

Williams Seeks Directory Heads Petitions Due May 13 At Activities Office

Petitions for editor and business manager of the student directory, and director of the Oregon Federation are still being accepted this week, Dick Williams, educational activities manager, announced yesterday. Petitions for the Pigger's guide positions will be accepted until May 13 at 5 p.m.

"Applicants do not necessarily have to be juniors and seniors," Williams asserted, "because proper consideration will be given to anyone interested regardless of their year in school." Petitions are to be turned in at the educational activities office in McArthur court.

The Pigger's guide contains a list of all faculty members and students at the University. Married members of the faculty are starred. This year it was found necessary to print a supplement to the guide since enrollment increased greatly winter term.

Editor of the supplement of 1945-46 was Jack Craig. The 1944 edition was edited by Jean Lawrence Yoder.

According to Miss Doris Hack, alumni secretary, petitions for director of the Oregon Federation will also be accepted this week. The Federation is an informational program designed to acquaint alumni and prospective students with the University.

Part of the plans of the Federation this summer include the Jantzen Beach picnic, rally and dance which will be held in August. "Chairmen for this event will be chosen from students living in Portland," Miss Hack said. The picnic will be sponsored by the Oregon Moms and Dads.

Director of the Federation in 1945 was Betty Lu Siegman, senior in journalism. Previous directors have included Gerd Hansen, 1944; Martha Jane Switzer, 1943; and Don Walker, 1942.

Vets May Renew Life Insurance

Veterans who have allowed their National Service life insurance to lapse may now have it reinstated without physical examination if their health is as good as on the day the policy lapsed, according to an announcement by the veterans' administration.

In most cases the veteran's own statement of good health is enough to have the policy reinstated.

Five year policies, issued before January 1, 1946, may now be retained up until eight years from the time it was taken out at the same rate as was paid in the service. At any time within that eight years it may be converted to a permanent plan.

Policies issued since January 1, are good for five years from the date of issue, and may be converted within that time.

Regardless of the length of the lapse, payment of only two monthly premiums on the amount to be reinstated is enough to resume the policy.

Additional information and reinstatement applications can be obtained from the veterans' administration contact unit, 41 Eighth avenue west.

Ted Hallock's seven-piece combo will furnish music for the outdoor dance with Sue Welch Carlton as vocalist. The dance will be held on the library terrace with decorations following the "State Fair" theme.

There will be booths at the dance selling cokes and other refreshments, the chairman said. Assisting her on the committee are: Beverly Brown and Joan Davids, decorations; and Shirley Anderson, publicity.
