

Today's World

FRANKFURT, Germany, April 24.—(UP)—General Joseph T. McNarney, commanding United States forces in Europe, ordered his subordinates to restore the "deteriorated" discipline of American soldiers and end an epidemic of black market activities, drunkenness, and disrespect for authority.

CLEVELAND, April 24.—(UP)—A nationwide rail strike appeared likely as delegates of two rail unions met to consider recommendations made by a presidential fact-finding board in the railroad wage dispute.

NEW YORK, April 24.—(UP)—The Soviet Union's threat of another boycott of the United Nations Security Council sent council members into a series of informal hotel room conferences in an effort to restore a semblance of Big Three unity.

CHUNGKING, April 24.—(UP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek announced indefinite postponement of the first meeting of China's National Assembly and press reports said that the government has decided to forfeit Harbin, a major Manchurian industrial city, to Communist troops.

LONDON, April 24.—(UP)—The conference of dominion prime ministers began at No. 10 Downing street and was expected to end in a solid empire front against Russian expansion in the Mediterranean.

AWS TO HOLD

(Continued from page one) and mittens accumulated number close to 100. Some single but valuable items to be auctioned are a letterman's sweater, waterproof ski jacket, slide rule, and three biology sets.

Chairman of the event, Dorothy Davis, announces that money collected by the auction will be used for AWS scholarships, given to deserving University women each year by the organization. "Everyone ought to turn out for this," declared Miss Davis. "Besides aiding a wonderful cause, the auction may prove entertaining and profitable."

The auction was originally planned for winter term, but it was postponed because of the busy schedule at the end of last term.

VETERAN-STUDDER

(Continued from page one) Mozart. The piece has been transcribed for the band from the original piano score, with only the trumpets and trombones omitted.

A musical humoresque, "Perpetual Motion," by John Straus, will be played in relays—with almost all sections of the band seeing action.

Among other numbers being presented on the performance are Isolde's Love Death from Wagner's "Tristan and Isolde," and the first movement of the "Second Symphony" by Borodin.

The band has played recent engagements at Marshfield, Roseburg, and Junction City.

Members of Band

Members of the band who will participate in the concert tonight are:

Flutes; Don Scott, Marilyn Ambrose, Lois Hill, Leora Lauderdale; oboes; Jean Girts, Beverley Moses; bassoons; Darle West, Jean Huds-peth; first clarinets; Julia Balzhiser, Shirley Baldwin, Margaret Holm, Aleanor Merrifield, Dean Forbes, Albin Sundsten; second clarinets; Shirley Thurman, Gladys Stone, Barbara Weisz, Chester Pietka, Howard Haugland, Dan Eaton, Marilyn Wright, Marcia Summers; Saxophones; Richard Carlton, Lenore McMillan, Patricia Klar; French horns; Lewis Vogler, Lorraine Cheney, Henry Howard, Barbara Wick; cornets; Eugene Hebrard, James Arment, Robert Lennerville, Mary Bea Hall, Edward Keefe, Richard Doty; trombones; Robert McFadyen, David Mortimore, Ray Straub, Wally Martin, Tom Kellis; baritones; Hurstell Russell, Richard Pollock; tubas; George Wiseman, Robert Wiseman, Royal Denton; snare drum; Leo Lohikoski; tympani; Johnette King, and base drum; Robert Reeves.

ELLSWORTH TO SPEAK

(Continued from page one)

A graduate of the University in the class of '22, Ellsworth was a member of Kappa Sigma, Sigma Delta Chi, Sigma Upsilon, and Phi Mu Alpha while on the campus. He was also active on the staffs of various student publications. He became manager of the Emerald in his sophomore year and manager of the Oregana the following year. He was business manager and one of the founders of Lemon Punch, then an independent publication and now a part of Oregana. The humor magazine flourished for three years under Ellsworth's managership.

During his college years, he worked as advertising manager on the Oregon City Enterprise, after graduation held the same position on the Morning Register in Eugene.

This was followed by three years as advertising manager of the 4-L Lumber News in Portland.

A man whose favorite hobby is fishing, Ellsworth went to Congress three years ago with the promise that his purpose was not "to get," that his district wanted "to give."

CAREER OF LATER

(Continued from page one) The program is part of the University Lecture series under the direction of Dr. Rudolph Ernst.

Dr. Arnold Elston, speaking at the April 30 meeting, is prominent

CLASSIFIED

FOR SALE: Man's bicycle, $20. See Harry Stone, Westminister house during noon hours.

LOST: Red Shaeffer fountain pen, without clip, on main campus.

LOST: D. U. pin between Mac court and D. U. house. Reward. Call 1128 John Weisel.

in musical and academic spheres throughout the country. Achieving his Ph.D. with honors from Harvard, Dr. Elston studied in Vienna under the modern composers Anton Webern and Nadia Boulanger, held teaching positions at Vassar, City College of N. Y., and Cambridge School of Liberal Arts. He has lectured at several leading American universities, and is the translator of Hugo Leichtentritt's "History of Music."

OREGON OUTFITTERS

61 E. Broadway

Men's Clothing

Gifts, Luggage

TODAY

207 Chapman

4:00 o'Clock

ANNUAL MEETING OF MEMBERS OF UNIVERSITY OF OREGON CO-OP STORE

The Business:
Manager's annual report
Nomination of candidates for positions on the board of directors

Get your suit cleaned now! for your spring formal dance

For truly superior dry cleaning come to us . . .

643 E. 13th

Phone 317

Glorify your complexion with

CHEN YU Cloudsilk

MAKE UP

A complexion of sheer beauty . . . soft as silk, fine as porcelain . . . when you wear Chen Yu Cloud silk. Yet . . . while it conceals imperfections . . . Cloud silk imparts no "make-up" look. Choose your exact shade from nine of fashion's smartest.

$2

Refills: $1.25 (tax extra)

CLAYPOOL'S DRUG

886 13th St. Phone 1086

QUALITY PRODUCTS

Godless

Complete Line of Groceries

- ◆ FRESH VEGETABLES
- ◆ STAPLE FOODS
- ◆ QUALITY MEATS

Barlow's Grocery

19th and Agate Phone 2851