

Beach War Story Aired at 4 Today

"Beach Red" adapted from the book by "Ox" Wilson and Roberta Quigley will be presented by the University Workshop Players on station KOAC at 4 today.

It is a story of the landing of a detachment of soldiers on a hypothetical "Beach Red" during the second world war. The book was dedicated to all the men who did not return.

"This is the biggest job we have undertaken up until now," remarked Wilson. "The sound, music, and acting will have to be tops." Upon requesting to allow the adaption to be broadcast Wilson said that the publishers wrote back that they would be gratified to have it done.

Lee Petrasek is in charge of sound and Herb Penny music. Members of the cast include: Roberta Quigley, Paul Marcotte, Fred Beckwith, Jack Miller, Ted Hallock, Stan Boquist, Vernon Barkhurst, David Waite, John Mathews, and John Hammerbeck.

At 4:30 Mary Stapleton, pianist from the school of music, will play "Berceuse" by Chopin, "Waltz in A Flat" by Chopin, and "Concert Etude in D Flat" by Liszt. This is being produced by Ted Hallock.

Lorene Thompson, vocalist, and Gordon Halstead, announcer are on the "Something for You" program at 4:45. Miss Thompson is singing "Stardust," "All Through the Day," "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows," and "Mood Indigo."
