

Beavers Dump Ducks Twice

Dorwood Cecil Paces 10 to 6 OSC Triumph

CORVALLIS, May 20—(Special)—Oregon State's second place Beavers remained in the thick of the 1946 Northern Division baseball pennant race here today by turning back the Oregon Ducks for the second straight time, 10 to 6.

The Beavers now have nine wins and five losses and the Webfoots remain one game in front with 10 victories and four defeats. The two teams meet again Friday at Eugene in the third game of the crucial series.

Oregon needs one triumph to win its fourth straight flag and the Beavers need two more wins to capture the title.

It was a case of too much of the Cecil family and two critical errors today.

First-sacker Dorwood Cecil blasted out a homer and two singles in four trips to the plate, drove in four runs and scored three more. Don Cecil, his cousin, scattered nine Webfoot hits and would have had a shutout but for some sloppy play in left field, an error and his own wild pitch.

In addition to running wild with his bat, Cecil turned in a flawless game at the initial sack. His big "butterfly net" pulled in four wild throws to save his mates in the infield from being charged with errors.

Oregon failed to get a hit until the fourth and then singles by Lozoski and Tony Crish failed to produce any tallies.

Oregon shifted its infield today and Bass Dyer took over the hot corner and Walt Lozoski moved to shortstop. Lozoski turned in the best game of the day for the Webfoots, handling six chances without a bobble.

Oregon State opened its attack in the second inning when Homer Brobst played Harry Schultze's bouncer too slowly and it went for scratch single. Dorwood Cecil scratched with a 365-foot drive over the center field fence for two runs.

The Beavers scored six more in the third. Don Cecil opened with a single and Dick Kohler was credited with another infield single when Spike Johnson couldn't do anything with his bunt. Don Bower bunted and all hands were safe when Dick Rodiger's throw pulled Dyer off third.

Harry Richards bounced to Dyer and two runs scored when he hit Don Cecil in the back with his throw to the plate.

Lou Wegner walked and Dorwood Cecil singled to center for another pair of tallies. Wegner went to third on the hit and when Cecil attempted to steal second he came home to score under Johnson's throw to Rodiger.

Dick Lehl then replaced Brobst and Jack Schimel greeted him with another run-producing single.

A walk, Dorwood Cecil's third straight hit, Santee's juggle of the ball in left and Carl Gustafson's single accounted for two more runs in the fifth.

Box score:

The Ducks picked up a pair in the fifth when Jim Norvell doubled and scored when Jack Schimel let Dorwood Cecil's throw after Rodiger popped to him in short right field. Walt Kirsch singled and Lozoski

Oregon JVs Play SOCE Here Today

The Webfoot junior varsity baseball team goes back into action this afternoon at 3 p. m. when they play hosts to the Southern Oregon College of Education team on Howe field.

The JVs have been idle since last Tuesday when they split a twin bill with the Pacific Badgers at Forest Grove. The starting hurler for today's game has not yet been announced.

Included in the hitting attack of the highly regarded Southern Oregon nine from Ashland is Chuck DeAutremount, a former University high star from Eugene.

Oregon Golfers Set For ND

The University of Oregon and the Eugene Country Club play host to the Northwest's top collegiate golfers when the divot squads from the five Northern Division schools converge on Eugene this weekend.

The University of Washington Huskies loom as heavy favorites to cop top honors with the Webfoot quartet labeled an outside possibility.

Entries from each school will include four men. Representing the University of Oregon will be George Kikes, Bill Barish, Ralph Heustis, and Ossie Seida.

sent him to third with his second hit. Kirsch scored on Don Cecil's wild pitch.

The Ducks picked up four gift runs in the eighth. Crish opened with a double, Johnson struck out and Dyer and Bill Long drew walks to load the sacks.

Rodiger lacked an easy liner to left, but Schultze misjudged it and it went for three bases. Rodiger scored on Lehl's bouncer to short.

Santee beat out a bunt with one away in the ninth, but nothing came of the rally.

Duck Trackmen Select Chow For ND Meet

By Al Pietschman

Oregon's trackmen loosened up muscles yesterday in preparation for the Northwest meet at Seattle Saturday. None of the runners had worked out since the OSC dual meet Thursday and tried to work the kinks out of their legs.

Colonel Bill Hayward, track mentor, talked to his men prior to the workout and announced the men that would represent Oregon at the big run in Seattle.

Determined that his men were going to be happy on the trip, Hayward asked each one that was scheduled to go just what he wanted for breakfast and received numerous individual requests. After the meet, and prior to heading back to Eugene, the team will partake of a big steak "on Oregon," Bill informed his cipher men.

Officials at Seattle have not reported whether there will be preliminaries to the finals in the meet or not, and Hayward has had to do some juggling of the team due to this uncertainty.

Attired in their "fancy dan" track meet clothes, the cinder squad posed for Photog Warren Teter yesterday afternoon and were photographed for the 1947 Oregonian. Several members of the team were missing as they had not received word of the intended picture taking.

Complete lists of the men and their events that will travel to Seattle Friday will be in tomorrow's Emerald.

ATO Courtmen Shutout Omega

Alpha Tau Omega's tennis team swept through the Omega hall tennis team yesterday by winning all of their three matches.

The first doubles team of the ATO's had to go three sets before they were able to overcome their stubborn opponents, 6-3, 5-7, and 6-4.

Wednesday, the Phi Gamma Delta and Kappa Sigma tennis teams clash in an attempt to eliminate each other from the semi-finals.

Other results of yesterday's matches: Singles; Boone, ATO, defeated Pickens, 6-2, 9-7. Doubles; Brown and Franks, ATO, defeated Knowles and Chin, 6-4, 6-2.

Sacrifice hit—Don Cecil. Passed ball—Wegner. Wild pitch—Don Cecil. Struck out by Don Cecil 4, Brobst 1, Lehl 2. Walks off Don Cecil 4, Brobst 1, Lehl 4. Earned runs off Brobst 2, Lehl 1, Don Cecil 4. Left on base—Oregon 8, OSC 5. Umpires—Campbell and Westover. Time—2h 18m.

Ducks Lose Tennis Tilt At Seattle

The final tennis matches of the Northern Division conference last Saturday at the University of Washington in Seattle saw the Huskies defeat the University of Oregon Ducks six matches to one to win the Division title.

The Ducks and the Oregon State Beavers end the season tied for second place; three wins and two losses each.

Stan Anderson, playing the number three spot for the Webfoots, was the only man of the Oregon team to turn in a win by defeating his opponent, Haller Peterson, 6-4 and 6-3.

Of the seven matches played on the Huskies courts, four of them went three sets each before they were won.

Enroute to Seattle, Coach Washke's racquet men stopped off at Willamette university long enough to trounce the Bearcat tennis team by winning all of their seven matches.

The final collegiate matches in the Northern Division will be the doubles and dsingles elimination contest, to be held in Pullman, Washington May 24 and 25. This meet will have no effect on the final standings of schools in the conference, but will actually determine the singles and doubles champions. Montana will be the only team represented at the meet which did not participate in the dual meets.

Other results of Saturday's singles; Eden, (W), defeated Philan, 1-6, 7-5, 6-1; Lowe, (W) defeated Zeiger, 6-4, 6-4; Burrows, (W) defeated Davis 4-6, 6-3, 6-4; Oswald, (W) defeated Carey, 6-3, 6-4; Doubles; Peterson and Eden, (W) defeated Anderson and Zeiger, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3; Lowe and Olson, (W) defeated Philan and McBride, 6-2, 2-6, 6-3.

Saltzman Loses First Game As Errors Costly

By Tommy Wright

Ralph Coleman's determined Oregon State college Beavers put a crimp into Oregon's bid to sew up the Northern Division title here Saturday by handing the Webfoots their third loss of the season, 4-3.

Chuck Sauvain, freshman south-paw hurler from Woodburn, held the hard-hitting Ducks to six hits, three of which were infield singles, to keep the Orangemen in the running for the conference crown.

Hal Saltzman, who boasted a perfect record on the mound for Oregon with six wins and no losses for the season, definitely wasn't at his best. He gave up nine hits, walked two, hit two batters and threw one wild pitch in going the route for the Webfoots, and taking his first loss.

The Webfoots looked good for their usual ninth inning comeback, but the rally was halted when Al Cohen, who had gone in as a pinch-hitter for Jim Norvell, was trapped off third for the final out.

Oregon State led 4-2 going into the final frame. Bass Dyer hit a pinch-hit double along the third base line. Lyle Pettyjohn, batting for Ranny Smith, flied out to center. Cohen walked and both he and Dyer advanced on Walt Kirsch's ground out to third.

Walt Lozoski hit a slow roller which Dorwood Cecil let go through him, and Dyer scored on the error. Cohen held up at third, and the stage was set with the tying run on third and the winning tally on first. Lozoski started to steal second, and Chuck Sauvain whirled to throw to the key-stone, halted and threw to third to catch Cohen ten feet off the bag to end the game.

The Beavers opened the scoring in the third inning. Don Bower singled to center and was forced at second by Carl Gustafson's grounder. Gustafson stole second and scored on Dick Kohler's triple along the third-base line. Kohler, who had a single, a double, and a triple in five trips to the plate, scored on Saltzman's wild pitch.

Oregon came back in the fourth to net one tally. Lozoski walked and went to third when Kohler dropped Tony Crish's flyball into center. Lozoski romped home on Spike Johnson's single to center-field. Oregon tied the count in the sixth frame, when Santee crossed the plate after being caught between third and home. Beaver Catcher Lou Wegner dropped the toss to let Santee score.

Oregon State went into the lead again in the seventh. Kohler, who scored three of the Beavers' runs,
