

Annamae Winship to Visit GAC Missouri Convention

Annamae Winship, senior in journalism and president of Gamma Alpha Chi, advertising fraternity for women, will attend the organization's national convention to be held at the University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri, May 9 and 10. Miss Winship, president of Oregon's Zeta chapter, will leave the University Saturday for Pendleton, and will fly from her home in that city to the convention.

The fraternity's convention is being held in conjunction with national journalism week at the University of Missouri, scheduled May 6 to 10. Gamma Alpha Chi is a national professional advertising fraternity for women.

Attending the convention will be such advertising figures as Richard W. Horner, information manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company, St. Louis; Bea Adams, executive vice-president in charge of copy and Rudolph Czufin, vice-president in charge of art at the Gardner Advertising agency, St. Louis; H. A. Batten, president of the N. W. Ayer & Son, advertising agency, Philadelphia; Edward W. Beattie, United Press correspondent, and Colonel Robert McLean, publisher of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and president of the Associated Press.

Miss Winship plans to return to the campus May 13.

Honorary Pledges Four Candidates

Four men were pledged yesterday to the W.F.G. Thatcher chapter of Alpha Delta Sigma, men's national professional advertising fraternity at an informal ceremony held at the Side.

Earl T. Ritter, sophomore in business administration, Virgil A. Parker, junior in journalism, George G. Pegg, junior in journalism, and John MacDougal, sophomore in business administration were the four pledges.

Bob Calkins, president of the group, said, "We feel very fortunate in having these men who have distinguished themselves in advertising."

These pledges will be seen on the campus next week carrying the traditional Alpha Delta Sigma sandwich board.

They were required to sell the advertisements on the boards, make the boards, and carry them. This has been the traditional duty of Alpha Delta Sigma pledges since the chapter was formed.

Today's World

WASHINGTON, May 2.—(UP)—President Truman expressed his alarm over the soft coal strike, and hinted that he may order federal seizure of the pits if the situation becomes much graver.

PARIS, May 2.—(UP)—Secretary of State James F. Byrnes proposed to the "Big Four" foreign ministers that the Italian armistice terms and those of the axis satellites be revised to "remove all obstacles to the restoration of those countries."

NEW YORK, May 2.—(UP)—A United Nations Security council subcommittee awaited replies from the 51 United Nations whom it has invited to submit evidence on the question of whether or not Spain's Franco government is a menace to world peace.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—(UP)—President Truman asked Congress for subsidies to expand production of building materials needed for the veterans' housing program.

OLYMPIA, Washington, May 2.—(UP)—Governors Mon C. Wallgren of Washington and Earl Snell of Oregon jointly proclaimed that the two states would not go on daylight saving time.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—(UP)—President Truman declared that government controls on meat would be removed if such action is necessary to destroy the nationwide black market.

Thirteen Students Still In Campus Rest Haven

The pill rollers released Ward 9 yesterday afternoon, with the exception of Bob Robinson, the scholar, who will be released soon. With the suspension of Ed Allen, Jim Morrell, and Pete Miller from the infirmary, once again there is peace.

The boys say they will miss the night nurse, Miss Helen Sandall, and her cheeriness at 6 in the morning. Also, they hope that the cook will forgive them, as they were only joking.

The rolls are filled with 13 in the infirmary, and include June Clayton, Pat Percival, Ruby Matthews, Barbara Weisz, Selma Syme, Sal Leosar, George Huggins, Herbert Leonnig, Jim Koltz, Wally Heider, Barbara Kvern and Harrold Philan.

Grads Urged to Order Caps and Gowns Early

Louise Goodwin, senior class president, announced yesterday that caps and gowns for seniors are available for rental at the Co-op. Miss Goodwin also urged that all graduating seniors place their orders for announcements and individual cards as soon as possible. "It will require some time for the announcements and cards to arrive after they have been ordered," she said.

Orders should be placed upstairs in the Co-op.
