The program of the dance concert to be given by Orchesis, modern dance honorary, Saturday evening in Gerlinger hall was announced this week. The concert, which begins at 7:30, will feature 13 dances composed by senior and junior Orchesis members under the direction of Miss Rosamond Wentworth, head of the dance department and assistant professor of physical education.

First dance on the program will be "Opening Dance." It will be followed by "Chorales," "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," two English folk dances—"Dargason" and "Putney Ferry," "Country Gentleman," "Delusion," "Waltz Quadrille," "Tango," "Conquest," "Lament," "Earthbound," and "Celebration." Due to a limited seating capacity of 250, visiting guests of the campus have been especially invited to attend the Saturday night performance. There will be a repeat performance of the dance concert Tuesday evening at 8:15. Students may attend either performance but seating will be less difficult Tuesday evening, Miss Wentworth said.
