

Class of '47 Presents 'State Fair'...

CARNIVAL SPIRIT UNLEASHED

AS JUNIOR WEEKEND BEGINS

OREGON Daily EMERALD

VOLUME XLVII UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1946 Number 122

Registration Today Begins Fete For Oregon Moms; Tea Saturday

Jean Watson Promises Gala Weekend; Meets Scheduled for Visitors

The spotlight today will point to Oregon mothers who are visiting the campus, and holding their annual Mother's Weekend in conjunction with Junior Weekend this year. Students are welcoming Mom with various activities and special social events planned by the Mother's Weekend committee headed by Chairman Jean Watson.

Registration

Kay Schneider, chairman of the registration committee for Mother's Weekend, emphatically declared "all you Oregon Ducks are expected to bring your mothers to Johnson hall where they can register Friday from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m." The class that has the most mothers registered will be named later in the Emerald.

Tea

Among the outstanding events of the Junior Weekend and Mother's Weekend activities will be the tea for all visiting mothers and their sons and daughters at Gerlinger hall from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., Saturday. This event is sponsored jointly by the Eugene branch of the Oregon Mothers club, the YWCA on the campus and the Associated Women students. Marilyn Anderson is chairman of the campus committee. All students are reminded to bring their mothers to the Junior Prom where the west balcony will comfortably accommodate them. Punch will be served, and several members of the Eugene Mothers club will act as hostesses.

Dick Atiyeh and Pat Webber, co-chairmen of the hospitality committee urge the students to show their mothers the main points of interest on a conducted campus tour. Saturday afternoon from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. the following will be open: Condon hall, art school and art museum, the library, music school buildings, journalism building, McArthur court, natural history museum, and the downstairs of the infirmary where mothers will view the hospital care and treatment given University students.

Her Highness Queen Pat I

—Photo by Don Jones

Petite Miss Metcalf to Rule Fairgrounds

Dance, Sing To Highlight Cram-Packed Schedule

'O'-Painting, Seal-Scouring, Swim Pageant Promise Gala 'Fair' Opening Today

By HERB PENNY

A carnival cavalcade will hit the green Oregon campus today as "State Fair," the first post-war Junior Weekend, gets underway. Spotlight events of the merry making spree are: 1. Outdoor dance on the library terrace. 2. All-Campus Sing contest. 3. Float parade down Willamette street. 4. Outdoor dinner on the old campus. 5. Junior Prom featuring Gus Arnheim and his orchestra. 6. Sunlight Serenade at the music building. Many other gala events have been planned for the spring term's top weekend, Marilyn Sage and Tom Kay, co-chairmen of the affair, have promised.

Junior Weekend weather threatened clouds, but makes no mention of rain, it was learned last night from the local weather bureau, when the official broadcast for the area was released.

Lead-off events for today's festivities are the painting of the 'O' atop Skinner's butte and the cleaning of the Oregon seal in front of Fenton hall. This will be done by undergrads under the direction of the Order of the 'O.' The Oregon Mother's executive board meeting at 2:30 p.m. and an Amphibian pageant at 3:30 p.m. are also included in today's cram-packed program.

Terrace Dance

Starting the campus events is the open-air dance on the library terrace at 3 p.m. today featuring the music of Ted Hallock and his seven-piece farra-costumed combo. Informality will be the rule at the dance, Chairman Lola May Haegney has stressed, and campus clothes are in order.

Sue Welch Carlton will be vocalist for Hallock's men. All decorations will follow the "State Fair" theme, the chairman stated.

There will be booths at the dance selling cokes and other refreshments. Assisting Miss Haegney on her committee have been Beverly Brown and Joan Davids, decorations; and Shirley Anderson, publicity.

All-Campus Sing

McArthur court will be the scene of the evening entertainment for the first day of the 1946 Junior Weekend. At 7:30 tonight the All-Campus Sing will present choruses from 31 living organizations.

Nine men's and twenty-one women's choruses will compete for the two trophies which will be awarded to the top chorus in each division. Dave Fortmiller, chairman of the Sing, announced this week that the program will include the awarding of the $300 Schwering scholarship to an outstanding junior woman selected by the Schwering memorial board.

Another attraction of the Sing this year is the tapping of new members of Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's honorary. Prizes will also be awarded to the winners of the campus clean-up held Thursday.

Choruses will appear on the program in the following order: Sigma Kappa, Delta Zeta, Phi Beta Phi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Highland House, Alpha Phi, Phi Gamma Delta, Alpha Omicron Pi, Judson House,

(Please turn to page six)

Phi Beta Kappa Selects 25 New Senior Members

Twenty-five seniors were elected to membership in Phi Beta Kappa Thursday at the Oregon chapter's spring election.

Leading the list of 19 women and 6 men is Donald H. Coulter, law, with a GPA of 3.66.

The other new members include Bernice Granquist, education; Bettie Mae Hall, Romance languages; Alice Lockhart, Romance languages; Janette Richardson, English; Margaret McGee, journalism; Phyllis Korn, business administration; Marjorie McNeel, journalism; Eileen Brenneman, chemistry; Doris Leonig, business administration; Betty Jane Bennett Cramer, music; Marjorie Mills, business administration; Irene Jolivet, Romance languages; Mary Corrigan, psychology; Margaret Murphy, education; Helen Wohler, English; Roberta Perkins, sociology; Betty Minick Sitzman, geology and geo-

(Please turn to page three)

Weekend Ducats, Co-op

Tickets for the three top Junior Weekend events are still on sale at the University co-op. Hours are 2-5 p.m. today, and 8-12 Saturday.

Prom tickets may be obtained at a ticket booth between Oregon and Commerce buildings from 9-12 noon and 1-2 p.m. today and Saturday. Price for the Prom tickets is $2.40, the All-Campus Sing 50 cents, and the campus dinner 40 cents only printed giving the date as Friday, May 10. The correct date is Saturday, May 11.

Prom and dinner tickets may also be obtained at the educational activities office, which will be open all day Saturday.

Hack-happy Heavies Heft Punishing Paddles Today

Punishment of tradition offenders shifted into mass production today with the announcement Thursday by Leroy Erickson, Order of the "O" tradition enforcer, of the list of names who should appear today at 12:45 p.m. on the steps of Fenton hall to meet their doom. Bob Reynolds is working with Erickson in his law enforcement duties.

Those called by the Order for today's hack-fest are: Ed Caudero,

Don Richardson, Erit Torland, Pinky Williams, Dave Goff, Luke Bassolary, Alfred Ellingson, Bill Putman, Jack Yaeger, Bud Bactell, Mickey Davis, Bud North, Sam Ramey, Reg Ruth, Chuck Brayman, Dick Bunting, Jack Datton, Bill McLennan, Al Putnam, Augie Johnson, Art Hatifern, Ab Wilson, Wayne Lee, Nick Bassablarie, Joe Taylor, Don Martin, and Harry Edward.

(Please turn to page eight)