

Fraternities Schedule Winter Rush Period

'Affairs' Committee Authorizes Organization; Five Houses Lay Plans for Early Opening

Fraternities will return to the campus next term. The Student Affairs committee Thursday afternoon approved petitions from representatives of 15 fraternities to reopen and to restore the interfraternity council with the beginning of winter term. Rushing will begin January 4.

Five fraternities, Phi Delta Theta, Chi Psi, Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Theta Pi and Sigma Phi Epsilon, have petitioned the housing committee for permission to open their houses. As each fraternity is allowed a maximum of ten pledges, non-members will be boarded in the houses.

The interfraternity council voted early in the war to disband for the duration. Later the Student Affairs committee decided that the council should be reestablished when four men from each of 12 fraternities were enrolled in the University.

Meeting with Virgil D. Earl, dean of men, on Monday, representatives found reopening possible, and prepared petitions for the student affairs committee.

The only two houses ineligible to open are Pi Kappa Alpha and Phi Kappa Psi.

Fraternities which will begin pledging, and their petitioners are: Phi Delta Theta, Daniel C. Mahoney; Chi Psi, Allen L. Putnam; Alpha Tau Omega, James Lund; Beta Theta Pi, John E. Munro; Sigma Phi Epsilon, Ted Bush; Sigma Nu, Elliott L. Wilson.

(Please turn to page seven)

DR. P. W. SOUERS

'Idols of Swift' Lecture Topic For Thursday

Dr. Philip W. Souers To Discuss Author Of 'Gulliver's Travels'

Commemorating the two-hundredth anniversary of the death of Jonathan Swift, Dr. Philip W. Souers, head of the English department, will speak on "Wisdom is a Nut; or the Idols of Jonathan Swift" Thursday evening at 7:30 in room 12, Friendly hall. This speech is one in the University lecture series.

A great English literary figure and author of "Gulliver's Travels," "Battle of the Books," and "Modest Proposal," Swift as a philosopher will be the theme of the address.

Dr. Souers, who attended the University of Iowa and received his doctor of philosophy degree from Harvard, formerly taught at Newcomb college, Tulane university in New Orleans. While there he was professor of English and chairman of the department.

M. M. ELLSWORTH

'Time of Your Life' Catches Rave Notices From Critic, Applause From Audience

December 6 Disclosed As Final Performance

By SHIRLEY ANDERSON

Did you have difficulty finding where to focus your full attention when you first visited a three-ring circus? Did your eyes travel from one thing to the next, finding all sorts of amusement in each separate happening? In such a search, some people have the time of their lives . . . and some don't.

Before a "some-do-and-some-don't" audience, Saroyan's "The Time of Your Life" opened Saturday evening at the Guild theater. Under the direction of Horace W. Robinson, this second production of the University theater guild's dramatic season left the audience openly admiring at the students' extravaganza in correct character portrayal.

The play will be presented for the last time Thursday, December 6.

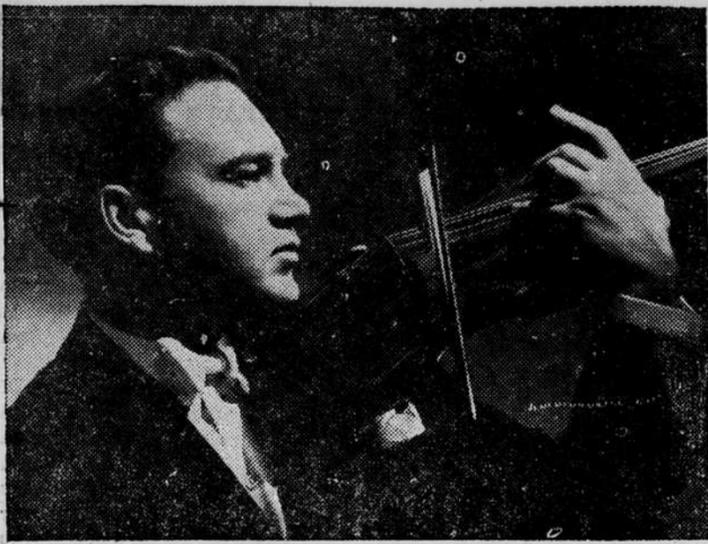

It is useless to tell the story of the fantastic, delightful panorama of people for it has little or no plot. Rather, the three-act comedy is a myriad of honky-tonk studies of humanity.

Such plot as the play possesses (Please turn to page seven)

BEHIND THE BACKDROP . . .

Horace Robinson, director, discusses details of the University theater production of Saroyan's "The Time of Your Life" with members of the cast, from left, Estelle Shimshak, Floyd Stapp and Marilyn Wherry. Last performance is scheduled Thursday, December 6.

Ricardo Odnoposoff, South American violinist, who will appear at McArthur court Friday evening at 8:15 on the Eugene Civic Music association series.

South American Violinist To Appear Here Friday

Ricardo Odnoposoff to Eugene Audience Last Fall Term Concert to Introduce

Ricardo Odnoposoff, South American violinist and first prize winner of the "Concours International Eugene Ysaye" in Brussels, will make his initial appearance in Eugene when he comes to McArthur court December 7, under the auspices of the Eugene Civic Music association. The program is scheduled to begin at 8:15.

Odnoposoff made his American debut in New York two seasons ago; after a strenuous six-months tour of South and Central America, and was acclaimed by the New York Times as follows: "One might have expected signs of weariness after such an ordeal; on the contrary, such freshness and sheer vigor of tone have not been heard on the violin in this vicinity for a long time. Mr. Odnoposoff possesses an astonishing mastery of his instrument. He is ready for any technical hazard the music may present; one can count on his intonation's coming out impeccable, and one can be sure his tone quality will be pure and rich."

A native of Buenos Aires, the 26-year old violinist began his musical career at the age of four, when his father bought him a miniature violin at a bazaar. Studying under the European Carl Flesch, Odnoposoff won an international competition in Vienna in 1932, and five years later was awarded the Eugene Ysaye prize.

Odnoposoff has played on concert tours and at guest performances with symphony orchestras conducted by Arturo Toscanini, Bruno Walter, Erich Kleiber, and Felix Weingartner.

Impresario S. Hurok is managing his present tour of this country.

Friday night's program will include: La Folia, by Corelli-Kreiser; Vhaconne (for violin alone) by Johann Sebastian Bach; Concerto in A minor, Op. 82, by Alexander Glazounov; First Polonaise Brillante, by Henri Wieniawski; Song of the Black Swan, by Heitor Villa-Lobos; Peter and the Wolf, by Prokofieff-Grunes; Saeta and Granadina, by Nin-Kochanski, and Caprice Twenty-four, by Paganini-Auer. Gregory Ashmann will accompany Odnoposoff at the piano.

Students will be admitted with ASUO cards.

Scrooge to be Offered In Christmas Concert

In keeping with the Christmas spirit, a browsing room concert of recorded music will be held on Sunday afternoon, December 9, at 4 p.m. It will include Dickens "Christmas Carol" with Ronald Colman as Scrooge, and Christmas music.

Senior Formal Tickets to Sell On January 2

Patrons, Patronesses For Dance Appointed

Tickets for "The Music Box Ball," formal dance given by the seniors, will be on sale the day of winter term registration, January 2, 1946, at McArthur Court, Mary Margaret Ellsworth, general chairman of the dance announced Tuesday.

The price will be announced at a later date.

Patrons and patronesses for the dance were announced by the Bernice Granquist, chairman of the patrons committee.

Patrons

The list will include: President and Mrs. Harry K. Newburn, Chancellor and Mrs. Frederic M. Hunter, Dean of Personnel and Mrs. K. W. Onthank, Dean of Men and Mrs. George Hall, Mr. and Mrs. J. Alan Wickham, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Brown Barker, Captain and Mrs. William Glang.

Dean and Mrs. Orlando J. Hollis, Dean and Mrs. Victor P. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lomax, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Riddlesbarger, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Baker, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bailey.

The orchestra will be announced later and Ted Loud, chairman of the orchestra committee, promises it will be a good one.

Corsages will be in order for the dance which promises to be the biggest and best senior ball since before the war.

Committee chairmen are: Mary Margaret Ellsworth, senior in journalism, general chairman; Martha Harrold, senior in art, decorations; Bernice Granquist, senior in English, patrons; Ted Loud, senior in journalism, orchestra; Bob Smith, senior in business, entertainment; Shirley Walker, senior in art, programs; Ed Allen, senior in liberal arts, and Jim Lund, senior in business, lighting; Fred Samain, senior in liberal arts, and Ted Kent, senior in business, clean-up; and Annamae Winship, senior in journalism, publicity.

Free Movies Cancelled

Educational activity board films which have been shown in Chapman hall during the term, will not be presented for the remainder of the year.

It has not definitely been decided when the movies will commence again, but it will be the first part of winter term.