

Final 'Let's Sing' Program To Hit Airwaves Thursday

An estimated 800 students from one- and two-room grade schools in Oregon will gather in McArthur court Thursday morning to participate in the final broadcast of the radio program "Let's Sing, America."

Now ending its third year, "Let's Sing, America" is a program designed to promote an interest in the songs of America among children of grade school age. Directed by Maude Garnett, associate professor of public school music, the program is broadcast each week over KOAC. Eleven junior public school majors from the University have assisted Miss Garnett in arranging and producing the weekly show.

A full schedule of events has been planned for the broadcast Thursday. Roosevelt junior high of Eugene will present an 80-piece choir, under the direction of Mrs. Marjorie Wilson. Two dance numbers, a country square dance and a Mexican hat dance, will be offered by students of Condon grade school of Eugene. The children in the Mexican number have been trained by a University student, Cassie Delia Hyde, freshman in liberal arts. The Eugene high school orchestra, under the direction of Douglas Orme, will play several selections.

As on all "Let's Sing, America" broadcasts, the grade school students will take an active part in the program Thursday.

One World Elections Set for 8 p.m. Meeting

The One World club, internationally-minded discussion and activity group, will hold a meeting this evening to elect officers, Betty Walter, One World secretary, announced Tuesday. The meeting will be held at 7:15 p.m. at the YWCA.

Aims of the One World club, Miss Walter explained, are to promote campus interest in national and international affairs, to cooperate with various campus and national relief and educational campaigns, and to increase their own individual information on current affairs.

At present the club is cooperating with the French club with its "Food for France" relief drive. It has also aided the campus committee to aid the Committee of 100.

UPPERCLASSES

After graduation he worked as reporter on the Oregonian staff for a year, until he went East to study the publishing situation in New York and other eastern cities. His activities, before he became one of America's best-read novelists, included such things as covering a police beat, "busting" bronchos, and being completely broke in Greenwich village with rejected manuscripts as his sole possession.

While at the University, Haycox was a member of Delta Tau Delta and Sigma Delta Chi. He was also editor of the Sunday Emerald, the literary edition of the daily.

Immediately following the assembly, a special senior class meeting will be held to elect permanent officers and to discuss graduation procedure.

Vets to Organize UO Legion Post

The University of Oregon post of the American Legion will be officially organized Thursday when campus veterans meet at 7 p.m. in 207 Chapman hall to draw up the new charter, according to Elliot Wilson, temporary chairman of the group.

Wilson pointed out that this is not intended to be just a temporary organization, but a permanent chapter of the Legion; and all veterans who become members at this meeting will be the charter members of the new post.

Officers for the coming year also will be elected Thursday and all men interested in the American Legion should plan to attend.

Bernard McCudden is temporary secretary of the organizing committee.
