

Second Place In Speech Race Nabbed by UO
Rex Gunn, Bob Calkins Win Forensic Honors
Oregon carried off second olace honors in the Pacific place honors in the Pacific Oorensic speech league contest teld at Stockton, California, April 16 and 16 with two second place ratings. Southern second place ratings. Southern California was winner with two first-place awards.
The University's representatives,
Rex Gunn, freshman in journalism Rex Gunn, freshman in journalism, and Bob Calkins, senior in jur nalism, were accompanied by W. H. Dahlberg, director of speech divi sion. Sion.
Eight colleges took part in the seniest, which included three divi sions, oratory, extempore speaking, and after-dinner speeches. They ford, College of the Pacific, University of Washington, Oregon State college, University of Idaho, Univeristy of Oregon.
Rex Gunn took second place in the oratorical contest with his speech "Two Hours of Sunshine, spith hi literary page of Saturday's Emer ald. Winner was Dopkins of South ern California, and Camon Oregon State received honorable mention.
Konigsbur
$\qquad$

sion. The Stanford representative

Much-Painted ${ }^{\prime} \mathrm{O}^{\prime}$ to Get New Easter Coat Saturday

the neglect shown the "Mighty O,", which is situated up on Skinner's Peak, Skull & Dagger, the sophomore men's service honorary, anprepared to wipe the red stain from the face of the " O " when they low Saturday morning with the aid of male members of the freshman class.
Since the return to the Univer sity of Oregon campus by some eight members of the 1943-44 chapter of the sophomore honorary, the second year service organization has been given needed impetus to help the campus do things in the traditional way. To initiate the first-year men in Oregon customs, volunteers from each of the men's living organiaztions will be asked most important cemented letter a paint bath early this weekend.
 Skull & Dagger, will contact living organization heads today for their list of representatives. The caravan which will transport the artists to the peak will leave from in front of Johnson hall early Satrday morning.
In answer
In answer to the challenge by responsible University of Oregon leaders, Skull \& Dagger is reportedly on the way to win again the name they had in pre-war years as an organization great for their service to the school and for $\qquad$
$\qquad$ the honorary from the wars are, Douglas Fetch, Dan Mindolovich Don Kay, Mart Pond, John Miller, Mal McEwen, Forest Kjemhus, and Bob Buchwach
Another member of Skull &
'State Fair' Queen Finalists Selected; Gus Arnheim Signed for Junior Prom

Los Angeles Orchestra To Appear In Igloo  The "State Fair" Junior Prom, social highlight of the 1946 Junior Weekend, has scheduled Gus Arnheim and his orchestra for the carnival fandango, Prom Chairman  Student Resolutions  Discussed by Ducks

 Dorothy Davis announced Wednesday. The Prom is set for 9 p.m.Saturday night, May 11, in McArthur court.
emain a secret until the-gates are opened, the chairman declared.
will be in order.
During the Prom intermission junior men's honorary, will tap Dyer has announced. Award will also be made of the Gerlinger cup junior woman and man. Cups will also be awarded to the campus all-cámpus sing, scheduled for Friđay night, May 10.
Admission price for the danc wint be $$ 2$ plus tax, Miss Davis stated.
Members of the Junior Prom committee working with Miss Davis are: June Johnson and Liz Gilmore, decorations; Pat Darby tickets; Benny DiBenedetto, publicity; Toby West, clean-up; Jack Ruble, properties; Mary Londry patron and patronesses; and Shar

Placement Examination Make-Ups Scheduled section of the placement test
April 23 at 3 o'clock in Room April 23 at 3 o'
3, Fenton hall.
"It is very important that all those who missed their previous appointment take it at this time, as this is a University requirement and must be cleared before registration is completed," Leona Tyler, of said yesterday.

Interest Raised By All-Campus Assembly Aids Pacific Northwest College Campaign

By LAURA OLSON

Student resolutions, which were drawn up April 5 and 6 Reed college by 62 representatives from 31 colleges to lay the basis to preserve peace, were discussed by a panel of Uni versity students in yesterday's assembly. The panel members, Lois McConkey, Dorothy Bruhn, Lloyd Frese and Ted Hallock discussed the resolutions and expalined their purposes to the

After each résolution court.
After each resolution had been explained, time for questions from the floor was given by the moderator Charles Howard, pro panel members hoped to get some definite ideas from University students. Technical question which the panel members couldn't P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration, whom Howard described as "a walking encyclopedia of internationa
The goal beyond the assemblies and the radio and newspaper publicity which has been given to the is to arouse sifudent interest in the United Nations.
Trip to UN
A representative from each of two colleges receiving the greatest two colleges receiving the greatest volume of student interest and volume of student interest and opinion in the shortest time will be sent to New York to the Unite Nations security council meeting One delegate will be chosen from those with a larger enrollment. Oregon's delegates to the Congres at Reed college were Loi Ballots Ballots, furnished by the Port land League of win were distributed goers, Fach student assembly copy was able to vote for against the resolutions. Later this week Skull and Dagger, sophomore honorary for men, and Druids junior honorary for men, will distribute ballots to members of able to attend the assembly. sembly and their general explana tion were:
Recommended for immediat action by the nations of the world were the following:

Court

1. That any nation which is party to a dispute can bring the dispute before the international be final and binding on all parties. This will be important in case of any disagreement between any two nations in which a third is involved," Hallock said. "Minor nations would have a more equal ment was with a more powerful country," he added.
2. Remove the veto power o members of big five in any dis volved directly. According

First Spring Dance Rolls Tonight at 9

A large turn-out of University the first big dance of spring term according to co-sponsors Jim Winus and Austin Chaney. The dance, ourteen piece orchestra, will be gala affair, the co-sponsors said. The dance will last from 9 p.m. to midnight at the U.S. Armory price is $$ 1.50$ Oak and the admission person. It is being sponsored by the two University students as private enterprise.
Plans for the dance were laid that there would be an it appeared on the social calendar. " "The first spring term following the wa should feature many social Thursday, "and we are attempting Originally ."
Originally plans were laid for dational professia Delta Chi, men honorary. These plans did not ma-
Charles Politz, Sigma Delta Chi president, announced the cancellawith the explety's plans Tuesday, tionally famous band was available on the nights suggested. FollowWindus and Chaney arranged the Armory dance.

Good Friday Services At Churches Today

Music, prayer, and words of the Scriptures will be offered today, noon to 3 pin, in the First Baptist church, 88 High street. Member churches of the Eugene Ministerial association will be represented by the First Christian, United Lutheran, First Baptist, FairMethodist, and the First Congregational churches.
St. Mary's Catholic church, 1962 Charnelton street, will hold the "Mass of the Presanctified at 8:30 a.m. and "The Way of the Cross" at 2:30 p.m.
The Central Presbyterian church, 1010 Peart street, will hold a service tonight at 7:30.

Students Vote to Name

 Junior Weekend TitlistThe ruler of the gala State Fair festivities to be held duz-ing Junior Weekend, May 10 and 11 , will be chosen today as students cast their votes for one of the eight finalists from $11 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. to $5 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. in the Co-op.
group of girls, selected from group of 25 campus beauties calf, Alpha Chi Omega: Marilyn Rackow, Delta Delta Delta; Mary Dixon, Delta Gamma; June Johnon, Chi Omega; Doris Spearow, Hendricks hall; Gay Edwards, Kappa Alpha Theta; Barbara Pearson, Kappa Kappa Gamma Glowing with pleasureta Pi. prise, the finalists commented their reactions, which were generthe " ally "happy."
Smallest member of the eight, $521 / 2$ "Pat Metcalf was "happy and of the finar that she was pque brown complimented her brown hair. Music is her major and the instrument is the piano Brown-haired, brown-eyed Mariyn Rackow exclaimed, "I'm very, very, happy," then calmed down ong enough to say that she was majoring in business administration, and is $5^{\prime} 41 / 2^{\prime \prime}$ tall.
"Just awfully happy," said Mary a blue education major, who wore arge blue eyes. Brown-haired Mary is $5^{\prime} 6^{\prime \prime}$ tall, and is from Coos Bay, Oregon.
Lyric soprano June Johnson said excitedly, "I was so surprised-I the finalists!" June wore a white cotton dress to accent her brunette hair and blue-gray eyes. She measures $5^{\prime} 6^{\prime \prime}$ and is majoring in sociology Doris Spearow was "thrilled and surprised" upon hearing the news. An English major, Doris is $5^{\prime} 4^{\prime \prime}$ with blonde hair and clear gray eyes.
very, very thrilled and surprised that I had a chance among om good-looking girls was the 5'5L/" political by Gay Edwards, Portland. Gay's white dress aptly set off her black hair and blue Poison oak didn't keep Barbara Pearson from becoming one of the thrilled about the whole thing, Blondehaired, blue eyed Barg. 5,7" tall and is majora liberal arts. Tallest of the eight contestants s'10" Shelby Frame was "pleased happy, and surprised" upon being general social science, She. general social science, Sheby wore off her blonde hair and blue eyes he eight finalists will be posted in the Co-op all day Friday to aid students in making their choice for queen, said Virginia Harris, chairman of the to insure a fair election, stuḑents are asked to present their ASUO cards for punching. Students will vote for five.

