Tickets for the affair are 40 cents and may be obtained at the Co-op. Living organization house managers will receive their tickets in blocs.

Highlight of the dinner will be the coronation of Queen Pat Metcalf. Three honor societies, Mortar Board, senior women; Friars, senior men; and Asklepiads, pre-medics, will all tap new members during the dinner.

Herb Widmer and his combo will provide music for the outdoor event. Assisting Miss Rasmussen on her committee are Delores Ray, food; Harriet Tozier, tickets; and June Clayton, publicity.

The grand finale for the "State Fair" Junior Weekend festivities will be the annual sunlight serenade, Pat Metcalf, serenade committee chairman announced Tuesday. The music fete will be presented Sunday in the outdoor theater of the music building.

The serenade is open to all, the chairman said. In case of rain, it will be held in the music auditorium. Members of Phi Beta and Mu Phi Epsilon, music honoraries, will serve refreshments.

Master of ceremonies for the serenade is Bob Moran. Included on the program will be: the Theta Chi quartet, the Chi Omega trio, Rose Zena Latta, lyric soprano; Jim McMullen, baritone; Janet Schaffer, violinist; and the two winning choruses from the all-campus sing.

Robbie Burr Warrens is assisting Miss Metcalf in making the arrangements for the serenade.
