Cadets Retain Top Grid Spot

First in war and first in peace, that's Army. For two years, the Cadets have taken over the number one spot in the nation, gained by their excellent performance on the football field, and it looks likely they'll still be there, when the '46 season of football begins. Navy has taken the two spot, this should make the Army-Navy game one of the greatest in the history of the annual affair. Alabama, the team that has come up the hard way, is now in third place, pushing Indiana into fourth. Notre Dame, the team most spot. One below is Ohio State, five position, running close competition with Oklahoma A & M, who had a good year and likes the six spot. One below in Ohio State, fighting for seventh. Michigan is eighth and St. Mary's, ninth, while just plain old Texas is tenth. St. Mary's is the only coast outfit to rank with the big teams back east, although UCLA is only one in back of Penn, for leadership in the second ten.

Southern California and University of Washington are both given honorable mention by the AP weekly poll.
