

Book Prize Won By Thelma Chaney

Thelma Chaney, sophomore in liberal arts, was awarded the Phi Beta Kappa book prize Thursday by the Oregon chapter of the organization.

The prize consists of books to the value of $25, and it is awarded on the basis of scholarship and promise to a student completing lower-division work. Miss Chaney has a GPA of 3.74 for her five terms' work at the University.

OLIVERMEN ADD

Starters in the backfield will undoubtedly be the tried and trusted quartet of Iversen, Newquist, Koch, and Bell. Of the four, Bell is the only one who is not a previous letterwinner. Whether or not this quartet can break loose for any long gains this afternoon is still an undecided issue, but experience certainly weighs in their favor.

Not to be overlooked however, are a pair who may start in the opposing backfield—Bobby Reynolds and Glenn Wilson. Reynolds needs no introduction to Webfoot fans in view of his stellar performances in previous years and his exhibition this spring as well. Wilson on the other hand has shown plenty of spark at the full-back berth, and, though he has shown none too much spark this last week, he is expected to come through this afternoon.

Of interest to many grid fans is the possibility that Walt Donavan, leading scorer in the PCC last year, may be back in uniform at a full-back berth today. Donavan has been working out on the track squad for the last few weeks, but is not expected to travel to Pullman with the cinder squad this weekend.

ton, May 24 and 25, with six schools competing. Montana will be the only team represented that did not have a team in the Northern Division conference.

On the courts today the varsity team had a stiff workout in preparation for the matches with the Huskies. Carey and VanZandt being very energetic, played four sets.

The men who will travel to Seattle have been fairly well established. In addition to Coach Washke the men will probably be Zeiger, Anderson, Philan, McBride and Carey.

The only other game of the conference finds the Idaho Vandals meeting the Washington State Cougars today.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA (Berkeley)—It wasn't immorality but a case of mistaken identity that got a certain male University student named Shirley into an unusual situation. Shirley was sharing an apartment some distance from the campus when he received an unpleasant letter from the dean of women's office expelling him because he was living with two men. He went down and explained things and was promptly reinstated.
