

House Librarians Choose President

On the basis of her efforts winter term to make the house librarians a more successful organization, Dorothy Lee, freshman in liberal arts, was elected president of the house librarians at a meeting of about 50 representatives, members and outgoing officers Tuesday evening, Miss Bernice Rise, circulation librarian announced today.

Merz Elected Vice-President

Other officers chosen were Bob Merz, vice-president; Patricia Maulding, secretary, and Norma Tarpola, treasurer and sales manager.

New business at this meeting included the proposal to continue the sales started last term for raising money for browsing room books.

It was also decided that a display showing the creative purposes of Odeon should be arranged in the browsing room. The display will consist of creative arts such as lithographs, linoleum block prints, wood products, sculptured figures and decorative arts. Books will also be available on the writing of plays, poetry, and fiction.

The house librarians also voted to help sponsor the student library contest with representatives acting as hosts and hostesses while the books are on display in the browsing room Junior Weekend.

Annual Spring Concert Scheduled for April 25

The date of the annual spring band concert, originally scheduled for Easter Sunday, has been changed to Thursday, April 25, according to John H. Stehn, who is in charge of the event.

The reason for the change, Stehn stated, is the fear that the concert might conflict with Easter festivities.

Race Hatred Topic Of Radio Program

An "Open Letter on Race Hatred," written by William Robeson, is to be presented by the University radio workshop over station KOAC from 4 to 4:30 today.

"It is a drama based on race prejudice and especially the Detroit race-riots," Bob Kirkpatrick, producer, said.

According to Kirkpatrick, the main characters are "Ox" Wilson, Barbara Hawkins, Lee Petrask, Margaret Brooks, Stan Boquist, Paul Marcotte, Wilfred Roadman, and Lynn Renick.

At 4:30 Roberta Quigley is presenting Ailene Koch, vocalist from the music school, accompanied by Marie Peery, in a group of semi-classical numbers. Mike Mikshe is singing in the popular spot, "Something for You," produced by John MacDonald from 4:45 to 5.

FLOATS REPLACE

of $50 for each float. An itemized list of all costs must be turned in to Savinar before the parade.

At the present time very few house themes have been turned in and it is requested that all house float representatives enter theirs as soon as possible to avoid duplication. The themes should tie in with the weekend theme of "State Fair."

The parade is slated to assemble at the Southern Pacific depot and will proceed up Willamette to 11th, down 11th to Alder, up Alder to 13th, and disbanding beyond Johnson hall where the judges stand will be located. Savinar believes there are many possibilities for a wide variety of originality and design.

The dust on the canoe fete cups used in former years has also been blown away and this year they will be awarded to the two organizations entering the best float.

House representatives who have suggestions or desire further information concerning the parade may contact Savinar at the Sigma Alpha Mu house.

Editing Class Panel Slates Flood Talk

Flood control in the Willamette valley is the subject of the world symposium program put on by the students of the senior editing class of the University tonight at 9.

The history of the problem, costs of previous floods, and an outline of the proposed project will be presented. After the subject is pre-
