

Sports

By Bill Walkenshaw

The jinx is certainly holding true so far. A traveling team in the Pacific Coast conference has about as much chance as a snowball in you know where.

Every game played this season on the coast by conference teams has been won by the stay-at-homes. The kids on the road just don't seem to have a chance. Underrated elevens have walked all over heavy favorites on their home grounds so many times the football forecasters (including Riley) are pulling hair.

Wooden Horse Falls

University of Southern California Rose Bowl champs for the past two years and conference leaders this year, were headed for the bowl again this season and it looked like no team in the west could stop them. What happened?

Highly favored USC traveled north and an underdog Washington eleven rose to the heights and dropped the Trojans 13-7. All anyone can do or hope this year is that their favorite team has plenty of home games left on the old schedule.

Gaels Run Wild

It's a good thing for the Pacific Coast conference schools that the Galloping Gaels of St. Mary's who have been howling over football opposition with ease and regularity, are not in the conference, because Jimmy Phelan's lads would probably be in the number one spot right now instead of Washington.

The Gaels have shown that they can take care of themselves against all kinds of opposition. So far this season Phelan's boys have beaten California, 20-13; Stockton Marines, 26-0; Nevada, 39-0; College of Pacific, 61-0; and McClelland Field, 58-0, and have only two strong foes, USC and UCLA standing between them and an undefeated season.

The surprising part of it is that the St. Mary's outfit is composed of 17 and 18 year olds built around two of the greatest backs on the Coast, Herman Wedemeyer and Spike Cordiero, and coached by the supposedly has been Jimmy Phelan.

Webfoots Topic of Conversation

Coach Tex Oliver's "T-wist" formation and his University of Oregon football squad are the talk of southern California since last Friday night's performance at the Coliseum in Los Angeles. Although the Webfoots went down 12-0 under the power of UCLA reserves in the second half they are now rated as the flashiest team on the coast. At half time in Los Angeles, the fans stood up and gave Oregon a loud ovation even though their own team, UCLA, has been literally run off the field. The score at half time was 0-0 which was mighty lucky for the Bruins because every time the Ducks have been leading at half time they have won their game. Oregon had four chances to score but couldn't cash in.

Dick Strite of the Register-Guard certainly made the error when at half time he announced Oregon was a second half team and would come back in the second half. Mr. Strite must have been still thinking of basketball season when he made that statement because it has been apparent in every game Oregon didn't have too many good reserves and was a weak second half club.

Leicht On the Hunt

We wonder if star halfback Jake Leicht has found a place to live yet. From last reports Jake was getting rather touchy on the subject and had the entire coaching staff from Mac court house hunting. The situation is not a bit funny for Jake as he has to find a place for his family to live. Anyone knowing of an apartment or house, please contact Jake Leicht any afternoon on Hayward field.

Greeks Splatter Emorys Seven

Win Boosts Intra-Footballers For Campus Championship Fight

The Greeks yesterday defeated Emorys 8-2, in one of the most exciting and thrill-packed football games witnessed on Hayward field in many a day of oblong pigskins in intramural competition. Greek gridders took an early lead in the first quarter when an Emory man was caught scrambling around behind his own goal to give the Greeks two points chalked up on the board.

Piffinbarger Ace of Day

Jack Puffinbarger, ace backfield man of the Greeks, added 6 more points on a typical Jake Leicht end sweep play. Puffinbarger skirted his right end and raced 25 yards to score the lone touchdown of the game. The half ended with the Greeks holding an 8-point lead.

Emorys Lone Tally

The Emorys picked up two points in the second half, when Bill Williams of the Greeks intercepted a pas behind his own goal and was dropped when he caught the ball.

The Greeks kept the Emorys in their own territory most of the game with beautiful kicks by Bill Williams, who, in spite of the rain, had the ball traveling 45-50 yards a kick.

Seufert Line Star

Tom Seufert, right guard for the Emorys, was the outstanding lineman of the game. His body-bruising blocks and fast charging had the Greeks forward wall busy during the game trying to keep Tiger Seufert from upsetting their offensive plays.

Win Puts In Rivals

This win entitles the Greeks to play the winner of the Sherry Ross-Campbell Co-op game for the intramural championships.

The Greeks are the only unbeaten, untied team in both leagues.

Pole Swoons To Crooners

Huddled beneath the windows of the Chi O house, very early Monday morning, the assembled group of male serenaders suddenly rent the air with the angelic strains of "Swing Low Sweet Chariot" when even more suddenly a far more earthly sound drowned their tones for a resounding moment.

Something had crashed! Was it a swooning Chi O miss falling from her third story sleeping porch? Or had it been one of the crooners just back from an engagement with one of his ancestors (Old Grandad)?

No, it was neither. The pole bearing the tennis court lights between the Chi Omega and Zeta Tau Alpha houses had merely crashed earthward, ripping the net, and crushing the pole lights as it fell.

It may not be much of a story, but the ZTA's and Chi O's are still waiting for the singers whose vocal vibrations must have caused the disaster, to clear away the debris and repair the light, so they can once again carry on with their tennis and volleyball.

Card Tricks Slated

Card tricks will be displayed at Saturday's game in Portland, and coeds interested in participating may sign up with Dorothy Davis, at the Pi Beta Phi house.

Lois McConkey, rally squad spokesman, said that the seats reserved for the card section are the best, and girls taking part in the display will be asked to wear suits and white blouses.

The national physician-to-population ratio which is considered the minimum to protect civilian health is probably about 1 to 1,000, says the department of agriculture.

Nation Grid Weekend

FOOTBALL SCORES

California—
13—St. Mary's	20
2—So. Cal	13
27—Washington	14
0—UCLA	13
19—Nevada	6
Next: Washington State

Colorado College—
12—Denver	0
0—Colorado U	13
6—New Mexico	4
0—Colo. U	31
Next: Greeley State

Colorado U—
0—Fort Warren	6
13—Colorado College	0
18—Utah	13
21—Colo. A&M	6
31—Colo. College	0
Next: New Mexico

Denver—
0—Colorado College	12
19—Kansas	20
7—Oklahoma A&M	31
19—Drake	19
41—Utah State	6
Next: Utah

Fourth AAF—
17—Second AAF	14
21—Trans. Comd.	14
7—AAF Tr. C.	19
1st Air Force
Next POC-AAF

Idaho—
12—Wash. St.	43
7—Oregon	33
7—Farragut N.	18
46—Montana	0
0—Wash. State	21
Next: Oregon State

Oregon—
6—Washington	20
33—Idaho	7
6—Oregon State	19
26—WSC	13
0—UCLA	12
Next: Washington

Oregon State—
14—Camp Beale	14
0—WSC	33
19—Oregon	6
0—Washington	13
Next: Idaho

Pacific—
7—Santa Barbara	0
0—Fresno St.	13
0—St. Mary's PF	69
0—UCLA	50
0—St. Mary's	61
0—So. Cal	52

Southern California—
13—UCLA	6
13—California	2
26—St. Mary's PF	14
6—San Diego	33
52—COP	0
7—Washington	13
Next: St. Mary's.

St. Mary's—
20—California	13
26—Stockton Comd.	0
39—Nevada	0
60—Col. of Pacific	0
58—McClelland F.	0
Next: Southern California.

St. Mary's PF—
69—Pacific	0
14—So. Cal.	26
7—4th AAF	20
13—UCLA	6
Next: Fleet City.

UCLA—
6—S. California	13
20—S. Diego NTS	14
50—Pacific	0
13—California	0
6—St. Mary's PF	13
Next: St. Mary's

Utah—
14—Nevada	33
13—Colo. U.	18
7—Denver	21
6—Okla. A&M	46

OSC Shifts Ace Scorers

Coach Lon Stiner, Oregon State mentor, is working a well shaped squad into top-notch condition for the coming scrap with the University of Idaho this Saturday on the Orangemen's home field.

Injuries on the Beaver lineup are few and far between after trampling they received from Washington State last weekend. Red Jones has been shifted to quarter from right half to help fill the gap left by the departure of Bob Hamblin, triggerman quarterback recently called into navy service.

Two different types of backfield combinations were set on the training turf table for use against the Vandals. Weight and driving power is stressed in the first quarter. The 191-pound averaging backs include John Karamonos, quarterback; Bob Stevens, left half; Bob Reiman, right half; and Garth Rouse, fullback.

The second ball carrying crew consists of scat-backs Murl Anderson, quarterback; Dick Gray, left half; Don Ham, right half; and Vic Hartmann, fullback. Neil Richardson is alternating with Gray at left half and Jack Heaton, navy R.O.T.C. student is alternating with Anderson at quarter.

28—Colo. A&M	0
Next: Denver.

Utah State—
45—Idaho Marines	0
B. Y. U.
44—Montana	13
13—Colo. A&M	6
6—Denver	41
Next: Idaho Marines

Washington—
20—Oregon	6
14—California	27
6—WSC	0
13—Oregon State	0
13—So. Cal.	7
Next: Oregon U.

Washington State—
43—Idaho	12
33—Oregon State	0
0—Washington	6
13—Oregon	26
21—Idaho	0
Next California

Nonda Pirtle Wins USC Scholarship

Miss Nonda Pirtle, former student at the University of Oregon and member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority, left Monday for the University of Southern California, where she will study for a full year under a scholarship awarded her by the American Red Cross.

These scholarships are given to students interested in getting a master's degree in social work. Miss Pirtle, who has earned her B.S. degree, will go to Washington D.C. after her year of studies in California, to receive special training. She then will go into a hospital to work as a trained social worker.

WHISKERINO

The romance of Joe College, carefully reared,
Is doomed for the rocks, 'tis said,
Cause everyone knows that a full grown beard
Is rough on Betty Coed.
—D. F. S.