

Church Notices

By Roy Williams

Publicity previously given in this column concerning Westminster's Kitson Springs' conference was exactly one week premature. Today at 9:30 a.m., friends of Westminster leave for their annual two-day conference at Kitson Springs. Westminster house will be closed during this time.

Dr. Paul B. Means, professor of religion, is currently concentrating on Old Testament interpretations in his regular Bible school Sunday session at Wesley house at 9:45 a.m. A guest speaker, Reverend Ralph Kleen, will speak on "The New Life Movement" at the 6:30 service.

Better Homes

The "Better Homes" lecture series by Hugh N. McCallum, at the First Christian church, 1166 Oak street, has shown a decided increase of young people at the 7:30 p.m. service. This week the lecture title is "Reasons for Failure—Before Marriage." The 11 a.m. service will have the sermon "The Lord's Day" by Rev. McCallum. "Town and Camp" meets as usual at 6:15 p.m.

The Baptist church, 858 High street, holds Bible study for University groups at 9:45 a.m. The 11 a.m. sermon by Dr. Vance Webster will be "What To Do With Your Doubts." The Sunday evening sermon, 7:30 p.m., is entitled "What Are the Gods You Have Made for Yourself?"

Education Religion

"Education and Religion" will be the subject of the Rev. Mr. Nicholson's 11 o'clock sermon at the First Congregational church, 490 Thirteenth street. The choir, with Ione Lewis as soloist, will sing "Praise to the Lord" by Allitsen. The "College Fireside," young peoples group under the leadership of Mary Grub, has a picnic supper planned at 7 p.m.—weather permitting. (Weather man says clear skies.)

Major Roscoe Plowman, returned veteran, will mount altar at the First Evangelical church, 834 Monroe, Sunday evening at 7:30, when he tells of war experiences with a religious slant. The EYF (Evangelical Youth Fellowship) will hold their regular meeting at 6:45 p.m.

The 11 o'clock Sunday morning worship is under the direction of Reverend Charles Fogg.

'Healing Ministry'

The Lighthouse temple, 1209 Olive street, will hold Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. The Rev. Mr. E. J. Fulton will speak on the topic "The Healing Ministry of Christ" at the 11 o'clock service and "Judgment Past, Present and Future" at the 7:30 p.m. service. The University age group, called "Overcomers" will meet at 6:00. Music here is by a church orchestra and choir.

The Catholic church 1062 Charnelton street, will hold masses at 6:45, 8:00, 9:15, and 10:30 a.m.

Navy Chaplain

According to the Rev. Mr. J. L. Sawyer, pastor of the United Lutheran church, a navy chaplain, Paul C. Wharton, will be in Eugene in time to take charge of the Sunday morning service at 11. The Luther league, under the leadership of Ann Pasjack, will meet at 6:30 p.m.

"Dance of Life," a springtime theme is the topic chosen by Cleoda Dawson, pastor of the Unity church, 1569 Oak street.

Tomorrow is the annual Budget Sunday at the Methodist church, 1185 Willamette—fair warning.

JAM FOR BREAKFAST

Records you will find here: Frank Sinatra's newest Columbia album. Good selection of standards, sung beautifully. We feel very sorry for guys like Portland's (and the Oregonian's) Bill Moyes (Behind the Mike), who says, about Frank: "The Voice has been straining itself running in and out of U.N. meetings and h.s. auditoriums screaming about race relations, which would do just fine if he would only shut up and tend to his mooing." By anyone's standards, Sinatra is a clever performer and showman, and a generous donor of time to worthwhile purposes.

Stan Kenton's "Apple Pan" is terrific. June Christy's imitativeness is forgivable because she is rapidly learning how to carve Anita. Les Brown still turns out clean-cut punchy stuff, as "Doc, Lawyer." Butch Stone sings; a Columbia item. B. Crosby has splendid backing in Eddie Condon's Nickseites on two Deccas just out.

Lee Castle (Lee Castaldo) has reorganized again. Still keeps early Shaw side-men Bassey, Robinson, Burness; goes into NY's Lincoln soon. Listen for air time. Shaw denies all rumors that he will form ANY band. Basie is pulling a Goodman. He is to play organ, with full band backing, in concert with the Robin Hood Dell symphony.

One more fine artist is considering a European tour, with no return trip. This time it's Rex Stewart (Boy Meets Horn). May tour Spain and Portugal taking his band along. It's bad enough to keep losing American artists to continental countries, but to Franco Spain. That is murder, Jack, with a capital F (as in Fascism).

Vesper Choir Meets

There will be a meeting of all members of the Vesper Choir at 8:15 Sunday, May 4, at the music building. The meeting will be a rehearsal for the Vesper Choir program.
