

Infirmary Patients Denied Visitors

Throwing a wet blanket on would-be visitors to infirmary patients, Dr. Fred Miller announced yesterday that all visiting will be stopped as of January 29, until further notice, due to the increase in flu and other respiratory diseases. The previous hours from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 8 p.m. will be cancelled and students are asked to keep this rule. The enrollment in the pill palace has been over 15 since the term started, and until the number drops, the rule will be in effect.

Those who were still able to receive visitors last night were Anne Welles, Joane Johnson, Mary Douglas, Joan Monsteiner, Mary Stuve, Evelyn Jones, Patricia Jolliff, Carolyn Smith, Elaine Coleman, Ruth Schneider, Donald Buchart, Ed Marshall, Donald Breeden, Thomas "the egotistical writer" Knapp, Dick "ah loves the infirmary" Savinar, and Joe "they call me Pop" Sweeney, Jim "watch that stuff" Cassell.

Gerlinger Girls Feted At Susan Campbell Party

The members of Susan Campbell hall entertained the girls living in Gerlinger yesterday afternoon with a tea party. The tea is a weekly event at Susan Campbell, and hall residents may invite whomever they choose.

In charge of pouring were Miss Fannie McCamant, house mother of Susan Campbell and Mrs. Madeleine Brunell, housemother of Gerlinger.

Twenty-eight girls served as hostesses and welcomed the Gerlinger coeds as they arrived. Piano music was furnished by Nadine Hutchison.

GREEK CANDIDATES

(Continued from page one) and pans in the early morning. "We have a wonderful cook," said Jim, "but, boy, does she use lots of pots and pans!" Also, he says, "It takes a lot of time to build up a '31 car."

Jim graduated from Grant high school in January, 1945, where he was a member of the Grant Dramateurs, on the War Bond Committee, Senior prom dance chairman and on the track team. You may remember Jim in younger years as the "Masked Marvel" of the soap box derbies. Jim admits that his mysterious mask was one of his mother's old stockings.

A sincerely friendly smile seems to be one of the things the Greek candidates have in common, for it is one of the first things to be noticed in talking to slender, brown-haired Joan Williams, candidate for vice-president of the freshman class. She is busy with many of usual freshman activities; dance committees, doughnut sales, poster painting, and Old Oregon soliciting, to mention a few. She is co-chairman for the King of Hearts selection for the coming Heart Hop.

Portland is the home of this poised candidate and she is a graduate of Washington high school. She was very active in her senior year there, belonging to Masque, dramatics club, Cleves, activities honorary, and the National Honor Society. She acted the lead in the senior class play, "The Man Who Came to Dinner" and in spring term had the honor of being chosen Rose Festival Queen.

Delta Gamma

Joan chose the University of Oregon from first hand information, for she formerly lived in Eugene. She likes the Side and is becoming an enthusiastic bridge fan. She also enjoys sorority life, all but the work parties, and is pretty proud of her newly acquired Delta Gamma pin. Although Joan likes to cook, she says that her cooking is now limited to frequent pop corn feeds, for she has a pop corn popper in her room.

Joan's major is political science with a secondary interest in dramatics. She says that her major is subject to change, however. Right now a composition paper on "International Cartels" is taking up much of her study time. "The library is my home away from home," Joan commented. "The increase of men on the campus is wonderful," says Joan. She is also glad to see the fraternities returning and the whole campus back to a normal status.

Ducktation

(Continued from page two) ly . . . Theta Barbara "Hubba-hubba" Patterson has added Beta pledge Art Milne to an ever-growing list. . . Jack Meek, Kappa Sig pledge, has been giving Homecoming Queen Mary Lou Hill the big rush these past two weeks. . . Chi Psi Nick Reed, home on furlough this weekend, celebrated a three-month anniversary of being pinned to Kappa Cece Senson.

"Houseboys will please not converse with girls while on duty." This makes it tough on Delt Otis "Skip" Freeman when his bright star twinkles past the kitchen at the AOPi house. . . Add another name to the list of Marilyn Williams admirers. Chuck Politz did his best to see her when working down in Los Angeles last year, but no dice! . . . Many favorable comments were passed by the girls regarding the Sigma Phi Epsilon serenade Saturday night . . . Ex-Beta Johnny Miller, a man you can't forget, came onto the campus last weekend and spent his time with Bette Ronning, Alpha Chi O, to whom he was once pinned.

Theta Sue Grether braved the somewhat sticky advances of a young swain who tossed pies at her at the W. A. A. carnival Saturday night. Won a date with him for her courage. . . Late exclusive: Chi O Marge Skordahl made up her mind and announced her engagement to Jim Gerkin, Monday evening. Jim is coming to Oregon spring term.

The clock on the wall tells us it's time to pull these loose ends together and sign off without flourish or favor. Who knows—perhaps your name will be among those present in this section Friday morning.
