

Inter-Dorm Dance Dated for March 9

Decorated with park benches, shady arbors, and flowered trellises, John Straub dining room will be the scene of the inter-dorm formal March 9 with the theme of "Spring Fever."

Make It Big

"Since this is one of the last social events before finals, we urge everyone to come and help make this one of the outstanding dances of winter term," said co-chairmen Laura Olson and Lynn Renick.

Ted Hallock and his band with Sue Welch, vocalist, will provide music for the dances, which will be named after flowers.

Committee Heads Chosen

Roberta Brophy and June Goetze have been appointed co-publicity chairmen. Other committees are: programs, Liz Brinton, chaperones, Liz Wright; decorations, Beth Dinneen; refreshments, Myrl Sykes and Virginia Brunell; clean-up, Cliff James.

Formals and suits will be appropriate attire for the formal event, and corsages will be worn, according to the co-chairmen. Admission will be 25 cents per couple to dormitory residents or anyone accompanied by a dormitory resident.

Low Funds Slow Klamath Extension

The state board of higher education has declared that the use of the Klamath Falls Marine Corps barracks as an educational unit is feasible if sufficient funds can be obtained. However, Willard L. Marks, chairman of the board, reported that at the present time the boards funds were so limited that "funds needed over and above the fee income will have to be supplied outside of the boards present resources."

Governor Earl Snell, indicated that he will discuss the financial question with the state emergency board. The board has studied a report by the state and education officials who recently visited the area in question; and members of the board itself will go to visit the site next Saturday to get first hand information.

Though this center will be primarily for veterans, others, especially those living in the area, may be permitted to attend the institution if it is established there.

Girl From Overseas

Northwestern state college welcomed a former coed who returned to school after 11 months overseas with the All-Girl D'Artega orchestra.

Georgia tech—enrolled 1,848 students for the winter term of school—the largest since October, 1943.

Garbed in plaid shirts and levis, in a turkey-in-the-straw atmosphere, fraternity and sorority pledges congregated for a pledge-only barn dance at Southern Cal. Highlight of the evening was the sight of over 400 pledges vying to "bring home the bacon" in a greased pig on the loose contest.

Petition Deadline Set For Co-Chairmanship

Petitions for co-chairman for Junior Weekend must be submitted to Marge Cowlin, president of the junior class, at the Kappa house, by noon Saturday. Petitioners must belong to the junior class. One man and one woman will be selected for the co-chairmanship. Miss Cowlin has announced.

YM, YW Present Festival Saturday

Bjorg Hansen and Fred Goodspeed are the co-chairmen for the YWCA and YMCA International Festival, to be held Saturday, February 23. Observed throughout the world, the festival will include foreign students from eight different Oregon colleges and 20 foreign students from the University campus.

The Saturday afternoon tea, which will feature student entertainment, will be held from 3:30 to 5:00 o'clock. Billed for the afternoon's entertainment are Roxy Sears, "Warsaw Concerto" a piano solo; Janet Shafer, a violin solo; a Mexican Dance by Shirley Sisley, Pat Ebert, Bobby Wood, and Jerry Clark; and a French ballet by Oregon State students. Other numbers on the program will be given by Sylvia Killman, John Lichty, Jean Richty, Phyl Perkins, B. J. McKenzie, Alene Wendt, and Joyce Gordon. A Russian ballet will also be performed.

The tea is under the co-chairmanship of Marion Fong and Alice Robertson.

Committee Offers Fellowships to Vets

Predocoratorate fellowships in mathematical, physical and biological science are being offered to those who have had their work for a doctor's degree in these fields interrupted by the war. These fellowships are sponsored by the Committee on Predocoratorate Fellowships of the National Research foundation.

Stipend Offered

A basic annual stipend of $1,200 is offered to single men and of $1,800 to those who are married. Additional allowances for tuition and fees will be made when deemed necessary.

Appointments Made

Appointments are made for the time thought necessary for the applicant to obtain his doctorate in one of these fields. All appointments are subject to periodic reviews to check the appointees progress.

Information on this and other fellowships in the field of cancer research may be obtained from Dr. Paul L. Risley, room 207 Deady hall.

Friday Final Day For Contest Pics

Friday is the deadline for pictures to be taken of entrants in the "Miss Photogenic—Emerald Cover Girl" contest, Annamae Winship, Emerald business manager announced yesterday.

Miss Winship revealed recently that the annual Emerald Cover Girl contest will be combined with the search for "Miss Photogenic" sponsored by the Bell studio. To be entered in the contest, a girl must have a picture taken by the Bell studio by Friday. Each contestant will receive a 5 by 7 copy of her photograph.

Girl Awarded Prize

"The Emerald cover girl will not necessarily be chosen from the entrants in the Miss Photogenic contest, but all of them will be given special consideration," Miss Winship announced. The girl whose picture is selected to be printed on the cover of the March 9 issue of the Emerald will be awarded a $25 prize.

Judges for the contest will be Miss Winship and Jay Stott of the Bell studio. The name of the winner will not be revealed until the Spring issue comes out on March 9.

Chosen by Committee

Last year's Emerald Cover Girl was Betty Lou Melby of Mary

Spiller hall, who was chosen by a committee composed of L. L. Jermain, instructor in journalism, J. W. Teter, manager of the University photo bureau, and L. S. Bee, instructor in the sociology department.

In past years each house has submitted the name of its choice for Cover Girl and the final selection was made by the committee.
