First International Festival Begins Town-Gown Club AtYWCA-YMCA Meet Saturday Plans Sunday Tea

Group Discussions, Tea Form Program

The first International Festival to be held on the University campus will take place tomorrow when the YWCA and YMCA feature a conference with "Students of One World," as its theme. The primary purpose of this conference is to discuss what students may do to promote world peace. Foreign students from the University and other Oregon colleges will participate in the discussion, with a large delegation expected from Oregon State where a similar conference will be held next week.

Registration will begin at 10:30 a.m. at the YWCA and the morning session will open at 11 a.m. with a discussion group, at which University students will question Dr. Lewis Hanke about education in South America. Following the morning session will be the banquet at the Osburn hotel at which Gaston Vandermeersche, Belgian student and former member of the French underground will speak upon: "What Has Happened and Is Happening to Student Life and Education in Europe."

Group Topics

At the afternoon session from 2 to 3:15 p.m. three groups will Promote World Peace?" Group one of the YWCA will approach the

Phone 4407

Dr. Gaston Vandermeersche, Belgian student and former Brown, Alpha Gamma Delta; member of the French underground, who will be the featured guest and speaker of the YWCA-YMCA International Festival. scheduled on the campus Saturday. Dr. Vandermeersche will speak on "What Has Happened and is Happening to Student Life and Education in Europe," following the luncheon at the Osburn hotel.

1198 Willamette discuss the topic: "What Can I Do under the leadership of Mrs. Mar- general subject under this head-An Individual Student To garet E. Norton, regional director ing: "Through Christian Groups," group two, under student leadership: "Through Formal Educational Groups," and group three, under the leadership of Dean Karl Onthank: "Through Action and Support of Educational Agencies."

Gerlinger Tea

Following the afternoon session will be a tea in Gerlinger hall from 3:30 to 5 p.m. At this time students will appear wearing foreign costumes and displays of different countries may be seen. A special program by students will also be presented at this time.

For those wishing to attend the luncheon, Miss Lois Greenwood of the YWCA says that a few places may still be obtained by phoning the YWCA.

Co-Chairmen

Student co-chairmen for the festival are Bjorg Hansen and Fred Goodspeed. Co-chairmen for entertainment are Kay Schneider and Virginia Parr. Robbieburr Warrens and Annie Woodworth will supervise the luncheon. Dedo Misley and Collen Mariott are responsible for the displays.

Marion Fong and Alice Robertn will be in charge of the tes Virginia Tomkins is chairman for decorations, and Rex Gunn is chairman of the publicity committee. Dale Frederick is in charge of invitations, while Linn Hutchinson and Lois Greenwood of the YMCA and YWCA are advisers for the conference.

Opinions

The various committee members expressed the following opinions of the conference:

Fred Goodspeed: "I believe that the conference will be a big success and the basis for future conferences of this type throughout the world."

Linn Hutchinson, campus YMCA adviser: "It is fortunate that the regional office chose the University campus for the conference, and gave us this chance to meet foreign students of the area."

Lois Greenwood, campus YWCA adviser: "Most people believe that education and mutual understanding are the primary keys to world peace. Such a conference as this one, on the theme of "Students In One World," provides opportunities for an exchange of ideas between foreign and American students and is a step in promoting that understanding."

The Town and Gown club will meet this Sunday for tea at Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Jewell's home at 2260 University street, Shirley Pfaffle, coordinator for the group, has announced. The tea to which all YWCA members are invited, is planned between 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. Co-chairmen on the hostess committee for the affair are Carolyn Wright and Anne Woodworth. The organization, designed to help students become better acquainted with their professors and chairman. local townspeople, recently chose

Miss Bernice Rise, circulation librarian, as advisor. The majority of the women's houses have selected representatives to keep the contact between Town and Gown and the students and arrange for members of their groups to attend the various social functions. Those chosen thus far include Mavis Knorr, University house; Caroline Bailes, Susan Campbell hall; Clydens Bush, Gerlinger; Yuka Yasui, Alpha hall; Jean Jacobs, Gamma hall; Lois Heagle, Alpha Delta Pi; Betty Carolyn Wright, Alpha Omicron Pi; Carolyn Jenks, Chi Omega; Althadel Johns, Delta Gamma: Anne Woodworth, Kappa Alpha

Theta; Pat Nordgren, Sigma Kap-

"School for Husbands" Set for Cottage Grove

Plans are now underway for the "School for Husbands" cast and all its retinue (including the orchestra, setting and complete costume paraphernalia) to travel to Cottage Grove March 1 They will present the musical comedy in the high school auditorium, sponsored by the Lions club. Proceeds from the production will be given to the Cottage Grove school band.

pa; and Marge Johnson, Zeta Tau Alpha. General chairman for the sorority houses is Beryl Howard and Beverley Smith is independent

TUXEDO

Like New-Size 18 $35.00 Cash

MRS. DEUTSCHMANN Phone 4824-W 1918 Hilyard

GIVE YOUR CAR AN EARLY SPRING

CHECK-UP

AT THE

VARSITY SERVICE STATION 706 E. 13th St.

KEEP ABREAST OF THE TIMES GET THE LATEST RECORDS SELECT THEM IN OUR NEW BOOTHS

