

THE Mothers OF MEN

THE ideal of motherhood has not varied greatly from age to age nor from land to land. Always she is the center of the home, the focal point of the family life. She carries that life on from generation to generation, and is the indispensable human link between man's yesterdays and his tomorrows.

In a large measure she molds the lives and characters of her children. Many great men have attributed their achievements to her, and one of them said, "All that I am and ever hope to be I owe to my angel mother." She is the most sublime and ineffable character in human history.

Mothers live closer to God than most other people. In the process of bearing and rearing children; in meeting the countless human problems that arise in a home; in all her toil and tears and gladness, she realizes better than most of us man's final dependence upon a higher power.

We pay her tribute on this Mother's Day, and lay our hearts at her feet. We love her for herself and all that she is. We love her for her toil and travail and endurance. We love her for her faith, which looks beyond the shadows of life's darkest hour and sees the light of God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday.
