

Bridge Experts Plan Tournament

This weekend will feature a sport known commonly to the patrons of the College Side Inn. Saturday morning at 9:30 the better card players will engage wits at the favorite campus pastime, bridge.

Headed by Evans Cantrell and George Carey, the teams will play continually throughout the entire day and by a process of elimination the winning team will be determined. The entrance fee is set at 50 cents per person and the two top teams will be awarded prizes.

The College Side will be reserved from 8 o'clock Saturday morning until 9 p.m. the same night. All those interested in entering may obtain tickets up until 9:30 Saturday morning by contacting either Evans Cantrell or George Carey.

Choir Service Set For Sunday

The University vesper choir, under the direction of Johnette King, junior in music, will present its first service of winter term Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m., when it will sing in the music auditorium.

The choir, which consists of 40 women's voices, is an all-campus organization, and membership in the group is entirely voluntary.

Voice selections are made through auditions.

Lois Roeder, junior in business administration, will make her first appearance with the choir as organist. She will play an organ solo "Andante" by Shelley and an organ prelude and postlude.

The University Vesper choir is sponsored by the Student Religious council and is advised by Donald W. Allton, assistant professor of music.

New voices appearing with the choir this term include: Grace Krants, Hazel Northrup, Betty Jean Holemann, Lane Roff, Lois Raymond, Margaret Holm, Anna Jeanne Winters, Patty Bayer, Roberta Zeiger, and Joanne Twedt.

Mu Phi Epsilon, women's music honorary, will usher.

Oregon Skiers Hoodoo Bound

Saturday will see the University Ski Club heading east again in hopes of spending another joyous weekend at popular Hoodoo bowl.

The bus will leave at 7 a.m. in front of the College Side Inn and return at approximately 9 p.m. Sunday evening. Jack Hessel expects a large turnout again this trip and it seems the weatherman maintains a favorable attitude toward Oregon skiers because the abundant fall of soft powdery snow during the week will guarantee perfect skiing down the long thrill-packed trails.

Many Beginners

Although many of the members of the University Ski Club are yet in the elementary stages of the popular winter sport, all seem ready to sacrifice a few spills for the excitement obtained as they snow-plow and stem-turn their way down the steep mountainous terrain.

Both lifts are in splendid working condition to offer a comfortable relaxing ride back up the mountain after the grueling downhill descent on the well-waxed hickories.

A few tickets are still to be sold and those interested please contact Jack Hessel today.
