

Church Notices

By Roy Williams

Looking out over a swollen Easter congregation, the pastor smiled and said, "To those of you whom I will not see again until next Easter, may I take this opportunity to wish you a merry Christmas and a happy New Year!"

Things will be quiet at Westminster house this weekend because tomorrow friends of Westminster are retreating to the resort at Kitson Springs for the annual student conference. Everybody is invited. Dr. O. R. Chambers, professor of psychology at Oregon State College, will be a guest speaker at the outdoor Sunday morning services at Kitson Springs.

Wesley Too

Wesley house people are also taking to the woods. Silver Creek Falls, near Silver Creek National Park, Oregon, is the site of their weekend retreat, which began last night. Alice Adams, sophomore in liberal arts, is chairman of the outing. Her assistants include Ruth Wahlgren, Ken Neal, Wilma Langfelt, and June Bernhardt.

The Fairmount Presbyterian church, 15th and Villard streets, will have the sermon "The Ability to Meet a Crisis" by the Rev. Donald D. Dod, at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration, will conduct his regular 9:5 a.m. Sunday school for the University group at the First Christian church, 1166 Oak street. Hugh N. McCallum, pastor, will speak at 11 a.m. on "The Lord's Supper." A series of lectures entitled "Better Homes" by the Rev. Mr. McCallum will commence with "Successful Marriage."

Bernard Speaks

Town and Campus, youth group of the First Christian church, will meet as usual at 6:15 p.m. Dr. H. W. Bernard, professor of education, will speak on "Religious and Mental Health."

College Fireside, University group directed by Mary Grubbs, has an informal panel discussion scheduled for 7 o'clock Sunday night at the Congregational church, 490 Thirteenth street east. Gwen Hale, Warren Smith, John Staehle, Lee Tillotson, William Hale, and Herb Armstrong will contribute to the panel topic, "Veterans' View of Religion." The 11 a.m. service will include "Observations on the Bible" by the Rev. Mr. Wesley G. Nicholson.

Choir Visits

The a cappella choir of Cascade College, Portland, will appear at the First Evangelical church, 834 Monroe street, Sunday at 10:45 a.m. Radio station KORE carries an Evangelical service at 10 o'clock Sunday evening.

L. T. Holman, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, 812 Madison street, will mount the Eugene pulpit for the last times Sunday, at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. He is leaving for a summer assignment in southern California and will accept a teaching position in Oklahoma in the fall.

Baptist Service

Dr. Norman Grubb, author and authority on missions, will be the guest speaker at 7:30 p.m. service at the First Baptist church, 868 High street. Dr. Grubb is on tour from London, England. Sunday school time is 9:45 a.m. "I Follow After" will be the 11 o'clock sermon by Dr. Vance Webster, pastor. The University group will meet as usual at 6:30 p.m.

St. Mary's Episcopal church, 166 Thirteenth East, E. S. Bartlam, rector, will hold Sunday services at 8 a.m. and 11 a.m. Six p.m. is the meeting time for the University group.

Presents Solo

The Methodist church, 1185 Wilamette street, will have the sermon "Walking by Faith" by the Rev. Mr. L. O. Griffith and a solo "On the April Evening" by Doris Siegenthaler at the 10 o'clock service Sunday morning.

"Feed My Sheep" is the sermon topic for the 11 a.m. service at the Unity church, 1569 Oak street. Cleoda Dawson is the minister for the Unity church, the only female rectorship in Eugene. Bible class here is at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

The United Lutheran church, 315 Thirteenth street east, will offer the sermon "Victory of Faith" by the Rev. Mr. J. L. Sawyer at the 11 a.m. service. Sunday school is at 9:45 a.m., but there will be no evening service this Sunday, due to a young peoples' picnic that is scheduled for the afternoon and evening.

Infirmary Greet's Hundredth Patient

The one hundredth patient was registered for the spring term at the pill palace yesterday, making 568 going through its portals since fall term. Other statistics show that 202 were on the rolls for fall term, and 266 for winter term. Of the 100 victims, for this term, 45 are men and 55 women.

Ward 8 seemed to be very popular during visiting hours from 2 to 4 yesterday afternoon. The music that all five of the visitors were listening to could be heard all over the infirmary, the radio, that is.

Telling the Editor

um I say let him stick to known truths and be consistent and unbiased. We have too many erratic newsmen with an axe to grind already. If Mr. Larson must express his conservative, hard-shelled, biased opinions, let us be aware of the source as we read them and be sure and take them with a grain of salt.

In reply to his contention that "Missouri horse-sense" is our cure-all—I say malarky! What we need to straighten us out is a strong executive like President Roosevelt was, and one who doesn't mind whose toes he steps upon.

I say we need one column on current news in our paper that comes near to staying on the road our political philosophy has followed in the past. . . Mr. Hallock's political philosophy is so far to the left of this figurative road that it must follow a track leading to Russia, while Mr. Larson's is so far to the right that it would undoubtedly reach Wall Street if the latter were in Mars.

JAM FOR BREAKFAST

passed. Artie is offered a clarinet upon which he refuses to play. Crowd boos. Hamp pleads. Shaw storms out, his usual pleasing self. As the DB head reads: "Everything Happens to Hamp."

Tenorman "Tommy" Thompson out of infirmary. Altoist L. Russell the same. Scorer W. Heider in. Musicians and educated non-musicians alike credit Art Holman's new band, at the Park, as very good. Which news bears looking into.

Westminster to Hold Discussion On Politics

With an eye on coming student elections, the Westminster Sunday evening open forum will have as its topic: "Webfoots and Politics," Tom Hazzard, president, announced Friday.

The discussion will concern methods and practices of student campaigns, elections, and government. The speakers will be students who have taken an active part in campus politics.

Forum time is 6:30 o'clock, and all students and faculty members are invited.
