research at the library and to keep things clicking satisfactorily, did a little sideline abetting of a helpful librarian Caroline Brockway by taking same to dinner or two and a show or two... Research, that is.

With fingers crossed in hope we don't arouse any old feuds with the Sig Eps (lovely boys) here goes a few items from the odds and ends, sticks and stones department... The Sig Ep house dance tonight promises to be an interesting affair and probably will make exciting history... Bill Barnum, Sig Ep flashy-sweater-wearing pledge, on his weekly rotation of sororities passed up the Chi O's to ask Tridelt Lucille Ballinger to the dance... A couple of coeds from the University of Washington are coming down for the dance as guest of Don Kay and Benny D. Benedetto, and Kay's pin which has been escorting one of the girls semi-secretly probably won't go back to Seattle after the weekend... seems Don has a new spot in mind for the Golden Heart... Doug Eden, another of the Sig Ep lads, has been Cokesing Chi O's

Elaine Taylor during the last week, and the fire and firetruck deal should prove interesting (certainly hope no one is overcome by the smoke and watch that cookie-duster, Doug).

It would be a good idea just to skip the next paragraph... Taking time out for a cigarette myself in hopes this three-minute job falls silently into file "13."

DISALLUSIONMENT

The sun is shining on the pine, Buds are bursting through the mold,

I thought I had spring fever;

Doc says it's a winter cold.

LOST AND FOUND

ROUNDAABOUT...

Colette Pouteau, who complains of never having her name spelled correctly in the Emerald (hope it is right this time) weekended in Portland to see a dear, dear friend just back from the service... Is it spelled right "Coke"?... Millie Anderson of Judson house has announced her engagement to Vernon Purdue... "Old Buddy" Paul Luvaas, despite owning a sharp Lincoln Zephyr, is giving the locals the go by for the gal-friend in Portland, and he'll be to the Rose city for the weekend again... last fling before buckling down to winter term studying... Steve Worth, ranter and raver in the heyday of TNE, is one the campus checking on the housing situation and if successful will return to school with wife Jean next term... Coincidence: Frosh Prexy Fred Goodspeed and Kathryn Dobson breaking out in a rash (poison oak) simultaneously... Marvin "Babe" Van Allen, ZTA hashlinger has house prexy Betty Lohmuller eating out of his hand, and it seems to work both ways too—doesn't seem to be any weakening of the big romance either... Jack Craig and Barbara Erb planning their future over a cupacawfee at the Side... Had a confidential talk with Chuck Shaw, and Pat Crosby flame, and despite Sigma Kappa Crosby's protests and threats, will hit the next column with a full account... While I'm on the SK house, might as well come out with a little very interesting information about same—next paragraph, please.

Seems Bernice Granquist, house president, had a most important announcement to make at the fire-side last night... In view of recent happenings at the SK's things weren't too bright and cheery until Bernice finally reached the climax of the little speech—"Miss Barbara Wells wishes me to announce her engagement to Rex Gunn..." And we're for it 100 per cent—you should get a gander at the rock on Babs' third finger left hand, too—and wedding band to match... they'll set the date later, but not too much, I suspect.

I always hate these endings—can't think of a decent way to say so-long for awhile, I guess, but just have to do it... See you in the "Spring Edition" next week when I'll be back with more mis- and information on people and things.

Telling the Editor

veteran should not get the idea that the government owes them this and that. True, it can never repay them in the smallest sense for what they have done, but they are trying to make it up in the best possible way they can.

We can sympathize with him in the fact that the fresh, clean high school graduates are creating an intolerable housing problem. When the veteran came to the University, it was to again become a civilian and to start as an equal with the other students no matter what his standing, not to create a division between vets and non-vets and therefore cause two different classes to become existant. The 17-year-olds have and always shall have an equal standing in the school, and a superior attitude should not be imposed upon them. We agree a veteran is selfish to believe that his standing gives him seniority over the non-vet. The idea that the 17-year-old is a gay cut-up with a lot of money to spend and with little intention of getting an education is a distorted view of the facts. A great majority of these young blades are working very hard to put themselves through school, and some con-

About Opportunity...

Dear Editor,

I have noticed with much consternation the unfavorable comment that is running rampant on the campus concerning the proposed establishment of a junior college at Klamath Falls. I most heartily disagree with these radical gentlemen!

Here perhaps is the educational opportunity of a lifetime. Picture if you will a rolling campus dotted with tall, stately firs and home grown vegetables. The time usually wasted at a university on athletics would of course be spent in slashing brush and clearing land, but in this the eager veteran will have the inner satisfaction of knowing that he is really getting something done! Winning the conference title fades into absurdity when confronted with the majesty of such a sterling endeavor! Can nature's outstretched arms be so spurned? For shame, ye soldiers of fortune!

In the rainy season, it should be simple, with as many important connections as the school undoubtedly will have, to arrange with the surplus property board for the dispensation of rubber life rafts to facilitate inter-barrack travel.

When it dries out, hip boots will do nicely.

There is no doubt that this academic baby would speedily attract the very best instructors, for what professor in his right mind would care to remain in a comfortable Eugene home when he could glory in the intellectual and physical wilderness of Klamath Falls?

Concerning the absence of the fair sex, can any of you honestly say they are helping you with your education—scholastic, we mean? They are diverting, expensive, and, as always, fickle. For the weak-willed people who could not completely divorce themselves from feminine companionship, copies of Esquire and Film Fun could be distributed.

I for one am ready to pack my knapsack and make the trek into the wilderness. The G.I. Bill has provided for us far in excess of our needs. We owe the "home fronters" more than we can ever repay. Is it not sheer ingratitude when we sneer at this magnificent proposal?

In conclusion I wish to reverently suggest that we name the place Snell (not to be confused with smell) university.

Respectfully,

Larry Lau.
