

YWCA Schedules Wives' Gathering

Foreign brides, as well as other women on campus, are invited to attend the meetings of the "Y's Wives" held every other Tuesday. Mrs. Helena Hoffman, director of the Eugene YWCA, said yesterday. The next meeting of the "Y's Wives" will be held October 15.

Social, literary, and home topics will be discussed. Tea, prepared by the French women of the organization will be served in the YWCA library at 1060 Willamette from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Started in Eugene by Mrs. Hoffman, the "Y's Wives" was organized to help foreign brides become accustomed to American ways. The club now has 25 members, including women from England, Australia, France, Belgium, Scotland, Egypt,

New Zealand, Brazil, Poland, and Italy.

University wives, including Mrs. Peter Barker, Mrs. Jacquelin Johnston, and Mrs. Aty Mohsin have recently become members of the club.

One Month in U. S.

Mrs. Mohsin, native of Alexandria, Egypt, has been in America only one month. She speaks French, Egyptian, and English. Her husband is a graduate student in the school of architecture.

Londoners Here

Mrs. Barker and Mrs. Johnston have come from England. Mrs. Barker who was born in Brazil, has traveled widely, studying music throughout the world. Both ladies were in London during the "blitz."

It is estimated that the number of teachers in U. S. elementary and high schools dropped from 927,000 in 1941 to 868,000 in 1944-45.
