will be placed in the Co-op and in Friendly hall, Miss Swinehart said. Committee members in charge of providing these announcements are Pat Ebert and Shirley Sisley.

Membership in the "Club Espanol" will be open all year to students taking Spanish courses or interested in activities in Spanish. Club members as yet plan no business meetings, but will hold "fiestas" in Gerlinger hall every two weeks.
