Van Loo, Luck Added To Grid Injury List

Halfback Aubrey Van Loo and Tackle Herb Luck, latest additions to the grid injury list, may not see action in Friday afternoon's intra-squad tilt, it was revealed yesterday. Van Loo and Luck were both injured during a scrimmage earlier in the week.

The loss of Van Loo puts another crimp into the already shaky right half spot. Corky, as he is usually known on the field, has been improving steadily, and might possibly have edged into the number one lineup had the injury not occurred. An exact diagnosis has not been made, but it is believed he has a pulled muscle in his back.

Luck, 205 pound tackle from last year's squad, had been troubled all spring with a bad knee and Monday afternoon had the opposite leg injured. It is believed he has a torn ligament. He gave a good performance in the last intra-squad tilt from his tackle berth and contributed two points to the Green score when he broke through the line to nail halfback Bob Sills behind the goal line for a safety.

Ducks Prep For Cougar Track Meet

With only one more full day of workout scheduled, Colonel Bill Hayward, Oregon's track mentor, had his harriers continue their strenuous early-week workouts yesterday.

Half-milers and distance men were the only ones to step-off speed against the clock yesterday. Walt McClure and Johnny Joachims, the top half-milers at the present, took a smooth 2:05 half for their workout.

George Hammock paced four laps for Hugh Stapleton, and Stapleton continued on two extra laps in an effort to iron out his two-mile stride.

The winning time of the 440-yard dash in the recent Idaho-Washington State meet was 49.9; the hundred-yard dash, 9.8; 220-yard dash, 21.7; half-mile, 2:02; mile, 4:27; broad jump, 21 feet 7 inches; pole vault, 12 feet 6 inches; and the low hurdles 14.7.

Compared to the Ducks' times and distances, the Cougars have a favorable standing, especially in the century, mile, low hurdles and pole vault. The Cougars are an unknown factor in several of the events as their runners capped seconds and thirds with no times revealed.

One fact is known, the old ace of the basketball courts, Vince Hansen, is contributing his bit to the track team. Hansen is the top high jumper at State and cleared the upright at 6 feet 2 inches last Saturday—exactly the same height Oregon's Bill Beifuss topped in the meet against Washington.

Oregon's 1946-47 basketball team will fly on its annual eastern tour, it was announced yesterday by Coach Howard Hobson at Pullman, Washington.

The Webfoots have two games scheduled on the trip east. The opener will be against Niagara college in Buffalo on December 21 and New York university will be the opponent in Madison Square Garden on December 23.

The travel by air and the light schedule will enable the team to make the trip without any of the players missing any of the fall term classes.

Junior Olympics On Tap Here

Teen-agers take over Hayward field again this weekend when the Eugene American Legion revives its popular Junior Olympics, last held in 1942. The program will include competition on both Friday and Saturday and is limited to boys between the ages of 14 and 17 who have never won a varsity high school letter.

The schedule of events of the decathlon will be much the same as that in previous meets. A golf tournament and Red Cross sponsored swimming class are also included in the weekend's activities.

Yeoman, Phi Delts, SAEs, Omega Win I-M Games

An error-studded fifth inning rally gave the Yeomen a 5-4 victory over Delta Tau Omega in the high-light of the intramural softball circuit Wednesday. Phi Delta Theta circled Theta Chi, 12-4, and Omega hall outhit Phi Gamma Delta, to win 11-9, while SAE flattened the Campbell Club, 10-2, in other games.

Going into the fifth inning with one run apiece, the Yeomen took advantage of three Delt errors and two sacrifices to add four runs to their score, making it five to one. The Deltas came back strong in the sixth to gather three runs, but lacked the winning punch.

A 14-hit attack by the Phi Delta Theta club drove Theta Chi's Tommy Wright from the mound. Theta Chi was held scoreless until the fifth, then four hits and two walks brought Theta Chi their four-run total. Erickson was reached for eight scattered hits, and gave up six walks.

Omega hall's classy club jumped on Phi Gamma Delta's pitcher Schuchard for 14 bingles to win a six-inning game. Olts, shortstop for Omega, gathered two for two, closely followed by Pickets with three for four tries at the plate. Browning, pitching for the winners, was found for ten taps while giving up two walks and striking out two.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon's powerhouse steamrollered over the Campbell clubbers. The clubbers in the rear all game as winning pitcher, Popp, gave up but two hits. The SAEs reached pitcher Haskell for 13 hits.

Coeds' Ball Loop Races Take Shape

By Mary Anne Hansen

League standings are taking shape in the softball intramurals with good weather still prevailing. Last year all spring sports ran into difficulty when old Jupe Pluvius unloosened showers throughout the term.

As it stands now Highland house and Hendricks hall are tied for first position in League I, the Orioles are outclassing the teams in League II, Judson house is leading League III, and the Chi Omegas are out in front of League IV.

At the WAA retreat last weekend up to McCreadie Springs, the cabinet definitely got plans organized for the coming year. A strong athletic manager organization was suggested as a means for coordinating the various houses in their intramural participation.

The postponement of games was also discussed and it was decided that Miss Catherine Jones, WAA adviser, must be notified by 5 p.m., the day preceding the tourney, if a team fishes to postpone their scheduled game. Otherwise the game will be defaulted to the opposition.

Installation of officers for Amphibians has been set for May 15 in the Eugene hotel. New officers to be installed will be: Beverly Bennett, president; Mary Anne Hansen, vice-president; and Lynne Langa, secretary-treasurer.

N D Tennis Finals Set

The northern division tennis championship meet at Pullman, Washington, just two weeks away on May 24 and 25, will find six teams competing for honors. The teams will be Oregon, Oregon State, Washington State, Washington, Idaho, and Montana. Montana did not have a team in the northern division competition, but will be represented at Pullman.

Each school will play four singles matches and two doubles matches. The winners of the meet will have no bearing on the conference standings.

The Oregon Ducks will travel to Seattle for their match with the University of Washington Huskies on May 18. The Huskies are currently leading the northern division race with two wins and no losses. The Ducks and Beavers are tied for second place with Washington State and Idaho following.

The Ducks enroute to Seattle will tangle with the Willamette Bearcats in a non-conference meet.

Lehl Scatters 12 Husky Hits To Win Third

SEATTLE, May 8—Oregon's high-flying Ducks took a three-game lead in the Northern Division baseball race here today by defeating the second-place Washington Huskies, 8 to 3.

Freshman Dick Lehl won his third game of the season as he scattered 12 Washington hits and was in trouble only once.

The two teams meet again tomorrow in the final game of the 1946 series. Coaches Hobby Hobson and Tubby Graves are expected to send their aces to the mound—Hal Saltzman for the Webfoots and Max Soriano for Washington.

All of the action today was centered in the middle three innings. Oregon broke a scoreless deadlock in the fourth with three runs, scored on two walks off Bill Jorgenson, a Husky error and three singles.

Walt Lozowski's triple, followed by singles by Bob Santee and Tony Crish, an error and an outfield fly accounted for three more runs in the fifth and drove Jorgenson to cover.

He was replaced by Bob Cole and Oregon picked up its last two tallies in the sixth on a walk and three singles.

Washington made its bid in the fifth on two singles and successive doubles by Frank Constantino and Cole.

The loss was a Washington's fourth in conference play and reduced the Husky pennant hopes to a minimum. The score:

Oregon	000	332	000
Washington	000	030	000
Lehl and Rodiger; Jorgenson, Cole (5) and Constantino.	8	10	1
