audience shows has as much chance to succeed as the rest who sport smart-alec announcers who insult poor, feeble, old ladies.

Trial for a boy indicted for robbery was held up so that a script and transcription of "Life of Riley" could be secured as evidence. The boy was acquitted when he
